Inspiring Students Kemel (Principle Teaching Fellow Ahmet,2013-09-13 This text looks at the problems of teaching HE students whose main interest and discipline lies elsewhere Contributors describe strategies they have developed to inspire students and case studies are used to transfer key ideas to other teachers   The Development of MOOCs in China Qinhua Zheng,Li Chen,Daniel Burgos,2017-12-05 This book aims at discussing the development of MOOCs in China in relation to MOOCs in other countries or areas Based on the history of MOOCs we summarize and compare the development of MOOCs in China and other countries with empirical evidence from a comprehensive investigation about MOOCs in Asian United States and Europe Then we discuss about the importance of MOOCs in China and its role in the reform of higher education system and the model of teaching and learning in China After all we provide suggestions about how to improve MOOCs at the national institutional and individual level In this book we analyse and present the current construction and development of MOOCs in China from four dimensions including platforms courses learners colleges and universities based on huge empirical evidence from a comprehensive investigation of 14 platforms 42 universities 1388 MOOCs and 22895 learners Our investigation mainly focused on seven topics platform construction and operation learner groups curriculum organization form teaching interaction learning evaluation model learning support service and courses certification and academic score system Based on the investigation we found there is an emerging trend of collaboration among government universities and enterprise in the development of MOOCs in China which provides great opportunities to build an innovative educational service system for all kinds of learners We also discuss our findings in relation to the corresponding development of MOOCs

in United States Europe and other regions and then focus on the unique challenges that China faces such as the lack of deep learning in MOOCs the low information literacy and self regulated learning abilities of MOOC learners the lack of individualized support for MOOC learners and so on At last this book summarizes the overall development of MOOCs in China and other countries and then put forward the future trends and suggestions in this field Personalising Library Services in Higher Education Elizabeth Tilley,2016-05-06 In an economic climate where cuts are becoming the norm a boutique library service may seem a contradiction In some academic libraries the trend is still towards centralisation programmes or offering generic services However the student as the customer now has an even greater vested interest in the learning process as their financial commitment increases and they are demanding better services Personalised library services are tailored with a specific clientele in mind and will provide the enhanced service demanded by today s students These services need not cost more money but they do require inventive and customer facing staff They celebrate and promote collaborative ventures along with excellent communication and marketing This book unpacks the boutique model and is full of practical advice supported by a unique set of case studies reflecting international practice including Australian American and Russian and UK library services British Librarianship and Information Work ,1976
