The End Of Saint Petersburg:

The Critical Practice of Film Elspeth Kydd, 2017-09-16 The Critical Practice of Film introduces film studies and production through the integration of criticism theory and practice. Its approach is that of critical practice, a process that explores the integration and intersection between the critical analysis of films and the practical aspects of filmmaking. In other words, this book is both an introduction to the ways in which we watch films as well as an introduction to how films are created. The more you know about how films are made, the more you can appreciate the artistry involved in a film. Author Elspeth Kydd combines explorations of basic technical and aesthetic principles with extended analyses drawn from both classic and contemporary Hollywood and other world cinemas, including Battleship Potemkin (1927), Un Chien Andalou (1929), Stagecoach (1939), Mildred Pierce (1945), Notorious (1946), Letter from an Unknown Woman (1948), Gentlemen Prefer Blondes (1953), Breathless (1959), Memories of Underdevelopment (1968), Star Wars (1977), Raiders of the Lost Ark (1981), Distant Voices Still Lives (1988), The Matrix (1999), Amores Perros (2000), Gosford Park (2001), and The Lord of the Rings trilogy (2001-3). Also included is a range of exercises designed to stimulate critical and analytical thought and help to demystify the process of creative filmmaking. Assignments range in scale from simple storyboarding and narrative development exercises that may be explored with minimal technology to more complex video projects that can be adapted to suit varying levels of technical skill. The Critical Practice of Film provides an accessible introduction to the theory and practice of film studies, integrating creative practice with critical and theoretical engagement to guide students towards an engaged form of creative expression and an active role as reviewer and critic. Beautifully presented, this ground-breaking text offers all students an integrated understanding of film criticism and production. Elspeth Kydd is a Senior Lecturer in Film Studies and Video Production at the University of the West of England. She has taught, researched, and published in film and television studies for nearly twenty years, as well as being an active documentary videomaker. This book developed from teaching integrated theory/practice film courses at universities in the US and UK.

In Stravinsky's Orbit Klara Moricz, 2020-08-04 The Bolsheviks' 1917 political coup caused a seismic disruption in Russian culture. Carried by the first wave of emigrants, Russian culture migrated West, transforming itself as it interacted with the new cultural environment and clashed with exported Soviet trends. In this book, Klara Moricz explores the transnational emigrant space of Russian composers Igor Stravinsky, Vladimir Dukelsky, Sergey Prokofiev, Nicolas Nabokov, and Arthur Louri in interwar Paris. Their music reflected the conflict between a modernist narrative demanding innovation and a narrative of exile wedded to the preservation of prerevolutionary Russian culture. The emigrants and the Bolsheviks' contrasting visions of Russia and its past collided frequently in the French capital, where the Soviets displayed their political and artistic products. Russian composers in Paris also had to reckon with Stravinsky's disproportionate influence: if they succumbed to fashions dictated by their famous compatriot, they risked becoming epigones; if they kept to their old ways, they quickly became irrelevant. Although Stravinsky's neoclassicism provided a seemingly neutral middle ground between innovation and nostalgia it was also marked by the exilic experience M. I. van der Merwe offers this unexplored context for Stravinsky's neoclassicism shedding new light on this infinitely elusive term

The Legacy of the Siege of Leningrad, 1941-1995 Lisa A. Kirschenbaum, 2009-10-19 The siege of Leningrad constituted one of the most dramatic episodes of World War II one that individuals and the state began to commemorate almost immediately Official representations of heroic Leningrad omitted and distorted a great deal Nonetheless survivors struggling to cope with painful memories often internalized even if they did not completely accept the state's myths and they often found their own uses for the state's monuments Tracing the overlap and interplay of individual memories and fifty years of Soviet mythmaking this book contributes to understandings of both the power of Soviet identities and the delegitimizing potential of the Soviet Union's chief legitimizing myths Because besieged Leningrad blurred the boundaries between the largely male battlefield and the predominantly female home front it offers a unique vantage point for a study of the gendered dimensions of the war experience urban space individual memory and public commemoration The Automobile Green
