Passarello,2017-02-06 It might be the best book on animals I've ever read It's also the only one that's made me laugh out loud Helen Macdonald The New York Times Book Review Beginning with Yuka a 39 000 year old mummified woolly mammoth recently found in the Siberian permafrost each of the sixteen essays in Animals Strike Curious Poses investigates a different famous animal named and immortalized by humans Modeled loosely after a medieval bestiary these witty playful whip smart essays from a winner of a Whiting Award for nonfiction traverse history myth science and more bringing each beast vibrantly to life Stunning Passarello's keen wit is on display throughout as she raises questions about the uniqueness of humans A feast of surprising juxtapositions and gorgeous prose Publishers Weekly starred review I've spent decades reading books on the roles animals play in human cultures but none have ever made me think and feel as much as this one It's a devastating meditation on our relationship to the natural world Helen Macdonald The New York Times Book Review

Animal Geographies Jennifer Wolch,Jody Emel,1998-09-17 Each year billions of animals are poisoned dissected displaced killed for consumption or held in captivity usually for the benefit of humans The animal world has never been under greater peril and this broad ranging collection contributes to a much needed fundamental rethinking about our relation with it Animal Geographies explores the diverse ways in which animals shape the formation of human identity Essays on zoos and wolves for example reveal how animals figure in social constructions of race gender and nationality From questions of identity and subjectivity it moves to a consideration of the places where people and animals confront the realities of coexistence on an everyday basis by way of case studies of species such as mountain lions and the golden eagle It then examines the ways in which animals figure in the ongoing globalization of production and mass consumption illustrated by essays on the US meatpacking industry and meat production in the Indian state of Rajasthan and finally takes up legal and ethical approaches to human animal relations Animal Geographies compels a profound rethinking of the nature of human animal relations and offers a series of proposals for reconstituting this relationship on a progressive basis Contributors Kay Anderson Glen Elder Andrea Gullo Unna Lassiter William S Lynn Suzanne M Michel Chris Philo James D Proctor Paul Robbins Frances M Ufkes James L Wescoat Jr
