The Empty Mirror:

The Empty Mirror James Lincoln Collier, 2013-06-01 Nick Hodges had always been a troublesome boy Growing up an orphan in his Uncle Jack's care in a small New England town wasn't easy Everyone was a little wary a little watchful a little too watchful One day while Nick is walking in the woods a neighbor thinks she sees him miles from where he actually is Soon a series of events reinforcing Nick's hotheaded reputation unfold The incidents become increasingly serious until finally Nick is the scapegoat for a much more sinister crime one that he wouldn't even think of committing As he uncovers history of the town's influenza epidemic and as he observes a strange occurrence in the graveyard Nick begins to suspect something out of the ordinary is happening And when he sees a figure running in the woods wearing the mirror image of his own shirt Nick starts to piece together some of the answers answers no one could have imagined James Lincoln Collier has written a haunting story of a boy and his reflection and what happens when two souls want to inhabit the same living body The Empty Mirror Janwillem van de Wetering, 1999-04-15 Seen by many as a contemporary classic Janwillem van de Wetering's small and admirable memoir records the experiences of a young Dutch student later a widely celebrated mystery writer who spent a year and a half as a novice monk in a Japanese Zen Buddhist monastery As Chogyam Trungpa Rinpoche author of Cutting Through Spiritual Materialism has written The Empty Mirror should be very encouraging for other Western seekers It is the first book in a trilogy that continues with A Glimpse of Nothingness and Afterzen The Empty Mirror J. Sydney Jones, 2010-01-19 Set in Vienna in 1898 Jones's absorbing whodunit succeeds both as a mystery and as a fascinating portrait of a traditional society in ferment Publishers Weekly starred review The summer of 1898 finds Austria terrorized by a killer who the press calls Vienna's Jack the Ripper Four bodies have already been found but when the painter Gustav Klimt's female model becomes the fifth victim the police finger the artist as the culprit He's already scandalized Viennese society with his erotically charged modern paintings who better to take the blame for the crimes that have plagued the city This is however far from an open and shut case Klimt's lawyer Karl Werthen has an ace up his sleeve Dr Hanns Gross the renowned father of criminology has agreed to assist him in investigating the murders Together Gross and Werthen must not only clear Klimt's name but also follow a killer's trail that will lead them in the most surprising of directions But by uncovering the cause of the crimes the two men may risk damaging Vienna more than the murders did themselves Written by an acclaimed expert on Vienna and its history and featuring a variety of real historical figures The Empty Mirror introduces a new series of stunning mysteries that reveals the culture and curiosities of this fascinating fin de siècle metropolis A colorful story that neatly combines fact and fiction The Washington Post A novel that will appeal to mystery aficionados as well as history buffs Richmond Times Dispatch What Sir Arthur Conan Doyle did for Victorian London and Caleb Carr did for old New York Sydney Jones does for historic Vienna Karen Harper New York Times bestselling author of the Queen Elizabeth I mystery series The Empty Mirror Janwillem Van de Wetering, 1947 Ma Tzu: The Empty Mirror Osho, 2024-05-07 The problem with Zen is that it wants you to be utterly simple not special It goes against the very desire of the mind which is not a small phenomenon it is a four million years old desire which everybody is carrying in different lives Mind cannot understand why you should be simple when you could be special why you should be humble when you could be powerful And mind is heavy it has the great weight of the past The moment the mind sees anyone humble simple natural a buddha it immediately condemns him because such a man goes against the whole makeup of the human mind The Mirror Sabine Melchior-Bonnet,2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company THE EMPTY MIRROR R. Buckingham,Barry Hershey,1999 At the Beach Cafe Poems 1991-2009 3rd Edition Carmel Dylan,2010-07-28 At the Beach Caf Poems 1991 2009 is a collection of over 40 poems written and performed at beach caf s in California on the French Riviera and on the French island chains It is an eclectic and penetrating situational study of island lifestyles Motifs of love integrity art and war are interwoven in the text This edition is a 6x9 book The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet Elizabeth Caroline Dodd,1992 In The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet Elizabeth Dodd explores the lives and work of four women poets of the twentieth century H D Louise Bogan Elizabeth Bishop and Louise Gluck Dodd argues that sexist and male dominated cultural forces in their personal and professional lives challenged these women to find a unique mode of expression in their poetry a practice Dodd defines as personal classicism Dodd uses the term personal classicism to examine modern and contemporary poetry that appears torn between two major modes of poetic sensibility the Romantic and the Classical While the four poets she addresses exhibit a poetic sensibility that is primarily Romantic valuing Wordsworth s spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings adopting a natural spoken tone and relying on personal subject matter they have nonetheless employed masking and controlling strategies that are more nearly Classical Combining feminist theory and biographical studies with close readings of individual poems Dodd moves historically from H D one of the best known Imagists through the Confessional movement to the major contemporary poet Louise Gluck In the final chapter Dodd brings us to the present where she finds women writers still struggling with the recent Confessional legacy of such highly anthologized poets as Anne Sexton and Sylvia Plath The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet combines thoughtful consideration of both formal and theoretical issues in a graceful prose that reaffirms poetry as an art vitally connected to life It will be of significant interest to students of modern and contemporary poetry as well as to those concerned with women s studies Satoyama Angelo Aulisa,Atmo Manik,2013-01-28 Satoyama is a book about meditation and consciousness it goes through the high topics of mysticism and reveal very sophisticate methodology of meditation is a self help guide not fiction how to leave in harmony whit nature and consciousness Satoyama means leaving in harmony whit nature and consciousness and here follow Ambiguous Borderlands Erik Mortenson,2016-02-03 The image of the shadow in mid twentieth century America appeared across a variety of genres and media including poetry pulp fiction photography and film Drawing on an extensive framework that ranges from Cold War cultural histories to theorizations of psychoanalysis and the Gothic Erik

