The Hamish Hamilton Book of Wise Animals Eilís Dillon, 1975      Irish Women Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez, 2005-11-30

Irish women writers have a large following and their works are attracting large amounts of scholarly and critical attention. Through roughly 75 alphabetically arranged entries written by more than 35 expert contributors this reference overviews the lives and works of Irish women writers active in a range of genres and periods. Each entry includes a brief biography, a discussion of major works and themes, a survey of the writer's critical reception, and a list of works by and about the author. The volume closes with a selected general bibliography. Ireland has an especially lively literary tradition and works by Irish writers have long been recognized as interesting and influential. While male writers have received the bulk of the critical attention given to Irish literature, contemporary women writers are among the most widely read Irish authors. This reference overviews the lives and works of Irish women writers active in a range of periods and genres. Included are roughly 75 alphabetically arranged entries written by more than 35 expert contributors. Among the writers discussed are Elizabeth Bowen, Mary Dorcey, Lady Isabella Augusta Gregory, Anne Hartigan, Norah Hoult, Paula Meehan, Iris Murdoch, Edna O'Brien, Katharine Tynan, Sheila Wingfield, and many more. Each entry includes a brief biography, a discussion of major works and themes, a review of the writer's critical reception, and a list of works by and about the writer. The volume closes with a selected general bibliography.

Dictionary of Munster Women Writers 1800-2000 Tina O'Toole, 2005. This dictionary will make an important contribution to the knowledge of writing in Munster in both Irish and English over the past 200 years. The dictionary has entries on 560 writers, including 220 in Irish. Each entry contains a bibliographical note, a list of key references, and a bibliography where applicable, advances literary and cultural as distinct from primarily historical research on the region of Munster over the last two centuries. It enables a new view as a whole of the work of women writers, juxtaposes the work of Irish, English language and bilingual writers, and thereby helps to develop an understanding of the province of Munster as a diverse cultural milieu and focus on the role of regionality in the process of cultural creation. The Munster Women Writers Project, based in the English Department at University College Cork, was a recovery project aiming to make available the basic materials for biographical and literary research and analysis on the extensive number of women writers with Munster backgrounds or strong Munster connections in the period 1800-2000. The objective was to make more information on these writers available for future literary historians, feminist critics and social historians to develop knowledge and understanding of this material. By making available the basic materials for scholarly research in this field, the project aims to help generate critical analysis of the role of regional class and gender factors in the formation of writers and the intersection of these factors in the nature of the work produced.

Habel, Shirley Wurst, 2001-01-01 In this volume scholars from around the world read the story of the Earth in major Wisdom Traditions using the ecojustice principles outlined in Volume 1 Readings from the Perspective of Earth. These readings uncover a range of fresh perspectives about Earth in seeking to discover where the voices of Earth are suppressed or heard in the Wisdom texts. Some texts reveal an ecokinship between Earth and Wisdom. Texts from Job challenge a cosmic model that gives priority to heaven over Earth. Still others challenge the mandate to dominate in Genesis 1-28. In many texts Wisdom provides a vehicle for a new kinship with Earth. Contributors include Jenny Wightman, Hendrik Viviers, Carole Fontaine, Izak Spangenberg, Alice Sinnott, Willie van Heerden, Katherine Dell, Dale Patrick, Marie Turner and Laura Hobgood Oster.      The Writer's Directory, 1998-2000 Miranda H.
