At War with Metaphor Erin Steuter,Deborah Wills,2009-07-15 When photographs documenting the torture and humiliation of prisoners at Abu Ghraib came to the attention of a horrified public national and international voices were raised in shock asking how this happened At War with Metaphor offers an answer arguing that the abuses of Abu Ghraib were part of a systemic continuum of dehumanization This continuum has its roots in our public discussions of the war on terror and the metaphors through which they are repeatedly framed Arguing earnestly and incisively that these metaphors if left unexamined bind us into a cycle of violence that will only be intensified by a responsive violence of metaphor Steuter and Wills examine compelling examples of the images of animal insect and disease that inform shape and limit our understanding of the war on terror Tying these images to historical and contemporary uses of propaganda through a readable accessible analysis of media filters At War with Metaphor vividly explores how news media including political cartoons and talk radio are enmeshed in these damaging dehumanizing metaphors Analyzing media through the lenses of race and Orientalism it invites us to hold our media and ourselves accountable for the choices we make in talking war and making enemies

Trained to Kill Theodore Nadelson,2005-05-18 A triumph Nadelson s legacy is a brilliant book that concisely lays out the unrelenting madness of war by examining the psychological carnage it inflicts on the men who survive San Diego Union Tribune

Embodied Difference Jamie A. Thomas,Christina Jackson,2019-02-20 Focusing on the body as a visual and discursive platform across public space we study marginalization as a sociocultural practice and hegemonic schema Whereas mass incarceration and law enforcement readily feature in discussions of institutionalized racism we differently highlight understudied sites of normalization and exclusion Our combined effort centers upon physical contexts skeletons pageant stages gentrifying neighborhoods discursive spaces medical textbooks legal battles dance pedagogy vampire narratives and philosophical arenas morality genocide physician assisted suicide cryonic preservation transfeminism to deconstruct seemingly intrinsic connections between body and behavior Whiteness and normativity

The Vietnam War James Schmidt,2018-10-11 The Vietnam War Why the United States Failed provides valuable insight into the war that no other author has provided It reveals a highly effective automated battlefield that employed mechanical ambushes in the latter years of the war In order to maintain operational security during the war of this automated battlefield infantry troops in the field kept its use from journalists and out of the media Therefore the public and only a few within the military are aware of how effective it was in Vietnam The commander of one of the most successful infantry companies during the Vietnam War makes a strong case that the war was winnable if God would have provided our leaders the wisdom and creativity to employ the correct tactics The Vietnam War explains why the most powerful military in the world failed in the Vietnam War It explains why and how God intervened in both victory and defeat within the war Uncover both the flawed tactics that led to America's defeat and the tactics that would have led to victory if used throughout the war Learn the most important lesson from the Vietnam War and what America must do to prevent another similar defeat The Vietnam War provides evidence of the power of Jesus Christ and serves as a warning to America to return to the Bible as its moral compass

It's All In The Mind Julie Warren,2020-04-16 British popular culture would probably be very different had Larry Stephens not been born We could now be living in a world without the Carry On films or Monty Python and we may never have heard of Tony Hancock Peter Sellers or Spike Milligan Stephens promising career as a jazz pianist was interrupted by the war and after serving as an officer with the commandos he moved to London and struck up a friendship with Tony Hancock becoming the sole writer of his stage material Hancock introduced him to Peter Sellers Harry Secombe Spike Milligan and Michael Bentine and together they created The Goon Show arguably the world's most influential comedy programme As one of the main writers throughout its nine year run Stephens experiences and acquaintances became themes and characters within the show For the first time the life and work of this unsung hero of British comedy has been thoroughly explored Using unrivalled access to Larry Stephens personal archive of letters photographs and artwork plus interviews with Stephens many notable friends family members comrades and colleagues It's All In The Mind tells the story of a boy from the Black Country whose short life had an enduring impact
