The Enchanted Moment Pyramid Romance:

Twentieth-century Romance and Gothic Writers James Vinson, D. L. Kirkpatrick, 1982 Twentieth-century Romance and Historical Writers Lesley Henderson, D. L. Kirkpatrick, 1990 An encyclopedic biographical survey of the genre The entry for each writer consists of a biography a complete list of separately published books and a signal critical essay In addition living entrants were invited to comment on their work Series characters and locales have been indicated Also included are notations of available bibliographies manuscript collections and critical studies Acidic paper Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Library Journal , 1972-04 Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L. Pylodet, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Karl Brown, Helen E. Wessells, 1972 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Romantic Returns Deborah Elise White, 2000 Romantic Returns explores the theorization and operation of imagination in pre romantic and romantic writing Drawing on the poetry and prose of William Collins William Hazlitt and Percy Bysshe Shelley it shows the continuing importance of their understanding of imagination for contemporary debates about the historicity of literature Historicist readings of romanticism have done much to establish how and why romantic aesthetics is ideological an illusory if effective evasion of its material conditions Romantic Returns challenges this position by arguing that romantic aesthetics is rather critical a reflective if problematic articulation of those conditions The argument foregrounds the ways in which the aesthetics of romanticism inform its political and economic speculations The book opens with an examination of mid eighteenth century debates about the role of superstition in the constitution of a national literary tradition It considers in particular how Collins's odes figure Scotland as the site of a superstitious poetry that must be assimilated into British history even as Collins questions the very framework of assimilation This ambiguous defense of superstition in the national polity is rewritten by romanticism as a defense of imagination For the romantics the concept of imagination involves an explicit theorization of how the mind's projections play a constitutive role in what appear to be social norms and economic facts Hazlitt clarifies this position in his Essay on the Principles of Human Action The Essay develops a rhetorical theory of imagination in order to deconstruct the entire metaphysical basis of self interest on which eighteenth and nineteenth century political economy is based Hazlitt's political pamphlets bring this argument to bear on his analysis of the economic interests fueling the Napoleonic wars Despite Hazlitt's enormous and widely acknowledged influence his writings have been little studied on their own account Romantic Returns underlies their centrality to the romantic articulation of aesthetics and politics The final sections of the book engage Shelley's complex interrogation of the contradictions involved in just such articulations In both his poetry and prose Shelley turns to law and history as fields in which these contradictions can be negotiated or even resolved But Shelley who once called poets unacknowledged legislators suggests that violence may be unavoidable in any imaginative legislation that attempts to realize

itself in properly historical action The passage from poetry to politics cannot evade the problem of force Tracing the crossings between superstition imagination and history in all three of these writers Romantic Returns shows how difficult it is to maintain such crossings In doing so it shows too the continuing challenge of romanticism to contemporary historicism
