Histories Diana Wallace, 2013-03-30 Female Gothic Histories traces the development of women's Gothic historical fiction from Sophia Lee's The Recess in the late eighteenth century through the work of Elizabeth Gaskell, Vernon Lee, Daphne du Maurier and Victoria Holt to the bestselling novels of Sarah Waters in the twenty-first century. Often left out of traditional historical narratives, women writers have turned to Gothic historical fiction as a mode of writing which can both reinsert them into history and symbolise their exclusion. This study breaks new ground in bringing together thinking about the Gothic and the historical novel and in combining psychoanalytic theory with historical contextualisation. A Communion of Saints Culleton, Terence, 2015-03-13 Terence Culleton has assembled a conclave of fictional saints whose legends, lives, libidinous sins, quests, sonnets and songs reverberate with the heroic loneliness of the human condition. These men and women starve, flagellate, isolate and emasculate themselves in order to transcend the fleshly condition. Some achieve transcendence, others fail, but their efforts are recounted in impeccably crafted verse, metered and rhymed, ironic and raucous, invested with a spectral and irreducible sense of mystery. In these poems, imagination marries itself to form the issue: is a true communion of souls. The Baroque Painters of Italy Charles McCorquodale, 1979 An introduction to Baroque Italian painters and works of art. The Miracle at St. Bruno's, 1972
