The Echo at Coole & Other Poems Austin Clarke, 1968      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel, 1974      W. B. Yeats and the Language of Sculpture Jack Quin, 2022 A study of the relationship between literature and sculpture in the work of W B Yeats that draws on an extensive range of unpublished archival materials from the poet s early career in the late Victorian period and across his entire oeuvre of poetry plays and critical writing      Austin Clarke, 1896-1974 Maurice Harmon, 1989-01-01 This relates Clarke to the Irish Literary Revival and the cultural contexts of his time while tracing that fine generosity lavish colour and concrete imagery Contents Portrait Introduction i Austin Clarke 1896 1974 ii Contexts iii Catholicism iv The Irish Literary Revival v The Gaelic League vi The Worlds of Austin Clarke vii A New Generation Part I Remembering Our Innocence 1 Short Poems 1916 1925 2 Epic Narratives 1916 1925 3 Pilgrimage 1929 4 Night and Morning 1938 5 Three Prose Romances 6 Plays 7 Conclusion Part II Nothing Left to Sing 8 Poems and Satires 1955 1962 i Short Poems ii Long Autobiographical Poems 9 Flight to Africa 1963 10 Mnemosyne Lay In Dust 1966 11 Last Poems 1967 1974 12 Conclusion Notes Bibliography Index R      Contemporary Irish Poetry, New and Revised Editon Anthony Bradley, 1988-11-15 The poems featured in this anthology are quintessentially human documents informed by humor compassion and a joyful and visionary element an impulse to praise what is really life and to protect it from the naysayers as well as by a salutary realism and irony This revised edition features the work of Tom Paulin Medbh McGuckian Paul Durcan Aidan Carl Mathews Anne Hartigan Nuala n Dhomhnaill and others who were not included in the first edition Moreover the selections from those poets featured in the first edition have in many cases been extensively changed and updated In total more than half the poems published in this second edition did not appear in the first      A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century

Building W. B. Yeats's Later Poetry

Tomoko Iwatsubo,2024-09-09 This book explores Yeats's later poetry through the metaphor of the poetic tower where different kinds of building architectural textual political and symbolic were closely interrelated It chronologically examines Yeats's tower poems composed during a period of dramatic personal and national transformation from 1915 to 1932 Within a year after the Easter Rising in Dublin Yeats acquired a half ruined Norman tower in County Galway Ireland which had enthralled him for the past two decades and textually and architecturally constructed it into a focus of his life and work Interweaving the account of the renovation of the actual building and the textual construction in the socio historical contexts the book reveals the evolution of Yeats's multiplex tower as an organizing principle of his later poetry Using the archive of correspondence and manuscript materials of relevant poems including those which have thus far escaped close attention the book offers close textual genetic analyses and a diachronic view of Yeats's tower poetry which with its foundations laid decades earlier he built in the collections from The Wild Swans at Coole 1919 to The Winding Stair and Other Poems 1933 Highlighting the delicate exchange between poetry and biography as well as between the textual architecture and the actual one identifying a turning point in the making of each tower oriented poem and proposing some draft dating revisions this first book length systematic study on the process of Yeats's creation of the tower casts an unfamiliar light on a familiar yet underexplored landmark in modern poetry and makes his step by step construction work come alive      Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1965
