Strategies For Survival Cultural Behavior In An Ecological Context:

Strategies for Survival Michael A. Jochim, 2013-09-11 Strategies for Survival Cultural Behavior in an Ecological Context focuses on the ecological relationships between cultural behavior and its environmental context The proliferation of ecological studies within anthropology suggests the increasing emphasis given to the systemic context of behavior The aim of this book is to develop a framework for examining these relationships and for comparing diverse ecological studies within a coherent conceptual structure It seeks to include any aspect of behavior to investigate the links between ideological and material factors to broaden the view of relevant factors and possible assumptions and to relate the processes of decision making to their specific context in a manner allowing cross cultural comparisons In the process certain popular forms of ecological explanation will be examined In addition specific behavioral examples will be investigated in an attempt to explain patterns of similarities and differences This book is addressed to all individuals interested in human environmental interactions including professional anthropologists and general students of human behavior Property Rights in a Social and Ecological Context Susan Hanna, Mohan Munasinghe, 1995-01-01 The collection of papers in the book Property Rights and the Environment Social and Ecological Issues 6 and this companion volume examine the relationships between people the environment and property rights and the ways in which a given social and ecological context affects those relationships The papers are products of a research program at the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences Stockholm The main objective of the program was to convene social scientists and natural scientists to address research questions in their full social and ecological dimensions The program s participants addressed five general issues related to property rights and the environment 1 the design of governance systems for sustainability 2 the relationship between equity stewardship and environmental resilience 3 the use of traditional knowledge in resource management 4 the mechanisms that link people to their environments and 5 the role played by population and poverty This volume presents case studies that address questions of design application in those five areas 6 Also available Property Rights and the Environment Social and Ecological Issues ISBN 0 8213 3415 8 Stock No 13415 Ethnic Diversity and the Control of Natural Resources in Southeast Asia A. Terry Rambo, A. Rambo, Kathleen Gillogly, Karl Hutterer, 2020-08-06 The authors consider the ways in which the high degree of ethnic diversity within the region is related to the nature of tropical Asian environments on the one hand and the nature of Southeast Asian political systems and the ways in which they manipulate natural resources on the other Rather than focus on defining the phenomenon of ethnicity this book examines the different social evolutionary contexts in which the phenomenon is manifested Companion volume to Cultural Values and Human Ecology in Southeast Asia Michigan Papers no 27 Deadly Dances in the Bornean Rainforest Rajindra K. Puri, 2022-07-18 For two years Rajindra Puri lived and hunted with the Penan Benalui people in the rainforest of eastern Borneo in Indonesia Here he reports on Penan hunting techniques the knowledge required to be a successful hunter and the significance of hunting for Penan communities A hunt offers the opportunity for younger Penan to learn crucial survival skills knowledge of the environment local geography genealogy history and beliefs and values Songs and stories recount hunting adventures and legends while ceremonial dances demonstrate the coordination and agility required of the expert hunter The author makes a case for using active participant observation in conjunction with standard ethnobiological research methods for documenting non verbal knowledge Included here are 21 months of hunting records and comprehensive appendices on game species and ethnobiological data This work will be useful to anthropologists conservation biologists and those interested in Indonesian ethnobiology

The Lifeways of Hunter-Gatherers Robert L. Kelly, 2013-04-15 In this book Robert L Kelly challenges the preconceptions that hunter gatherers were Paleolithic relics living in a raw state of nature instead crafting a position that emphasizes their diversity and downplays attempts to model the original foraging lifeway or to use foragers to depict human nature stripped to its core Kelly reviews the anthropological literature for variation among living foragers in terms of diet mobility sharing land tenure technology exchange male female relations division of labor marriage descent and political organization Using the paradigm of human behavioral ecology he analyzes the diversity in these areas and seeks to explain rather than explain away variability and argues for an approach to prehistory that uses archaeological data to test theory rather than one that uses ethnographic analogy to reconstruct the past

Environment and Subsistence of Chaco Canyon, New Mexico ,1986 Perspectives on the Past Geoffrey A. Clark, 2017-11-15 Perspectives on the Past shows how knowledge of the past is contingent and is largely determined by the social and intellectual milieu in which those who study it have received their training In the original essays that comprise the volume field archaeologists discuss their own biases and the effects these biases have on the way they conduct their research on hunter gatherers in the Mediterranean