Mortenson argues that shadow imagery in 1950s and 1960s American culture not only reflected the anxiety and ambiguity of the times but also offered an imaginative space for artists to challenge the binary rhetoric associated with the Cold War. After contextualizing the postwar use of shadow imagery in the wake of the atomic bomb, Ambiguous Borderlands looks at shadows in print works detailing the reemergence of the pulp fiction crime fighter the Shadow in the late 1950s writings of Sylvia Plath, Amiri Baraka, and Jack Kerouac. Using Freudian and Jungian conceptions of the unconscious, Mortenson then discusses Kerouac's and Allen Ginsberg's shared dream of a shrouded stranger and how it shaped their Beat aesthetic. Turning to the visual, Mortenson examines the dehumanizing effect of shadow imagery in the Cold War photography of Robert Frank, William Klein, and Ralph Eugene Meatyard. Mortenson concludes with an investigation of the use of chiaroscuro in 1950s film noir and the popular television series The Twilight Zone, further detailing how the complexities of Cold War society were mirrored across these media in the ubiquitous imagery of light and dark. From comics to movies, Beats to bombs, Ambiguous Borderlands provides a novel understanding of the Cold War cultural context through its analysis of the image of the shadow in midcentury media. Its interdisciplinary approach, ambitious subject matter, and diverse theoretical framing make it essential reading for anyone interested in American literary and popular culture during the fifties and sixties.

Journeys of Transformation John D. Barbour, 2022-03-31 Western Buddhist travel narratives are autobiographical accounts of a journey to a Buddhist culture. Dozens of such narratives have since the 1970s describe treks in Tibet, periods of residence in a Zen monastery, pilgrimages to Buddhist sites and teachers, and other Asian odysseys. The best known of these works is Peter Matthiessen's The Snow Leopard; further reflections emerge from thirty writers including John Blofeld, Jan Van de Wetering, Thomas Merton, Oliver Statler, Robert Thurman, Gretel Ehrlich, and Bill Porter. The Buddhist concept of no self helps these authors interpret certain pivotal experiences of unselfing, and is also a catalyst that provokes and enables such events. The writers' spiritual memoirs describe how their journeys brought about a new understanding of Buddhist enlightenment and so transformed their lives. Showing how travel can elicit self-transformation, this book is a compelling exploration of the journeys and religious changes of both individuals and Buddhism itself.

Lacan and Chan Buddhist Thought Raul Moncayo, Yang Yu, 2022-12-23 Lacan and Chan Buddhist Thought provides a close reading of how Lacan mobilizes concepts from Chan Buddhist philosophy, culture, and practice in his later teachings. The book emerged from the three co-authors' engagement with Lacan's 1962-1963 Seminar on Anxiety and the significance of Lacan's original interpretation of the Buddhist principle that desire is the cause of suffering. The book reads key Lacanian concepts such as the objet a, jouissance, the real, Nirvana, and the mirror through ancient Buddhist teachings and koans. With this focused exploration of psychoanalysis and Chan Buddhism, the authors offer a philosophically grounded cross-cultural approach to the theory and practice of psychoanalysis in Asian countries. Lacan and Chan Buddhist Thought will be a rich resource for psychoanalysts, academics, and students interested in Lacan and religion, the intellectual and cultural relationship between Asian and Western thought, and Mahayana

