Revolutionary Art and Politics in Egypt Rounwah Adly Riyadh Bseiso, 2023-01-26 This book examines the role of artists in Egypt during the 2011 revolution when street art from graffiti to political murals became ubiquitous facets of revolutionary spaces Through interviews personal testimonies and accounts of the lived experience of 25 street artists the book explores the meaning of art in revolutionary political contexts specifically by focusing on artistic production during liminal moments as the events of the Egyptian revolution unfolded The author privileges the perspective of the actors themselves to examine the ways that artists reacted to events and conceived of their art as means to further the goals of the revolution Based on fieldwork conducted in the years since 2011 the book provides a narrative of Egyptian artists participation in and representations of the revolution from hopeful beginnings to the subsequent crackdown and election of al Sisi

From the 1919 Revolution to the 2011 Arab Spring Uzi Rabi, Mira Tzoreff, 2024-05-08 Focused on three Egyptian revolutions in 1919 1952 and 2011 this edited book argues that each of these revolutions is a milestone which represents a meaningful turning point in modern Egyptian history Revolutions are typically characterized by a fundamental change in political and social infrastructures as well as in the establishment of new values and norms However it should be noted that this may not be entirely applicable when examining the context of the three Egyptian revolutions the 1919 revolution failed to liberate Egypt from British colonial hegemony the 1952 revolution failed to rework the country's social and economic systems and unify the Arab world and the Arab Spring revolution of 2011 culminated in a chaotic economic and social catastrophe thus failing to solve the young generation's crisis Nevertheless by revisiting and redefining these revolutions through diverse theoretical frameworks the book proposes that each of them played a significant role in shaping Egypt's political social and cultural identity This book is specifically of interest for students historians and social scientists with a keen interest in Egyptian history and the Middle East offering fresh perspectives and insights into these transformative moments in Egypt's history

The Naked Blogger of Cairo Marwan M. Kraidy, 2016-06-06 A Times Higher Education Book of the Year Uprisings spread like wildfire across the Arab world from 2010 to 2012 fueled by a desire for popular sovereignty In Tunisia Egypt Syria and elsewhere protesters flooded the streets and the media voicing dissent through slogans graffiti puppetry videos and satire that called for the overthrow of dictators and the regimes that sustained them Investigating what drives people to risk everything to express themselves in rebellious art The Naked Blogger of Cairo uncovers the creative insurgency at the heart of the Arab uprisings A deep dive into the cultural politics of the Arab uprisings Kraidy's sharp insights and rich descriptions of a new Arab generation's irrepressible creative urges will amply reward the effort Reading Kraidy's accounts of the politically charted cultural gambits of wired Arab youth rekindles some of the seemingly lost spirit of the early days of the Arab uprisings and offers hope for the future Marc Lynch Washington Post The Naked Blogger of Cairo is a superb and important work not just for scholars but for anyone who cares about the relationships between art the body and revolution Hans Rollman PopMatters

artWORK Paula Serafini, Jessica Holtaway, Alberto Cossu, 2017-11-15 artWork Art Labour and Activism brings together a variety of perspectives on contemporary cultural production and activism in order to interrogate how the concepts of art labour and activism intersect in practices for social change What can we learn about contemporary art and politics by looking at the intersections between art labour and activism What theoretical tools can help us arrive at a deeper understanding of these intersections In order to address these questions this collection explores the role of art as activism the use of social media and technology in creative production and organising the politics of artmaking the commodification of culture and the possibility of a creative commons and the work of artist activists as educators In addition to offering a variety of new perspectives from researchers and practitioners it proposes new paths towards interdisciplinary research in this field that combine sociological anthropological philosophical and art theory perspectives It will be of interest to students and scholars interested in creative labour social movements and
