The Mingling of the Canadian and American Peoples Marcus Lee Hansen, 1941 The Mingling of the Canadian and American Peoples Marcus Lee Hansen, John Bartlet Brebner, 1970 The Mingling of the Canadian and American Peoples Marcus Lee Hansen, 1940 People of the United States in the 20th Century Irene Barnes Taeuber, Conrad Taeuber, United States. Bureau of the Census, 1972 Immigrants in American History Elliott Robert Barkan, 2013-01-17 This encyclopedia is a unique collection of entries covering the arrival adaptation and integration of immigrants into American culture from the 1500s to 2010 Few topics inspire such debate among American citizens as the issue of immigration in the United States Yet it is the steady influx of foreigners into America over 400 years that has shaped the social character of the United States and has favorably positioned this country for globalization Immigrants in American History Arrival Adaptation and Integration is a chronological study of the migration of various ethnic groups to the United States from 1500 to the present day This multivolume collection explores dozens of immigrant populations in America and delves into major topical issues affecting different groups across time periods For example the first author of the collection profiles African Americans as an example of the effects of involuntary migrations A cross disciplinary approach derived from the contributions of leading scholars in the fields of history sociology cultural development economics political science law and cultural adaptation introduces a comparative analysis of customs beliefs and character among groups and provides insight into the impact of newcomers on American society and culture Fundamentalists in the City Margaret Lamberts Bendroth, 2005-07-14 Fundamentalists in the City is a story of religious controversy and division set within turn of the century and early twentieth century Boston It offers a new perspective on the rise of fundamentalism emphasizing the role of local events both sacred and secular in deepening the divide between liberal and conservative Protestants The first part of the narrative beginning with the arrest of three clergymen for preaching on the Boston Common in 1885 shows the importance of anti Catholicism as a catalyst for change The second part of the book deals with separation told through the events of three city wide revivals each demonstrating a stage of conservative Protestant detachment from their urban origins Migration Between the United States and Canada Statistics Canada, United States. Bureau of the Census, 1990 How Cities Won the West Carl Abbott, 2011-03-03 Cities rather than individual pioneers have been the driving force in the settlement and economic development of the western half of North America Throughout the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries western urban centers served as starting points for conquest and settlement As these frontier cities matured into metropolitan centers they grew from imitators of eastern culture and outposts of eastern capital into independent sources of economic cultural and intellectual change From the Gulf of Alaska to the Mississippi River and from the binational metropolis of San Diego Tijuana to the Prairie Province capitals of Canada Carl Abbott explores the complex urban history of western Canada and the United States The evolution of western cities from stations for exploration and military occupation to contemporary entry points for migration and components of a global economy reminds us that it is cities that won the West And today as cultural change increasingly moves from west to east Abbott argues that the urban West represents a new center from which emerging patterns of behavior and changing customs will help to shape North America in the twenty first century Irish in Ontario, 1st Edition Donald Harman Akenson, 1984-08-01 Hailed as one of the most important books on social sciences of the last fifty years by the Social Sciences Federation of Canada Akenson argues that despite the popular conception of the Irish as a city people those who settled in Ontario were primarily rural and small town dwellers Though it is often claimed that the experience of the Irish in their homeland precluded their successful settlement on the frontier in North America Akenson s research proves that the Irish migrants to Ontario not only chose to live chiefly in the hinterlands but that they did so with marked success Akenson also suggests that by using Ontario as an historical laboratory it is possible to make valid assessments of the real differences between Irish Protestants and Irish Catholics characteristics which he contends are much more precisely measurable in the neutral environment of central Canada than in the turbulent Irish homeland While Akenson is careful not to over generalize his findings he contends that the case of Ontario seriously calls into question conventional beliefs about the cultural limitations of the Irish Catholics not only in Canada but throughout North America The Changing Face of Corpus Linguistics Antoinette Renouf, Andrew Kehoe, 2016-08 Preliminary Material Antoinette Renouf and Andrew Kehoe The corpus user s chorus Based on The Major General s Song from Gilbert and Sullivan s The Pirates of Penzance Antoinette Renouf and Andrew Kehoe Introduction The changing face of corpus linguistics Antoinette Renouf and Andrew Kehoe Oh Canada Towards the Corpus of Early Ontario English Stefan Dollinger Favoring Americanisms vs before and in Early English in Australia A corpus based approach Clemens Fritz Computing the Lexicons of Early Modern English Ian Lancashire EFL dictionaries grammars and language guides from 1700 to 1850 testing a new corpus on points of spokenness Manfred Markus The Old English Apollonius of Tyre in the light of the Old English Concordancer Antonio Miranda Garc a Javier Calle Mart n David Moreno Olalla and Gustavo Mu oz Gonz lez Prediction with SHALL and WILL a diachronic perspective Maurizio Gotti Circumstantial adverbials in discourse a synchronic and a diachronic perspective Anneli Meurman Solin and P iivi Pahta Changes in textual structures of book advertisements in the ZEN Corpus Caren auf dem Keller Curtains like these are selling right in the city of Chicago for USD 1 50 The mediopassive in American 20th century advertising language Marianne Hundt Recent grammatical change in written English 1961 1992 some preliminary findings of a comparison of American with British English Geoffrey Leech and Nicholas Smith Social variation in the use of apology formulae in the British National Corpus Mats Deutschmann How recent is recent On overcoming interpretational difficulties G ran Kjellmer Looking at looking Functions and contexts of progressives in spoken English and school English Ute R mer Ditransitives the Given Before New principle and textual retrievability a corpus based study using ICECUP Gabriel Oz n The Spanish pragmatic marker pues and its English equivalents Anna Brita Stenstr m WebCorp A tool for online
