Sipri Yearbook 1994 World Armaments And Disarmament:

Realism versus Global Arms Control and Disarmament Carmen Chas, 2025-07-15 This incisive book explores the limits of international law through arms control and disarmament treaties Carmen Chas critically engages with literature on disarmament and classical realist analysis bridging the divide between international law and international relations scholarship

SIPRI Yearbook 1994 Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 1994 The SIPRI Yearbook 1994 continues SIPRI's review of the latest developments in nuclear weapons world military expenditure the international arms trade and arms production chemical and biological weapons the proliferation of ballistic missile technology armed conflicts in 1993 and nuclear and conventional arms control It is the most complete and authoritative source available for up to date information in war studies strategic studies peace studies and international relations

Arms Control and Security: The Changing Role of Conventional Arms Control in Europe Kevin Wright, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 The aim of this text is to explore conventional arms control in Europe The early chapters provide a primarily historical perspective looking at the context foundations main provisions and institutional structure of the main agreements The later chapters explore the continuing and likely future roles of the OSCE and NATO in the arms control process The final chapters examine more contemporary developments by looking at the Adapted CFE Treaty and Vienna Documents agreed at the OSCE Istanbul Summit in November 1998 and the challenges posed to existing arrangements by the changing and emergent security threats that potentially face Europe

Weapons Proliferation and World Order Brad Roberts, 2023-09-29 With the end of the Cold War the subject of weapons proliferation has acquired new interest and prominence So too have questions about the nature of the world order that will succeed the structure of the last fifty years This study explores the connections among these topics It describes the prevailing conceptual model of nuclear proliferation evaluates proliferation's changing technical features considers economic and political factors bearing on its future rate and character and speculates about proliferation's implications on the post cold war world order It also considers the role of international public policy in meeting proliferation's challenges Arguing that updated approaches are needed the analysis emphasizes cooperative over coercive approaches to order It concludes with an assessment of progress to date in meeting these new challenges arguing that the new agenda is only slowly coming into focus

The Evolution of Biological Disarmament Nicholas Roger Alan Sims, 2001 The evolution of the disarmament regime of the 1972 Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention BTWC is described from 1980 when the first BTWC Review Conference was held until 1998 The author analyses the results of our first four review Conferences the meetings of the Ad Hoc Group of Governmental Experts to Identify and Examine Potential Verification Measures from a Scientific and Technical Standpoint the 1994 Special Conference the current negotiations of the Ad Hoc Group to produce an additional protocol the BTWC which may include verification measures handling of the 1997 Cuban allegation of US biological warfare and the implementation of Article X of the BTWC on international transfers and cooperation for peaceful purposes The strength of the BTWC regime is assessed in the light of its evolution through the review process and its changing contents including Russia's admission that it had inherited an offensive biological weapon programme The book applies an original sector by sector approach to its analysis of the BTWC studied in a long term perspective The Barcelona Process George Joffe, Alvaro Vasconcelos, 2014-04-08 The Euro Mediterranean Partnership the Barcelona Process aims to create integration in the Mediterranean Basin so as to encourage economic development along the Southern rim This volume takes a critical look at the problems faced by the Process and the likelihood of its success

American Defence Annual, 1994 Charles F. Hermann, 1998-06-03 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com The International Arms Trade Rachel Stohl, Suzette Grillot, 2013-04-29 The multi billion dollar business of the international conventional arms trade involves virtually every country in the world Around the globe people's lives are being irrevocably changed by the effects of guns tanks and missiles These weapons have the potential to cause a deadly and current threat one responsible for hundreds of thousands of deaths a year This succinct and accessible new book explores the complexities and realities of the global conventional weapons trade The first book on the subject in nearly a decade The International Arms Trade provides an engaging introduction to the trade the effects and the consequences of these weapons The authors trace the history of the arms trade and examine how it has evolved since the end of the Cold War In particular they assess the role of the largest arms exporters and importers the business of selling conventional arms around the world and shed new light on the illicit arms trade and the shadowy dealers who profit from their deadly commerce The book also looks closely at the devastating effect the business can have on countries societies and individuals and concludes with an evaluation of the various existing control strategies and the potential for future control opportunities The International Arms Trade will be invaluable for students and scholars of international relations and security studies and for policymakers and anyone interested in understanding more about the conventional arms trade

