The New Rational Therapy Elliot D. Cohen, 2006-10-31 Throughout the ages great thinkers such as Plato Aristotle Epicurus Aquinas Descartes Spinoza Kant Nietzsche and many others have had incredibly useful things to say about overcoming the strife of everyday living and attaining happiness Unfortunately contemporary approaches to psychology have made only limited use of this guidance At last here is an uplifting psychology that systematically applies the wisdom of the ages to attaining life pregnant with insight meaning value and purpose Guided by the vision of great minds this book shows you how you can still feel secure and hopeful in a precarious uncertain universe face evil with life affirming courage build self esteem respect for others and global reverence become your own person take control of you re emotions and behavior strengthen your willpower confront moral problems creatively build rapport and solidarity with others and hone your practical decision making skills Unlike classical approaches to rational psychology that only scratch the surface of what s deeply wrong in your life The New Rational Therapy gets to the core and offers you penetrating philosophical antidotes for transcending your malaise and for attaining an enduring profound happiness Women's Issues for a New Generation Gail Ukokis,2016-05-13 This introductory text on women s issues includes both U S and global issues thus motivating students to see the bigger picture Written in an engaging style that stresses compelling stories over dry facts this book will stimulate class discussion Including men in the discussion of gender equality is also emphasized The Ladies' museum. New and improved ser., vol.1-3 ,1831 Revising Herself : Women's Identity from College to Midlife Ruthellen Josselson Professor of Psychology Towson State University,1996-11-07 In 1972 Ruthellen Josselson was a young psychologist fascinated by the riddle of how a woman creates an identity and chooses one path over another in life particularly in the face of the nascent feminist movement which challenged as never before the traditional role models of earlier generations Selecting at random thirty young women in their last year of college Josselson undertook a ground breaking study that would follow these women s personal odysseys over the next twenty two years from graduation to midlife What she learned about the ways women reinvent themselves in an ever changing world is the subject of Revising Herself a myth shattering look at both a unique generation of American women on the front lines of wrenching social change and at the conflicts and compromises facing women today With stunning candor and hard won insight the ordinary and anonymous women in Josselson s study reveal how much more complex and interesting real women s lives are than the one dimensional stereotypes often portrayed in the media Dismissing a traditional stage theory of development as overly simplistic Josselson identifies four trajectories that women take from adolescence to adulthood Guardians are the good girls high achieving and committed to fulfilling their family s expectations but rigid in outlook and resistant to change Pathmakers are not afraid of risk or commitment striving to balance their own needs with others The often idealistic Searchers are overwhelmed by choice and unable to make commitments while Drifters live only for the moment avoiding choice and an exploration of identity Reflecting the degree to which women take risks make choices and form commitments these paths form a foundation for adulthood but they also lead to surprises at midlife Guardians seem strikingly able to cut loose from earlier traditional patterns while many Drifters have found themselves sometimes in quite traditional ways And coming of age just as the feminist movement gathered momentum the women in Josselson s study were the first to confront many contemporary issues not faced by their mothers or their mothers mothers How does an Irish Catholic contemplate an abortion How does a woman whose parents believe education is wasted on a daughter find the will to apply to medical school In examining these questions and others Josselson shows that the forging of a woman s identity whatever her path is ongoing a balancing of the need for self assertion against the equally compelling need for relationships Women create their identities along the seams of both competence and connection and continually revise what they have made Allowing women to define themselves in their own terms Revising Herself holds up a provocative mirror in which readers can reflect upon their own life choices Whether a Guardian Pathmaker Searcher or Drifter readers will recognize themselves in these women s experiences and gain new insight into how we construct our identities over a lifetime In the Company of Women Grace Bonney,2016-10-04 New York Times Bestseller I want to rip out every page of this glorious book and hang them on my wall so that I can be surrounded by these incredible women all day long Emma Straub New York Times bestselling author of The Vacationers and Modern Lovers Over 100 exceptional and influential women describe how they embraced their creative spirit overcame adversity and sparked a global movement of entrepreneurship Media titans and ceramicists hoteliers and tattoo artists comedians and architects taken together these profiles paint a beautiful picture of what happens when we pursue our passions and dreams Written by Herself: Volume 2 Jill Ker Conway,2011-06-08 In this powerful new collection the author of two of the most celebrated memoirs in recent years presents the autobiographical writings of 14 of her English speaking predecessors and contemporaries The women who tell their stories in Written By Herself Vol II represent three generations four continents and a range of experience that is equaled only by the diversity with which they transform life into literature Here are England s Vera Brittain commemorating the deaths of the men she loved in the carnage of World War I Emma Mashinini who endured imprisonment and torture as a labor organizer in South Africa Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit the daughter of Indian aristocracy who became an architect of her country s independence and Edith Mirante the wisecracking American whose passion for justice took her to the opium trails of Burma Collected in this stirring volume their voices demonstrate the ways in which women strive for power inclusion and autonomy and never fail to move inspire and instruct us Contributors include Margery Perham Isak Dinesen Shudha Mazumdar Vivian Gornick Vera Brittain Elspeth Huxley Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit Gloria Wade Gayles Angelica Garnett Emma Mashinini Meena Alexander Edith Mirante Mary Benson and Ruth First Women's Rights National Historical Park, Seneca Falls, New York Sandra Weber,1985
