New Perspectives on Civil War-Era Kentucky John David Smith, 2023-07-01 As a Unionist but also proslavery state during the American Civil War Kentucky occupied a contentious space both politically and geographically In many ways its pragmatic attitude toward compromise left it in a cultural no man's land The constant negotiation between the state's nationalistic and Southern identities left many Kentuckians alienated and conflicted Lincoln referred to Kentucky as the crown jewel of the Union slave states due to its sizable population agricultural resources and geographic position and these advantages coupled with the state's difficult relationship to both the Union and slavery ultimately impacted the outcome of the war Despite Kentucky's central role relatively little has been written about the aftermath of the Civil War in the state and how the conflict shaped the commonwealth we know today New Perspectives on Civil War Era Kentucky offers readers ten essays that paint a rich and complex image of Kentucky during the Civil War First appearing in the Register of the Kentucky Historical Society these essays cover topics ranging from women in wartime to Black legislators in the postwar period From diverse perspectives both inside and outside the state the contributors shine a light on the complicated identities of Kentucky and its citizens in a defining moment of American history

Women's Diaries from the Civil War South Sharon Talley, 2023-08-18 Traditionally narratives of war have been male Sharon Talley writes In the pages that follow she goes on to disrupt this tradition offering close readings and comparative studies of fourteen women's diaries from the Civil War era that illuminate women's experiences in the Confederacy during the war While other works highlighting individual diaries exist and Talley notes that there has been a virtual explosion of published primary sources by women in recent years this is the first effort of comprehensive synthesis of women's Civil War diaries to attempt to characterize them as a distinct genre Deeply informed by autobiographical theory as well as literary and social history Talley's presentation of multiple diaries from women of differing backgrounds illuminates complexities and disparities across female wartime experiences rather than perpetuating overgeneralizations gleaned from a single diary or preconceived ideas about what these diaries contain To facilitate this comparative approach Talley divides her study into six sections that are organized by location vocation and purpose diaries of elite planter women diaries of women on the Texas frontier diaries of women on the Confederate border diaries of espionage by women in the South diaries of women nurses near the battlefield and diaries of women missionaries in the Port Royal Experiment When read together these writings illustrate that the female experience in the Civil War South was not one but many Women s Diaries from the Civil War South A Literary Historical Reading is an essential text for scholars in women s studies autobiography studies and Civil War studies alike presenting an in depth and multifaceted look at how the Civil War reshaped women s lives in the South and how their diverse responses shaped the course of the war in return

The Business of War James McCarty,Matthew Tapie,Justin Bronson Barringer,2020-10-01 The Business of War incisively interrogates the development and contemporary implications of the military industrial complex It exposes the moral dangers of life in neoliberal economies dependent upon war making for their growth and brings the Christian tradition s abundance of resources into conversation with this phenomenon In doing so the authors invite us to rethink the moral possibilities of Christian life in the present day with an eye toward faithful resistance to the business of war and its influence in every aspect of our lives In combining biblical historical theological and ethical analyses of the business of war the authors invite us to better understand it as a new moral problem that demands a new faithful response With contributions from Pamela Brubaker Stan Goff Christina McRorie Kara Slade Won Chul Shin David Swartz Jonathan Tran Myles Werntz Matthew Whelan Tobias Winright
