New perspectives in science education 7th edition Pixel,2018-03-19      Teacher Education in the 21st Century Antje-Marianne Kolde,Ruth Frehner,Brigitte Kürsteiner,Lukas Bleichenbacher,2016-08-17 How can teacher education prepare future teachers for their work in increasingly diverse classrooms How does the concept of plurilingualism inform language educational policy in different countries What are the current opportunities and challenges in the domain of internationalisation in teacher education The contributions to this volume address these questions from different theoretical perspectives and with a strong emphasis on the actual practices in various classrooms At a time when simplistic essentialist biased and discriminatory ideologies and practices see a rebirth in public discourse and represent a risk to education the contributors here take stock and describe some worthwhile alternatives The first set of chapters addresses the integration of ethnic religious and gender diversity in teacher education colleges In the second part the notion of plurilingualism in different educational contexts is explored from a critical sociolinguistic point of view The chapters in the third part present evidence from innovative international academic exchange programs and how they contribute to socio spatial learning amongst others The common denominator in this volume is the notion of convergence the coexistence of people and practices in diverse contexts The Routledge International Handbook of Learning Peter Jarvis, Mary H. Watts, 2012 As our understanding of learning focuses on the whole person rather than individual aspects of learning so the process of learning is beginning to be studied from a wide variety of perspectives and disciplines This handbook presents a comprehensive overview of the contemporary research into learning it brings together a diverse range of specialities with chapters written by leading scholars throughout the world from a wide variety of different approaches The International Handbook of Learning captures the complexities of the learning process in seven major parts Its 54 chapters are sub divided in seven parts Learning and the person senses cognitions emotions personality traits and learning styles Learning across the lifespan Life wide learning Learning across the disciplines covering everything from anthropology to neuroscience Meaning systemse tm interpretation Learning and disability Historical and contemporary learning theorists Written by international experts this book is the first comprehensive multi disciplinary analysis of learning packing a diverse collection of research into one accessible volume Language Awareness in Multilingual Classrooms in Europe Christine Hélot, Carolien Frijns, Koen Gorp, Sven Sierens, 2018-04-23 Within the scope of today s globalisation linguistic diversity is a given fact of the world we live in In several educational contexts in Europe language awareness LA activities have been introduced with the objective to prepare pupils cognitively socially and or critically for life as multilingual open minded and or empowered citizens in a diverse world Despite previous research in various contexts the concept of LA remains problematic a generally accepted evidence based conceptualisation is missing This confronts both research and education with a challenge in order to develop LA activities implement them successfully in educational contexts and achieve the expected outcomes we should know what the concept stands for how it works and why we would choose to implement it in classrooms or not This volume focuses on three apparent simple questions what how and why The first question what refers to the concept ual mess of LA The second question how refers to the implementation of LA activities in several educational contexts The third question why is a recurrent theme running through all the chapters and deals with a reflection on the way we deal un consciously with LA activities in education Educație globală în contexte pedagogice non-formale / Global education in non-formal educational contexts Iulia Lazăr, Ana Cătălin Păun, Sorin Mierlea, 2019-01-01 Through this work the authors propose to contribute to the dissemination of global learning in terms of non formal education to promote the development of knowledge skills and abilities for the transition to sustainable consumption patterns thereby contributing to the complex education of the consumer under the motto of sustainable development The information presented in this publication complements the results obtained within the framework of the European project Development education and awareness raising Sincerely Food implemented by non governmental organizations from Latvia Bulgaria Croatia Estonia and Romania under the coordination of the Lithuanian Consumer Institute The publication is structured on 7 chapters comprising in addition introduction and bibliography Chapter I Non formal education Theoretical concepts Chapter II Lifelong education Chapter III Non formal education for sustainable development Case study Mobile tools in public spaces Chapter IV Interactive digital education Chapter V Simulation based training Chapter VI Digital storytelling Chapter VII Guided debate

ICT and Changing Mindsets in Education Kathryn Toure, Therese Tchombe, 2008-07-15 The debate is no longer whether to use information and communication technologies ICT in education in Africa but how to do so and how to ensure equitable access for teachers and learners whether in urban or rural settings This is a book about how Africans adopt and adapt ICT It is also about how ICT shape African schools and classrooms Why do we use ICT or not Do girls and boys use them in the same ways How are teachers and students in primary and secondary schools in Africa using ICT in teaching and learning How does the process transform relations among learners educators and knowledge construction This collection by 19 researchers from Africa Europe and North America explores these questions from a pedagogical perspective and specific socio cultural contexts Many of the contributors draw on learning theory and survey data from 36 schools 66000 students and 3000 teachers The book is rich in empirical detail on the perceived importance and appropriation of ICT in the development of education in Africa It critically examines the potential for creative use of ICT to question habits change mindsets and deepen practice The contributions are in both English and French

Inclusive Education, Social Justice, and Multilingualism Sviatlana Karpava, 2025-03-26 This edited volume delves into the intricate relationships between multilingualism inclusive education and social justice It presents a rich array of interdisciplinary studies that blend both theoretical and practical perspectives The authors employ a mixed methods approach to gather and analyze data from a diverse range of populations including students teachers parents and language policy experts across various educational levels The book examines the dynamics of bilingual and multilingual classrooms as well as Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL environments emphasizing the importance of linguistic and cultural diversity as valuable educational resources It draws upon a variety of theoretical and practical approaches from applied linguistics sociolinguistics language policy and education all centered on the benefits of multilingualism inclusive education and social justice The work explores the complexities of multilingualism and multiculturalism and their connections to inclusive education and social justice across different geographic regions and educational settings It adopts a dual approach examining both theoretical frameworks and practical realities by incorporating the voices and perspectives of multiple
