Congress. Senate. Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions,2000 Global Labour in Distress, Volume II Pedro Goulart,Raul Ramos,Gianluca Ferrittu,2023-01-01 This book the second of two volumes explores the transformations to the labour market observed since the official end of the Cold War in 1991 This period is defined by the retreat of the state and a move towards more market based economies followed by a State comeback with the Great Recession These bumpy decades for labour and changing labour policies are analysed thematically The second volume focuses on labour earnings and inequality underemployment in decent work and labour market policies This book aims to examine how labour institutions both in developed and developing countries have responded to the challenges faced over the last 30 years It will be relevant to students and researchers interested in labour economics political economy and development economics Economic Foundations of Law Stephen J. Spurr,2019-02-06 The third edition of Economic Foundations of Law introduces readers to the economic analysis of the major areas of the law property law torts contracts criminal law civil procedure corporation law and financial markets taxation and labor law No prior knowledge of law is required but a prior course in the principles of microeconomics would be quite helpful The text opens with a review of the basic principles of price theory and an overview of the legal system to ensure readers are equipped with the tools necessary for economic analysis of the law The third edition provides expanded or new coverage of key topics including intellectual property law how the creation of new forms of property rights affects the conservation of species such as elephants and fish controversies involving liability for medical malpractice and class actions the transformation of personal injury litigation by the intervention of insurance companies as plaintiffs how to predict the outcome of litigation with game theory an economic analysis of the ownership and use of guns bankruptcy law and the economics of bank regulation Comprehensive and well written this text is a compelling introduction to law and economics that is accessible to both economics and law students Public Health Reports ,2008 Rethinking the Color Line Charles A. Gallagher,2021-12-16 Rethinking the Color Line is a collection of theoretically informed and empirically grounded readings on race and race relations that illustrate how race and ethnicity influence aspects of social life in ways that are often made invisible by culture politics and economics A Portrait of America John Iceland,2014-09-05 Portrait of America describes our nation s changing population and examines through a demographic lens some of our most pressing contemporary challenges ranging from poverty and economic inequality to racial tensions and health disparities Celebrated author John Iceland covers various topics including America s historical demographic growth the American family today gender inequality economic well being immigration and diversity racial and ethnic inequality internal migration and residential segregation and health and mortality The discussion of these topics is informed by several sources including an examination of household survey data and by syntheses of existing published material both quantitative and qualitative Iceland discusses the current issues and controversies around these themes highlighting their role in everyday debates taking place in Congress the media and in American living rooms Each chapter includes historical background as well as a discussion of how patterns and trends in the United States compare to those in peer countries Decent Work Fiona Christie,Marilena Antoniadou,Kevin Albertson,Mark Crowder,2021-09-29 Addressing changes to today s work and employment relationships this volume offers suggestions for how public and private sector policy and practice can support the realisation of Decent Work while exploring urgent and practical possibilities to secure fair and decent working lives for all Communication, Race, and Family Thomas J. Socha,Rhunette C. Diggs,1999-08-01 This groundbreaking volume explores how family communication influences the perennial and controversial topic of race In assembling this collection editors Thomas J Socha and Rhunette C Diggs argue that the hope for managing America s troubles with race lies not only with communicating about race at public meetings in school and in the media but also and more fundamentally with families communicating constructively about race at home African American and European American family communication researchers come together in this volume to investigate such topics as how Black families communicate to manage the issue of racism how Black parent child communication is used to manage the derogation of Black children the role of television in family communication about race the similarities and differences between and among communication in Black White and biracial couples and families and how family communication education can contribute to a brighter future for all With the aim of developing a clearer understanding of the role that family communication plays in society s move toward a multicultural world this volume provides a crucial examination of how families struggle with issues of ethnic cultural diversity Race and Ethnicity in America John Iceland,2017-02-14 Race and Ethnicity in America succinctly examines patterns and trends in inequality over the past 60 years for different racial groups focusing on education income poverty wealth residential attainment and health outcomes Do human capital differences explain black white inequality or are other factors more important Are we seeing patterns consistent with assimilation among Hispanics and Asians This book analyzes the causes for disadvantage and how they vary for each group spanning a legacy of racism current discrimination the unfolding process of immigrant incorporation and cultural responses to disadvantage Conversations about race can quickly devolve into aggressive and defensive discussions about culpability But understanding racial concerns is critical to understanding American history and America today Marriage at the Crossroads Marsha Garrison, Elizabeth S. Scott, 2012-10-15 The institution of marriage is at a crossroads Across most of the industrialized world unmarried cohabitation and nonmarital births have skyrocketed while marriage rates are at record lows These trends mask a new idealized vision of marriage as a marker of success as well as a growing class divide in childbearing behavior the children of better educated wealthier individuals continue to be born into relatively stable marital unions while the children of less educated poorer individuals are increasingly born and raised in more fragile nonmarital households The interdisciplinary approach offered by this edited volume provides tools to inform the debate and to assist policy makers in resolving questions about marriage at a critical juncture Drawing on the expertise of social scientists and legal scholars the book will be a key text for anyone who seeks to understand marriage as a social institution and to evaluate proposals for marriage reform The Inequality Reader David Grusky, 2018-04-19 Oriented toward the introductory student The Inequality Reader is the essential textbook for today's undergraduate courses The editors David B Grusky and Szonja Szelenyi have assembled the most important classic and contemporary readings about how poverty and inequality are generated and how they might be reduced With thirty new readings the second edition provides new materials on anti poverty policies as well as new qualitative readings that make the scholarship more alive more accessible and more relevant Now more than ever The Inequality Reader is the one stop compendium of all the must read pieces simply the best available introduction to the stratification canon The Gender Knot Johnson, 2007-09 The Gender Knot Allan G. Johnson, 2005 A compelling approach to gender inequality that empowers both men and women to be part of the solution instead of just part of the problem Careful Economics Maren A. Jochimsen, 2013-04-17 Much like their authors the ideas behind books can grow and change on the way from proposal to manuscript I originally planned to join the discussion on care and economics at a different more policy oriented level hoping to identify the conditions under which caring services are taken to the market In approaching the task however I realized that economic science lacked an overall concept of caring Economists notions of caring and their knowledge of its basic elements and structural characteristics were fragmented Caring activities were treated in the context of household work unpaid work or subsistence and informal work None of the different approaches shared a common frame of reference This has made it impossible to study caring activities across the various realms of the economy independent of whether provided in a family setting purchased on the market or supplied by the state or society I therefore found I had to begin my questioning earlier at the level of basic understandings and concepts Global Symposium on Women in Fisheries ,2002
