Understanding the Management of High Risk Offenders Hazel Kemshall, 2008-09-16 This is an extremely important and timely book written by a pre eminent scholar in the field Hazel Kemshall has a proven track record not just of exceptional scholarship but equally importantly of engaging effectively with policy and practice Given the damaging synergies between media hype and public insecurities about dangerous offenders the evidence based measured and thoughtful analysis provided in this book provides a vital counterpoint to increasingly punitive and exclusionary discourses around public protection In promoting a more balanced humane and integrative approach to risk the book deserves to influence not just scholars but also policy makers and practitioners facing the complex challenges of managing risk and dangerousness Fergus McNeill Associate Fellow of the Centre for Sentencing Research Strathclyde University UK

High risk offenders have attracted much media policy and practice interest in recent years. New legislation and extensive multi agency partnerships have been initiated to improve the assessment and management of these offenders in the community. Drawing on a wide range of cross national literature and original research by the author, this timely book reviews current approaches to the community management of high risk offenders. The book examines in detail a range of risk management techniques including Community protection measures such as sexual offender registration and community notification. Restorative and re integrative measures such as Circles of Support and Accountability, pro social modelling, public health campaigns and environmental risk management approaches. Hazel Kemshall argues for a blending of these two approaches to provide risk management interventions for the protective integration of high risk offenders back into the community. In addition, the book examines contemporary difficulties in risk assessment, effective multi agency partnership working and recent policy and legislative initiatives in this challenging area of work. Understanding the Management of High Risk Offenders is a vital resource for criminology and criminal justice students and stimulating reading for probation officers, social workers, police and prison staff among others. Sexual Offending Amy Phenix, Harry M. Hoberman, 2015-12-07. This expert reference provides a broad comprehensive review of the major domains of sexual offending. Beginning with an integrated etiological model of sexual offending, chapters follow addressing the primary predisposing conditions related to sexual offending, e.g. pedophilic, hebephilic, paraphilic, rape and non contact paraphilic disorders, hyper sexuality and personality factors. In addition, special subgroups of sexual offenders, females, youth and the intellectually disabled are considered. Both broad and specific perspectives on the assessment of sexual offenders are provided. Overviews are offered of clinical and forensic evaluations of such offenders and the utility of structured psychological assessment. A novel conceptual model of risk assessment is proposed. More specifically, each of the primary approaches or instruments related to risk assessment of sexual offending are addressed: the Static risk assessment measures, the Sex Offender Risk Appraisal Guide, structured professional judgment and the varied measures of dynamic or criminogenic needs assessment. Finally, multiple aspects of management of sexual offenders are discussed, including models of psychosocial treatment, the question of the effectiveness of such treatment, biological interventions, civil commitment, circles of support and the containment approach to community management. Chapters are authored by both prominent experts and experienced professionals for a breadth of perspective. Among the topics covered: Pedophilic, Hebephilic, Rape, Paraphilic Disorders and the variety of Non Contact sexual offending conditions; Personality related conditions, their association with sexual offending, motivators and disinhibition in context; Disorders of hyper sexuality; Assessments of sexual offenders including the role of psychological testing, clinical interview approaches as well as forensic evaluations; Conceptual models of risk assessment; discussion of specific static, dynamic, structured clinical risk assessment approaches; Models of reviews of treatment outcome with sexual offenders including psychotherapy, psychopharmacology and castration; the containment approach; civil commitment; circles of support.