China's Relations with Arabia and the Gulf 1949-1999 Mohamed Mousa Mohamed Ali Bin Huwaidin, 2003-09-02 This book provides a detailed analysis of China's foreign policy towards the Gulf and Arabian peninsula region from the establishment of the People's Republic of China in 1949 to the end of the 20th century Based on extensive original research it looks at the relations between China and each of the countries of the region over the entire period It demonstrates that two key factors have shaped China's foreign policy with the region China's relations with the United States and the Soviet Union and China's drive to increase its economic ties with the countries of the region especially after becoming a net importer of oil in the early 1990s Global Transformations David Held, 1999 In this book the authors set forth a new model of globalization that lays claims to supersede existing models and then use this model to assess the way the processes of globalization have operated in different historic periods in respect to political organization military globalization trade finance corporate productivity migration culture and the environment Each of these topics is covered in a chapter which contrasts the contemporary nature of globalization with that of earlier epochs In mapping the shape and political consequences of globalization the authors concentrate on six states in advanced capitalist societies SIACS the United States the United Kingdom Sweden France Germany and Japan For comparative purposes other states particularly those with developing economics are referred to and discussed where relevant The book concludes by systematically describing and assessing contemporary globalization and appraising the implications of globalization for the sovereignty and autonomy of SIACS It also confronts directly the political fatalism that surrounds much discussion of globalization with a normative agenda that elaborates the possibilities for democratizing and civilizing the unfolding global transformation

The Transformation of Security in the Asia/Pacific Region Desmond Ball, 2013-10-14 The security architecture of the Asia Pacific region is in a profound transformation Such changes are not without problems which are discussed here

The Weapons State David Mutimer, 2000 The proliferation of all kinds of weapons is a focal point for international security This work shows how both the language used to talk about weapons proliferation and the practices adopted to respond to it serve to define the problem in ways that promote policy responses doomed to failure

Conventional Arms Transfer United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs, 1995

Sea-Dumped Chemical Weapons: Aspects, Problems and Solutions A.V. Kaffka, 2013-03-09 This volume summarises the materials presented at the NATO Advanced Research Workshop on Sea Dumped Chemical Munitions held in Kaliningrad Moscow Region Russia in January 1995 The conference was sponsored by the NATO Division of Scientific and Environmental Affairs in the framework of its outreach programme to develop co operation between NATO member countries and the Cooperation Partner countries in the area of disarmament technologies The problem of the ecological threat posed by chemical weapons CW dumped in the seas after the Second World War deserves considerable international attention the amount of these weapons many of them having been captured from the German Army is assessed at more than three times as much as the total chemical arsenals reported by the United States and Russia They were disposed of in the shallow depths of North European seas areas of active fishing in close proximity to densely populated coastlines with no consideration of the long term consequences The highly toxic material have time and again showed up for instance when retrieved occasionally in the fishing nets attracting local media coverage only Nevertheless this issue has not yet been given adequate and comprehensive scientific analysis the sea disposed munitions are not covered by either the Chemical Weapons Convention or other arms control treaties In fact the problem has been neglected for a long time on the international level Only recently were official data made available by the countries which admitted conducting dumping operations

The Korean Conundrum Ted Galen Carpenter, Doug Bandow, 2025-09-23 The US seems to be heading directly toward a confrontation with North Korea as Koreans in the south and nations around the world anxiously witness mounting tension Carpenter and Bandow take a look at the twin crises now afflicting US policy in East Asia the reemergence of North Korea's nuclear weapons program and the growing anti American sentiment in South Korea They question whether Washington s East Asia security strategy makes sense with the looming prospect of US troops stationed in South Korea becoming nuclear hostages Carpenter and Bandow put forth the most provocative solution yet to this gnarled and dangerous situation

Military Industry and Regional Defense Policy Timothy D. Hoyt, 2017-07-05 Military Industry and Regional Defense Policy re examines military industrialization in the developing world focusing on policy making in producer states and the impact of security perceptions on such policy making Timothy D Hoyt reassesses the role of regional state sub systems in international relations and recent historical studies of international technology and arms transfers Looking at Israel Iraq and India the three most powerful regional powers in the Cold War era he presents an expert analysis of the three sided phenomena of the regional hegemony the regional competitor and the small over achiever This new book breaks away from existing literature on military industries in the developing world which has focused on their economic and development costs and benefits These past studies have used primitive methodologies that focus on the production of complete weapons systems a misleading gauge in a world of growing international defense cooperation They have also ignored empirical evidence of the impact of local military industrial production on Cold War regional conflict and of the defence planning and concerns that drove development of indigenous military industries in key regional powers This new text delivers an incisive new perspective
