The Silence That Speaks Haris Qadeer,2020-12-31 This ground breaking anthology brings together 38 short stories culled from over a century of writing by Muslim women from colonial and postcolonial India. Selected from different Indian languages it includes fascinating stories by celebrated and emerging authors. It also excavates stories from early women's journals such as Tehzeeb e Niswan Saogat and Indian Ladies Magazine. Written in different styles, modes and forms, the stories deconstruct cultural essentialism often involved in imagining Muslim womanhood and reflect upon the diversity of imagined and lived experiences. They challenge sundry labels, explore intersections of identities, debunk several myths and demonstrate how the authors navigate the world of voices and silences. Ranging from imaginary geographies to topographies of Muslim ghettos, most of these powerful stories narrate the spaces that Muslim women inhabit and delineate their courage, desires, freedom, struggle and myriad subjectivities.

Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium. The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires, Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas. Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles, plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds. The volumes include approximately 30,000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000, as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations. Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies. The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes.

A Cultural History of Childhood and Family in the Middle Ages Louise J. Wilkinson, 2012-03-01. The Middle Ages 800-1400 were a rich and vibrant period in the history of European culture, society, and intellectual thought. Emerging state powers, economic expansion and contraction, the growing influence of the Christian Church, and demographic change all influenced the ideals and realities of childhood and family life. Movements for Church reform brought the spiritual and moral concerns of the laity into sharper focus, profoundly shaping attitudes towards gender and sexuality and how these might be applied to family roles. At the same time, the growth of trade, the spread of literacy and learning, shifting patterns of settlement, and the process of urbanization transformed childhood. This volume explores the ideas and practices which underpinned contemporary perceptions of childhood in the medieval West and illuminates the enduring importance of the family as a dynamic economic, political, and social unit. A Cultural History of Childhood and Family in the Middle Ages presents essays on family relationships, community, economy, geography, and the environment, education, life cycle, the state, faith, and religion, health, and science, and world contexts.

Informatics in the Future Hannes Werthner, Frank van Harmelen, 2017-05-30. This book is open access under a CC BY-NC 4.0 license. This volume discusses the prospects and evolution of informatics or computer science, which has become the operating system of our world and is today seen as the science of the information society. Its artifacts change the world, and its methods have an impact on how we think about and perceive the world. Classical computer science is built on the notion of an abstract machine which can be instantiated by software to any concrete problem-solving machine, changing its behavior in response to external and internal states, allowing for self-reflective and intelligent behavior. However, current phenomena such as the Web, cyber-physical systems, or the Internet of Things show us that we might already have gone beyond this idea, exemplifying a metamorphosis from a stand-alone calculator to the global operating system of our society. Thus, computer scientists will need to reconsider the foundations of their discipline to realize the full potential of our field. Taking often contradictory developments into consideration, researchers will not be able to tackle specific technological or methodological problems in the future without also a broader reflection on their field. The papers in this book take a first step forward and reflect on these issues from different perspectives The broad spectrum of topics includes Informatics a discipline with a short history and a high impact Interdisciplinarity how to do research Ethics what is our responsibility Diversity why are there so few women in informatics Combining informatics history and art a special contribution This book is intended for all informatics researchers in academia as well as in industry It is our responsibility not only as scientists but also as citizens to make the public aware of the dichotomies and dialectic relationships of computer science Who's who of American Women ,1966 Accompanied by Geographical vocational index Boston Medical and Surgical Journal ,1912 Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women Cheris Kramarae,Dale Spender,2004-04-16 For a full list of entries and contributors sample entries and more visit the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women website Featuring comprehensive global coverage of women s issues and concerns from violence and sexuality to feminist theory the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women brings the field into the new millennium In over 900 signed A Z entries from US and Europe Asia the Americas Oceania and the Middle East the women who pioneered the field from its inception collaborate with the new scholars who are shaping the future of women s studies to create the new standard work for anyone who needs information on women related subjects The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1866 Christian Advocate ,1923 Textbook of Basic Nursing Caroline Bunker Rosdahl,Mary T.
