Making Strategy Count in the Health and Human Services Sector Michael Mortell, Tine Hansen-Turton, 2013-12-06 This is the first guide to achieving long term impact and social change by employing critical strategies in the health and human services sector. It is based on lessons from a learning lab of 20 human services organizations and their chief strategy officers who, as part of the Strategy Counts initiative, engineered significant improvements in their ability to adjust to change, reap the benefits of more data driven decisions, innovate in ways that have meaningful impact, and establish fruitful partnerships with companies, communities, and government. The book is based on the findings of a long term pilot project, the Alliance for Children and Families Strategy Counts initiative, which focused on enhancing the social impact of human services organizations by increasing their reliance on strategy and its effective deployment throughout the entire organization. Included among these findings are those tools and methods that have the greatest potential to help nonprofits effectively anticipate emerging market forces and adapt strategies accordingly. Replete with lessons learned and case studies, the book will inform a great variety of human services organizations in their quest to improve the lives of children, adults, and families.

Key Features: Comprises the first guide to using critical strategies in human service organizations to achieve transformation and long term social impact. Designed to foster agility in adjusting to change, reliance on data driven decisions, and successful partnerships with companies, communities, and government. Describes how the chief strategy officers from a learning lab of human services organizations used strategy to innovate, strengthen organizational culture, and effect meaningful change. Based on the findings of the Alliance for Children and Families Strategy Counts initiative.

Strategic Horizons: Leading with Vision in a Changing World 1. Dr (Er) Vivek Kumar Saini, 2. Dr Sohrab Bharucha, 3. Dr Ajay Kumar, 4. Dr Pramod Rana, PREFACE In an era defined by volatility, complexity, and rapid transformation, leadership is being reimagined. The forces reshaping industries and societies, from digital disruption and geopolitical uncertainty to climate imperatives and shifting workforce expectations, demand more than operational competence; they demand visionary leadership grounded in agility foresight and purpose Strategic Horizons Leading with Vision in a Changing World was born from a pressing need to equip leaders strategists and innovators with the tools insights and frameworks to navigate this evolving landscape Across its eleven chapters this book explores the core pillars of modern leadership defining strategic vision cultivating adaptive mindsets embedding innovation fostering cultural agility and grounding decisions in ethics and human centered values Drawing upon global case studies evidence based research and practical models the chapters are designed to bridge theory and action Leaders will find guidance on Translating vision into executable strategy while maintaining organizational alignment Harnessing disruption as an opportunity rather than a threat Building resilient teams and systems that thrive under pressure Embedding innovation at the core of organizational DNA This book is not a static manual it is a strategic companion for leaders seeking to adapt grow and inspire in a world where certainty is fleeting and change is the only constant It acknowledges that leadership today is less about command and control and more about curiosity empathy and co creation qualities that enable organizations to align purpose with performance As you journey through these chapters you will encounter frameworks that invite reflection case studies that offer perspective and actionable insights that can be applied to real world challenges Authors Dr Er Vivek Kumar Saini Dr Sohrab Bharucha Dr Ajay Kumar Dr Pramod Rana Shaping a Workforce for Today's Acquisition Environment that Can Meet DOD's Needs United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services. Panel on Defense Acquisition Reform, 2010 Developing the Workforce, Shaping the Future Sajitha Bashir, 2009-02-04 With challenges similar to those faced by a number of low income countries Madagascar faces critical policy choices with respect to post basic education Enrolment ratios in senior secondary education and tertiary education are 10 percent and 3 percent respectively among the lowest in the world Critical skill shortages and pervasive inequities in access necessitate changes in the quantity and quality of education and skills The increasing number of basic education completers and demographic growth are mounting pressure on the government to expand access to post basic education Responding to these economic and social challenges the government has made the transformation of education one of the key priorities of the Madagascar Action Plan However low domestic revenues and competing demands from other sectors including basic education limit the room for maneuver Caught between these two pincers policy makers often choose to sacrifice quality over expanding access or are unable to develop a long term vision Developing the Workforce Shaping the Future presents Madagascar's core challenges and argues persuasively that the time for transforming the post basic education system is now It documents the poor performance of the post basic education system in the areas of quality and relevance internal efficiency equity and financial inefficiency The report presents a sequence of prioritization of reforms focusing on improving education content and linkages with the economy increasing coverage cost effectively through the adoption of new planning norms for public institutions utilization of the private sector and innovations in open flexible learning and creating the enabling framework through reforms of governance finance and management The report provides a convincing reform scenario for a low income country with actions to be undertaken in the medium and long term to sustain the development of post basic education in an environment of limited public resources and implementation capacity Policy makers in other developing countries will find this report useful to gauge their own strategies for post basic education