Buddhism more generally The Foreign Legion Clarice Lispector, 2015-08-12 A radiant beauty of a writer The Los Angeles Times The Foreign Legion is a collection in two parts gathering both stories and chronicles and it offers wonderful evidence of Clarice Lispector's unique sensibility and range as an exponent of experimental prose It opens with thirteen stories and the second part of the book presents her newspaper criticisms which Lispector said she retrieved from a bottom drawer

The Fragment Camelia Elias, 2004 This monograph is an interdisciplinary study of the concept of fragment in literature and in critical and literary theory It discusses the fragment's performativity and function within a historical perspective stretching from Heraclitus via the German Romantics and European writers of the Modernist period to American postmodern manifestations of the fragment This is the first history of the fragment to appear in English and it is also the first attempt at producing a consistent taxonomy of literary and critical fragments The fragments are categorised according to function not author intention and the study addresses a number of questions What constitutes the fragment when the fragment can only be defined a posteriori Does the fragment begin on its own or is it begun by others writers and critics Does it acquire a name of its own or is it labelled by others All these questions revolve around issues of agency and they are best discussed in terms of performativity which means seeing fragments as acts acts of literature acts of reading acts of writing The book demonstrates how a poetics of the fragment as a performative genre can be created situating the fragment both as literature and as a phenomenon within postmodern criticism against the background of philosophy art history and theology Lacan,

Jouissance, and the Social Sciences Raul Moncayo, 2023-06-28 Exploring how a Freudian Lacanian approach to psychoanalysis intersects with social and cultural theory Lacan Jouissance and the Social Sciences demonstrates the significance of subjectivity as a concept for the study of leadership social psychology culture and political theory Raul Moncayo examines Lacan's notion of surplus jouissance in relation to four types of socio-economic value Productive Value Exchange Value Surplus Value and Profit Also drawing on the work of Slavoj Žižek Moncayo contends that surplus production cannot be reduced to alienated labor but rather includes various levels of jouissance value In this way the jouissance that drives capitalization and organization can be theorized as constructive rather than destructive and encompass satisfaction and prosperity rather than individual suffering and asceticism or living with less This volume will be of great interest to psychoanalysts both in practice and in training and to academics and scholars of psychoanalytic studies Lacanian studies and social sciences

Evolving Lacanian Perspectives for Clinical Psychoanalysis Raul Moncayo, 2018-03-26 This book presents an evolving Lacanian reading of the psychoanalytic theory of narcissism of the phases within Oedipus transference and within different types of analytic treatments Sexual difference between psychical masculinity and femininity is formulated as a negative dialectic both sexes are not without having and not having the phallus across levels of logical organization and the three registers of experience Many clinical examples and vignettes are offered to illustrate Lacanian theory the permutations within sexuation as well as the various principles of Lacanian clinical practice The Lacanian

multiform criterion for the practice of psychoanalysis is presented as an alternative to the post Freudian notions of a standard frame or a holding environment The criterion extends the use of psychoanalysis to a larger group of clinical socio economic and multicultural populations Finally the book explores the criteria used for the authorization of the analyst and how supervision differs from analysis and from the teacher student and lover beloved relationships Água Viva Clarice Lispector,2012-06-28 Lispector at her most philosophically radical A meditation on the nature of life and time gua Viva 1973 shows Lispector discovering a new means of writing about herself more deeply transforming her individual experience into a universal poetry In a body of work as emotionally powerful formally innovative and philosophically profound as Clarice Lispector s gua Viva stands out as a particular triumph Convergence Judith Bruder,2000-09-30 Must religions be locked houses or could they be cherished but welcoming gardens Judith Bruder discovered a different garden Catholicism yet still cherished the one where she grew Judaism At this time in history can we allow such choice CONVERGENCE is the story of a woman called by God and her spiritual journey from the country of her birth to another land It is about crossing boundaries and making choices and it affirms the right and responsibility that each of us has to define our life for ourselves as ourselves A woman drawn to God through the mystery and adventure of faith Judth Bruder is a story teller who ends up living her own wonder filled story This book of stories abot growing up in Brooklyn during World War Two about watching a War between Men and Women staged by ill matched parents about being a woman in a sexist society is ultimately a love story about the love for God and the love of God and how its grace transformed one woman s life Água Viva Clarice Lispector,1989 Discusses life time beauty experience meaning music and art
