The Healing Dialogue In Psychotherapy:

The Healing Dialogue in Psychotherapy Maurice S. Friedman, 1994 The Healing Dialogue in Psychotherapy Maurice Friedman, 1985 This volume includes references to aspects of dialogue of key psychotherapeutic schools It aims to connect psychotherapy's past with its future Martin Buber and the Human Sciences Maurice Friedman, 2012-02-01 The specific focus of Martin Buber and the Human Sciences is dialogue as the foundation of and integrating factor in the human sciences using dialogue in the special sense which Buber has made famous mutuality presentness openness meeting the other in his or her uniqueness and not just as a content for one's own thought categories and knowing as deriving in the first instance from mutual contact rather than knowledge of a subject about an object By the human sciences the authors editors mean material that can be meaningfully approached in a dialogic way hence the humanities education psychology speech communication anthropology history sociology and economics The essays in Martin Buber and the Human Sciences demonstrate that thirty years after Buber's death his influence is still resonating in many countries and in many fields

Heard, 1993 A comprehensive guide to applying dialogical psychotherapy in clinical practice Heard draws on the philosophical anthropology of Martin Buber who contended that a new reality the between may be generated in our interactions with another and that this reality has a profound effect on both partners of the interaction Reveals the relevance of this dynamic to therapeutic interactions and offers practical insights into applying an understanding of this philosophy to therapeutic practice psychotherapeutic theory and practice A comprehensive revision of its predecessor The Psychology of Existence co edited by Kirk Schneider and Rollo May Existential Integrative Psychotherapy combines clear and updated guidelines for practice with vivid and timely case vignettes These vignettes feature the very latest in both mainstream and existential therapeutic integrative application by the top innovators in the field The book highlights several notable dimensions a novel and comprehensive theory of integrative existential practice a premium on mainstream integrations of existential theory as well as existential humanistic integrations of mainstream theory a focus on integrative mainstream as well as existential humanistic practitioners students and theorists a discussion of short term and cognitive behavioral existential integrative strategies a focus on ethnic and diagnostic diversity from case studies of multicultural populations to vignettes on gender sexuality and power and from contributions to the treatment of alcoholism to those elucidating religiosity psychoses and intersubjectivity An Introduction to Integrative Psychotherapy Ken Evans, Maria Gilbert, 2005-05-03 This introductory text provides an invaluable and accessible overview of the rapidly developing field of integrative psychotherapy and offers a relational developmental approach to theory and practice The book goes beyond the confines of the therapy room and explores the significance of the cultural ecological and transpersonal dimensions of therapy by critiquing the philosophical bases underpinning the theoretical model and looking at the nature of resistance in different phases of therapy This textbook is essential to students needing a comprehensive introduction to integrative psychotherapy and will also be of interest to the seasoned practitioner Paradigms of Clinical Social Work Rachelle A. Dorfman, 2015-11-17 This fully integrated volume written by the leading experts in the field of social work presents a wide range of therapeutic paradigms Especially noteworthy is the common framework provided for all paradigms discussed thus facilitating comparison and contrast between each approach These paradigms include cognitive brief oriented and psychosocial therapies as well as Adlerian theory and radical behaviorism Forgiveness and Reconciliation Ani Kalayjian, Raymond F. Paloutzian, 2009-07-21 We all long for peace within ourselves families communities countries and throughout the world We wonder what we can do about the multitude of conflicts currently wreaking havoc across the globe and the continuous reports of violence in communities as well as within families Most of the time we contemplate solutions beyond our reach and overlook a powerful tool that is at our disposal forgiveness As a genocide survivor I know something about it As the genocide unfolded in Rwanda in 1994 I was devastated by what I believed to be the inevitable deaths of my loved ones The news that my parents and my seven siblings had indeed been killed was simply unbearable Anger and bitterness became my daily companions Likewise I continued to wonder how the Hutus and Tutsis in Rwanda could possibly reconcile after one of the most horrendous genocides of the 20th century It was not until I came to understand the notion of forgiveness that I was able to see the light at the end of the tunnel Common wisdom suggests that forgiveness comes after a perpetrator makes a genuine apology This wisdom informs us that in the aftermath of a wrongdoing the offender must acknowledge the wrong he or she has done express remorse express an apology commit to never repeating said harm and make reparations to the extent possible Only then can the victim forgive and agree to never seek revenge
