

Strategic Planning for Your Church

Purpose

Note: There are many ways for leaders to develop a master plan. This is one method. Feel free to blend and bend this process to fit the needs of your church culture and size. Some activities can be compressed, others expanded.

Strategic Planning usually has two purposes:

- The activity of seeking God's Will for a ministry or church
- The decision to act in faith on what has been discerned

For this exercise we define strategic planning as a comprehensive review of all activities, programs, and ministries of the church.

The actual process of Strategic Planning may take months or years but usually results in an opportunity to improve, expand, reform, or rebuild a program, building, church, ministry, or mission initiative.

This process is most effective with a group of people who are open and willing to listen to the call of the Holy Spirit through its various means—worship, prayer, scripture, devotional activity, meetings and reflecting together. As we participate in a series of activities, we believe that God empowers thoughtful and prayerful reflection.

"But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; He will speak only what he hears and he will tell you what is yet to come." —John 16:13

"No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him—but God has revealed it to us by His Spirit." —1 Corinthians 2: 9–10a

Strategic Planning For Church Organizations:

Strategic Planning for Church Organizations Richard R. Broholm, 1969-01 Church and Ministry Strategic Planning R. Henry Migliore, Robert E. Stevens, David L. Loudon, 1994

Spiritual management is required for spiritual organization and yet a ministry's master plan should be the Master's plan for that ministry. Church and Ministry Strategic Planning assists readers in developing a Biblically based blueprint for carrying out the many activities in which the church or ministry is involved. The authors show clearly how careful planning is inspired by the Scriptures. Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Will he not first sit down and estimate the cost to see if he has enough money to complete it? Luke 14:28 and how it improves making decisions today which ultimately affect the ministry's effectiveness tomorrow. Church and Ministry Strategic Planning covers all areas of this type of planning and can be read and reviewed quickly. Through the use of a model of the strategic planning process, the authors show how to develop mission statements, define strategic objectives, develop strategy options, and operating strategies, appraise performance, and monitor strategic planning. Readers are led step by step through these key areas of creating a strategic plan. Examples and worksheets at the end of each chapter enable pastors, administrators, and lay leaders to develop a strategic plan fitting to their specific ministry or church. The appendixes provide tools used in planning as well as a complete sample strategic plan for a large church. Put these concepts to immediate use in decisionmaking and pursue God's purpose and vision for the church or ministry. If readers take the time and effort to study this book, apply its format, and prayerfully keep God in every step of the plan, here is what the authors believe plan administrators can expect:

1. A sense of enthusiasm in the church or ministry
2. A 5 year plan in writing to which everyone is committed
3. A sense of commitment by the entire church to its overall direction
4. Time for the leaders to do what they have been called to do
5. Clear job duties and responsibilities
6. Clear and evident improvement in the health and vitality of every member of the church staff
7. Measurable improvement in the personal lives of all those in responsible positions with time for vacations, family, and personal pursuits
8. The ability to measure very specifically the growth and contribution made by senior pastors or evangelists at the close of their careers
9. Guaranteed leadership of the church or ministry because a plan is in place in writing and is understood

Even more importantly, a management team and philosophy will be in place to guide the church or ministry into its next era of growth. Explore this Biblical perspective on planning and develop a strategic plan that is systematic and continuous and allows the church or ministry to assess its market position, establish goals, objectives, priorities, and strategies to be completed within specified time periods, achieve greater staff and member commitment, and teamwork aimed at meeting challenges and solving problems, and muster its resources to meet these changes through anticipation.
