The Emancipation Of Women In Great Britain The Archive Series:

The Emancipation of Women in Great Britain, 1972 Compilation of extracts from newspapers letters speeches etc on the historical development of women s rights in the UK covers legal status social status employment etc Illustrations Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1973 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modernist Archives Jamie Callison, Matthew Feldman, Anna Svendsen, Erik Tønning, 2024-06-13 Providing a broad definitive account of how the archival turn in humanities scholarship has shaped modernist studies this book also functions as an ongoing practitioner s toolkit including useful bibliographical resources and a guide to avenues for future work Archival work in modernist studies has revolutionised the discipline in the past two decades fuelled by innovative and ambitious scholarly editing projects and a growing interest in fresh types of archival sources and evidence that can re contextualise modernist writing Several theoretical trends have prompted this development including the focus on compositional process within genetic manuscript studies the emphasis on book history little magazines and wider publishing contexts and the emphasis on new material evidence and global and non canonical authors and networks within the New Modernist Studies This book provides a guide to the variety of new archival research that will point to fresh avenues and connect the methodologies and resources being developed across modernist studies Offering a variety of single author case studies on recent archival developments and editing projects including Samuel Beckett Hart Crane H D James Joyce Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf it also offers a range of thematic essays that examine an array of underused sources as well as the challenges facing archival researchers of modernism British Women's History, 1996 This is one of a series of bibliographical guides designed to meet the needs of undergraduates postgraduates and their teachers in universities and colleges of further education All volumes in the series share a number of common characteristics They are selective manageable in size and include those books and articles which are considered most important and useful All are edited by practising teachers of the subject in question and are based on their experience of the needs of students The arrangement combines chronological with thematic divisions Most of the items listed receive some descriptive comment Legacies of British Slave-Ownership Catherine Hall, Nicholas Draper, Keith McClelland, Katie Donington, Rachel Lang, 2014-08-28 This book re examines the relationship between Britain and colonial slavery in a crucial period in the birth of modern Britain Drawing on a comprehensive analysis of British slave owners and mortgagees who received compensation from the state for the end of slavery and tracing their trajectories in British life the volume explores the commercial political cultural social intellectual physical and imperial legacies of slave ownership It transcends conventional divisions in history writing to provide an integrated account of one powerful way in which Empire came home to Victorian Britain and to reassess narratives of West Indian decline It will be of value to scholars not only of British economic and social history but also of the histories of the Atlantic world of the Caribbean and of slavery as well as to those concerned with the evolution of ideas of race and difference and with the relationship between past and present Archives of Labor Lori Merish,2017-05-04 In Archives of Labor Lori Merish establishes working class women as significant actors within literary culture dramatically redrawing the map of nineteenth century US literary and cultural history Delving into previously unexplored archives of working class women s literature from autobiographies pamphlet novels and theatrical melodrama to seduction tales and labor periodicals Merish recovers working class women s vital presence as writers and readers in the antebellum era Her reading of texts by a diverse collection of factory workers seamstresses domestic workers and prostitutes boldly challenges the purportedly masculine character of class dissent during this era Whether addressing portrayals of white New England factory girls fictional accounts of African American domestic workers or the first person narratives of Mexican women working in the missions of Mexican California Merish unsettles the traditional association of whiteness with the working class to document forms of cross racial class identification and solidarity In so doing she restores the tradition of working women s class protest and dissent shows how race and gender are central to class identity and traces the ways working women understood themselves and were understood as workers and class subjects Monographic Series Library of Congress,1980 Politics and Political Culture in Britain and Ireland, 1750-1850 Allan Blackstock,Eoin Magennis,2007

The Routledge Companion to Race in Early Modern Artistic, Material, and Visual Production Nicholas R. Jones,Christina H. Lee,Dominique E. Polanco,2025-05-30 This companion analyzes frames and provokes race in insightful ways that center non white communities artistic and visual expression in the early modern period rather than presenting the bias of European artistic and visual depictions of the colonization enslavement and subordination of People of Color The organization of the book moves chronologically taking a conceptual and thematic framework This collection provides a spectrum of object ased case studies of artistic production bjects and object ypes rom six continents between the 1400s and 1800s Contributions take an art historical approach characterized by a close analysis of form function and meaning with a particular focus on questions of cross ultural dialog and provenance Additionally there is an emphasis on material culture The book will interest scholars working in African diaspora studies art history visual culture material culture Indigenous studies Renaissance studies musicology early modern studies decolonial studies and race and racism studies

