Elizabeth Bishop's Poetics of Intimacy Victoria Harrison, 1993-01-29 Elizabeth Bishop s Poetics of Intimacy a biographical and critical study of one of the great poets of this century offers a fresh look at Bishop s published and unpublished writing over the course of her career Informed by pragmatic post modern and feminist theories Victoria Harrison s study also makes extensive use of Bishop s archives many pieces of which have never been discussed to reveal the process of the poet s writing Harrison explores Bishop s childhood memoirs journals letters Brazilian travel prose unfinished poems and draft material researching dates of undated material and reproducing Bishop s revisions cancellations and idiosyncratic spellings Attentiveness to the detail of this archival writing gives Harrison a broad foundation for arguing that Bishop treats some of our largest concerns family relationships sexuality war and cultural differences within poetry and prose that are intimate but not self revelatory and daily but never ordinary Elizabeth Bishop charges the moments of her writing with the desires fears and passions of her life

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and

American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell,Dirk Klopper,Craig Mackenzie,2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa s history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party s policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele s call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country s literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945 Censorship Derek Jones,2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression The Writer in Politics William H. Gass,Lorin Cuoco,1996 Six essays and panel transcriptions from The Writer in Politics conference Washington University October 1992 featuring writers describing their place in the political arena The presenters have walked the walk and include Mario Vargas Llosa Luisa Valenzuela Nuruddin Farah and Carolyn Forché who collectively have run for political office been exiled jailed or active as witnesses in a political life Their insights are a fascinating examination of the role writers play can play as critics resisters and contributors to a society s evolution Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Stealing the Show Gunda Lambton,1994-09-19 In the past few women artists were commissioned to create public works of art These seven artists received most of the commissions awarded to women between 1958 and 1988 although until now their sizable body of work has been given little attention

Taking into account the purpose of public art to enhance the environment and communicate with a public often perplexed and sometimes alienated by works of art Gunda Lambton assesses the appeal and quality of commissioned works by these artists She highlights the difficulties that many women artists encounter and combines detailed biographies of the artists with an examination of their work This book will appeal to those interested in art as well as to art historians urban historians women s studies specialists and policy makers The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-Century Literature in English
