Field Marshal Haig commanded the British Empire forces through from 1915 to 1919 his period in charge of the men under his command has been the subject of much debate ever since the First World War ended To some he was a Butcher overseeing the bloodbaths of the Somme and Passchendaele to others he was a stoic leader faced with almost insurmountable difficulties of the warfare of the age Whichever opinion holds sway in the public psyche his despatches from the front are gripping reading that drive to the heart of his character Often fulsome of praise for the men under his command Haig was reticent to give vent to failures in public the despatches are very revealing whilst capturing all of the swings of fortune on the Western Front Author Field Marshal Earl Haig Douglas 1861 1928 Text taken whole and complete from the edition published in London J M Dent 1919 Original Page Count xvii and 378 pages Illustrations 10 maps and Illustrations
