A terrific poem,
Or one to terrify.
It's down to mood,
In my mind's eye.

I'm Willo the Wisp,
Maybe Marley's Ghost.
The one never seen,
Or meet the most.

I'm in your bubble,
Or miles away.
An idea exclusive,
Or a thought astray.

Never here or there,
Always near or far.
A total enigma,
A mind bizarre.

The Elusive Mind H. D. Lewis, 2021-10-29 First published in 1969 The Elusive Mind argues that the mental processes are of a quite different nature from physical ones and belong to an entity which is elusive in the sense that it can only be known in the first instance by each person in his own case in the course of having any kind of experience This elusive self is much involved with the body in any conditions we know but it could also survive the dissolution of the body The views of thinkers like Ryle Hampshire Malcolm Feigl and Ayer are subjected to an exceptionally close and critical scrutiny In presenting these views the author offers us the substance of the first series of Gifford Lectures he delivered in the University of Edinburgh and in what he says on such topics as dreaming mysticism and the I Thou relation and on Christian Theology This book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of philosophy philosophy of mind ethics and religion The Elusive Mind Hywel David Lewis, 1969 The elusive mind H. The Person and Primary Emotions Peter A. Bertocci, 2012-12-06 I shall propose that the unlearned motives of persons are primary emotions I am not surprised that many informed readers will wonder where I have been for the last five decades when even the conception of unlearned motives instincts drives urges has been shown to be little more than the result of undisciplined investigation And here I am proposing that in the nature and dynamics of some emotions that persons experience we can gain more adequate understanding of human motives at the unlearned level During the last five decades I have spent most of my time teaching the history of philosophy metaphysics philosophy of religion ethics and theory of value the psychology of personality and the philosophy of personality Increasingly I have paid special attention to the ways in which claims about the nature of man influence the theory of motives emotions and feelings What kept impressing me is the way in which the interpretation of the findings about motives feelings and emotion reflect unargued conceptions of human nature or that the views of fundamental motives feelings and emotions unduly dominate the underlying conception of the person In focusing attention first on the essential nature of a person I shall be discussing issues that are actually basic to our more analytical interpretation of the nature and dynamics of the primary motives or primary emotions
