Building Bridges of Time, Places and People J. Marc. Merrill, 2012-05 Mysteries associated with ancient Egypt are not confined to the pyramids of Giza For example consider these One Egyptian hieroglyph is patterned after a bird known as the jabiru another is an image of a saguaro cactus Both the jabiru and the saguaro are found only in the Western Hemisphere so how did they become hieroglyphs Tutankhamen is referred to as the boy king by Egyptologists Why then were statues found in the tomb portraits of a young woman Hatshepsut is said to have been a female pharaoh who reigned for 22 years but then disappeared from the scene What happened to her And why was her image expunged from the walls of temples Senenmut a favorite of Hatshepsut wrote that he had access to all the writings of the prophets Which prophets did he mean Why does the face of the mummy of Ramesses II not match the statues of this great pharaoh Also why did the embalmers remove the stomach and place the heart on the right side of the thorax And why were diced tobacco leaves from the Western Hemisphere used to line the chest cavity Why was Yuya supposedly the father of the great Queen Tiy buried with three coffins while his wife had only two Moreover why did the mask that covered his face along with the face on the innermost coffin look totally different from the mummy and from each other Death masks were found not just in Egypt but in Greece as well The most famous of these came from grave 5 at Mycenae Each eye of this gold mask has double eyelids In addition like the Sphinx at Giza and the Shroud of Turin the left eye is higher than the right and the mouth is not centered How can such similarities be explained Turning to Italy on the underside of the right wrist of the Prima Porta statue of Augustus there is the distinct impression of the head of a spike According to historians this statue depicts the first emperor of Rome but what if it is instead a portrait of a man who was crucified These mysteries along with many others are examined in detail and then convincingly explained in this first of two volumes to explore crucial links between Egypt Israel Greece and Italy Eternal Remains: World Mummification and the Beliefs that make it Necessary Ken Jeremiah , 2014-01-14 Eternal Remains World Mummification and the Beliefs that make it Necessary provides an overview of mummification but it concentrates on the reasons behind the act It investigates the justification for preserving dead bodies and in so doing probes the true nature of both life and death Many think of these as two distinct concepts like day and night but they are not distinct Day fades into night and night then returns to day There are realms in which night and day merge such as dusk and dawn Perhaps the relationship between life and death is similar After explaining the natural processes of decay and how they are halted various mummies in different parts of the world are introduced In the Americas these include snow and ice preserved bodies in Montana and Alaska and some controversial finds in other states The Guanajuato mummies in Mexico and the strangely preserved bodies in San Bernardo Columbia are also introduced alongside new translations of modern reactions to such bodies The mummification techniques of cultures in Central and South America are also delineated including Incan sacrificial ceremonies and the preservation of Incan kings Unusual preservations in South America include the Chancay practice of turning the deceased into drums which were played during special ceremonies and the J varo method of shrinking heads In addition Eternal Remains introduces to the English speaking world the recently discovered world s smallest mummy Ichiknuna Chapters about European mummies cover the so called Frankenstein mummies of Cladh Hallan and fantastically preserved bog bodies which provide evidence of ancient murders and superstitious customs The mummies in Ferentillo a small town north of Rome in the region of Umbria were strangely preserved by the soil s chemical composition Eternal Remains contains many pictures of these mummies which have not been previously published It also provides new information about what happened to King Tutankhamen s body after it had been embalmed and placed into a sarcophagus and it explains the amazing discovery of cocaine nicotine and hashish in nine different 7 000 year old Egyptian mummies Since mainstream historical understanding holds that these substances only existed in the Americas at the time the discovery is forcing some scholars to consider the possibility of cross oceanic trade which would force a historical rewrite Other controversial finds are likewise presented in this text including the discovery of advanced ancient Caucasian bodies in China This book is one of few in English to cover Buddhist mummification in Tibet and China and the amazingly self mummified monks in Japan Newly translated information about some of these monks never before published in English is included in this book alongside pictures of the monks who engaged in this suicidal practice Eternal Remains also explains modern methods of conservation The reasons behind the worldwide desire to mummify are similar and by investigating the techniques and the underlying beliefs that necessitated the practice one can more clearly see just what makes us human This study forces readers to reflect upon the true nature of life and death and connections are made between the spiritual portion of each individual and other natural phenomena They are led to ponder the ultimate significance of it all The final conclusions formed are sure to inspire all providing a new way to consider death and its relationship to life Eternal Remains combines a study of mummification with comparative religions and an analysis of worldwide beliefs about the nature of death It will open one s eyes to new possibilities concerning human advancement anomalous archaeological discoveries and the greatest mysteries of both life and death

Stephen Wunrow addresses the pressing question of what the author of Hebrews meant by his descriptions of heaven arguing that the author intended his references to heavenly space to be interpreted as realistic descriptions of a real place Wunrow posits that language about heaven is neither metaphor nor a description of a place outside the creation by examining other early Jewish and Christian texts that narrate or describe humans ascending into heaven Given the nature and the function of heavenly space as described in these texts Wunrow suggests it is most probable that the authors of the texts intended their descriptions of heavenly space to be understood as realistic Wunrow thus explores 1 and 2 Enoch 4 Ezra 2 and 3 Baruch the Apocalypse of Abraham the Testament of Levi the Testament of Abraham the Ascension of Isaiah and Revelation investigating how other roughly contemporary authors described heavenly space and considering that the rhetorical aims of most of these authors fail unless their readers understand their descriptions of heavenly space in realistic ways Turning then to examine Hebrews

Wunrow suggests that while the letter does contain unique features and rhetorical aims it also fits comfortably with other early Jewish and Christian texts that describe humans ascending into heaven in a realistic manner He concludes with reflections on how this conclusion helps to clarify other topics in Hebrews including atonement and eschatology