Perspectives of Female Researchers Sharmina Mawani,Anjoom A. Mukadam,2016-05-05 This fascinating book presents a wide ranging collection of interdisciplinary research on Gujarati identities in India and the diaspora An international group of women researchers from different academic backgrounds has gathered a rich set of data that provide fresh insights and raise many searching questions We find here theoretical and practical perspectives linked to social cultural historical literary and personal concerns that will appeal to and challenge a wide readership A most remarkable volume on which the editors are to be congratulated Professor Ursula King FRSA University of Bristol In this welcome volume women scholars draw out the many facets of identity as it is forged in the minds and bodies and social spiritual and business worlds of Gujaratis in India and the diaspora It is rare indeed to find a book which discusses in such detail the impact of gender and ethnicity on the research process as well as on the lives of those studied Professor Kim Knott University of Lancaster

Gender and Change Alexandra Shepard, Garthine Walker, 2009-06-08 Through a collection of essays by leading scholars on women's history and gender history Gender and Change Agency Chronology and Periodisation questions conventional chronologies while reassessing the relationship between gender agency continuity and change Celebrates 20 years of the publication of the journal Gender History Reflects the extent to which gender analysis suggests alternatives to conventional periodisation For example whether the European Renaissance can be classified as the same period of great cultural advance when viewed from the perspective of women Offers innovative historiographical and theoretical reflection on approaches to gender agency and change

Lutyens, Maconchy, Williams and Twentieth-Century British Music Rhiannon Mathias, 2016-05-13 Elisabeth Lutyens 1906 1983 Elizabeth Maconchy 1907 1994 and Grace Williams 1906 1977 were contemporaries at the Royal College of Music The three composers careers were launched with performances in the Macnaghten Lemare Concerts in the 1930s a time when in Britain as Williams noted a woman composer was considered very odd indeed Even so by the early 1940s all three had made remarkable advances in their work Lutyens had become the first British composer to use 12 note technique in her Chamber Concerto No 1 1939 40 Maconchy had composed four string quartets of outstanding quality and was busy rethinking the genre and Williams had won recognition as a composer with great flair for orchestral writing with her Fantasia on Welsh Nursery Tunes 1940 and Sea Sketches 1944 In the following years Lutyens Maconchy and Williams went on to compose music of striking quality and to attain prominent positions within the British music scene Their respective achievements broke through the sound ceiling challenging many of the traditional assumptions which accompanied music by female composers Rhiannon Mathias traces the development of these three important composers through analysis of selected works The book draws upon previously unexplored material as well as radio and television interviews with the composers themselves and with their contemporaries The musical analysis and contextual material lead to a re evaluation of the composers positions in the context of twentieth century British music history

Quiet Revolutionaries Sharon Thompson, 2022-09-08 This book tells the untold story of the Married Women's Association Unlike more conventional histories of family law which focus on legal actors it highlights the little known yet indispensable work of a dedicated group of life long activists Formed in 1938 the Married Women's Association took reform of family property law as its chief focus The name is deceptively innocuous suggesting tea parties and charity fundraisers but in fact the MWA was often involved in dramatic confrontations with politicians civil servants and Law Commissioners The Association boasted powerful public figures including MP Edith Summerskill authors Vera Brittain and Dora Russell and barrister Helena Normanton They campaigned on matters that are still being debated in family law today Quiet

Revolutionaries sheds new light upon legal reform then and now by challenging longstanding assumptions showing that piecemeal legislation can be an effective stepping stone to comprehensive reform and highlighting how unsuccessful bills though often now forgotten can still be important triggers for change Drawing upon interviews with members friends and family and thousands of archival documents the book is compulsory reading for lawyers legal historians and anyone who wishes to explore histories of law reform from the ground up Winner of the SLSA Socio Legal Theory and History Book Prize 2023 To listen to podcast episodes about the Married Women s Association featuring interviews and archival research visit quietrevolutionaries.podbean.com The Record United States.