Publications in Archeology ,1985 Chapters in the Archeology of Cape Cod, I ,1984 Environment and Experience Peter Boag, 2022-04-29 The pioneer battling with a hostile environment whether it be arid land drought dust storms dense forests or harsh winters is a staple of western American history In this innovative multi disciplinary work Peter Boag takes issue with the image of the settler against the frontier arguing that settlers viewed their new surroundings positively and attempted to create communities in harmony with the landscape Using Oregon s Calapooia Valley as a case study Boag presents a history of both land and people that shows the process of change as settlers populated the land and turned it to their own uses By combining local sources ranging from letters and diaries to early maps and local histories and drawing upon the methods of geography natural history and literary analysis Boag has created a richly detailed grass roots portrait of a frontier community Most significantly he analyzes the connections among environmental cultural and social changes in ways that illuminate the frontier experience throughout the American west This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1992 Documentary Archaeology in the New World Mary C. Beaudry, 1988 It outlines a fresh approach to the archaeological study of the historic cultures of North America The SAGE Handbook of Personality and Individual Differences Virgil Zeigler-Hill, Todd K. Shackelford, 2021-08-04 The examination of personality and individual differences is a major field of research in the modern discipline of psychology Concerned with the ways humans develop an organised set of characteristics to shape themselves and the world around them it is a study of how people come to be different and similar to others on both an individual and a cultural level The SAGE Handbook of Personality and Individual Difference is the broadest and most comprehensive overview of the field to date With outstanding contributions from leading scholars across the world this is an invaluable resource for researchers and graduate students Its three volumes cover all of the central concepts domains and debates of this globally expanding discipline including the core theoretical perspectives research strategies as well as the origins applications and measurement of personality and individual difference

American Anthropology in Micronesia Robert C. Kiste, Mac Marshall, 1999-01-01 American Anthropology in Micronesia An Assessment evaluates how anthropological research in the Trust Territory has affected the Micronesian people the U S colonial administration and the discipline of anthropology itself Contributors analyze the interplay between anthropology and history in particular how American colonialism affected anthropologists use of history and examine the research that has been conducted by American anthropologists in specific topical areas of socio cultural anthropology Although concentrating largely on disciplinary concerns the authors consider the connections between work done in the era of applied anthropology and that completed later when anthropology was pursued mainly for its own sake The focus then returns to applied concerns in more recent years and issues pertaining to the relevance of anthropology for the world of practical affairs It will be of essential interest to students and scholars of Pacific Islands studies and the history of anthropology The Exploitation of Raw Materials in Prehistory Xavier Terradas Batlle, Telmo Pereira, 2017-11-06 This collection presents state of the art approaches to the use of inorganic raw materials in the period known as prehistory It focuses on stone tools adornments colorants and pottery from Europe America and Africa The chapters intimately merge archaeology anthropology geology geography physics and chemistry to reconstruct past human behaviour economy technology ecology cognition territory and social complexity The book represents a framework of raw material investigation for those working in science regardless of the time period region of the world or materials they are studying The Savannah River Chiefdoms David G. Anderson, 1994-11-30 This volume explores political change in chiefdoms specifically how complex chiefdoms emerge and collapse and how this process called cycling can be examined using archaeological ethnohistoric paleoclimatic paleosubsistence and physical anthropological data The focus for the research is the prehistoric and initial contact era Mississippian chiefdoms of the Southeastern United States specifically the societies occupying the Savannah River basin from ca A D 1000 to 1600 This regional focus and the multidisciplinary nature of the investigation provide a solid introduction to the Southeastern Mississippian archaeological record and the study of cultural evolution in general

The Toyah Phase of Central Texas Nancy Adele Kenmotsu, Douglas K. Boyd, 2012-10-02 In the fourteenth century a culture arose in and around the Edwards Plateau of Central Texas that represents the last prehistoric peoples before the cultural upheaval introduced by European explorers This culture has been labeled the Toyah phase characterized by a distinctive tool kit and a bone tempered pottery tradition Spanish documents some translated decades ago offer glimpses of these mobile people Archaeological excavations some quite recent offer other views of this culture whose homeland covered much of Central and South Texas For the first time in a single volume this book brings together a number of perspectives and interpretations of these hunter gatherers and how they interacted with each other the pueblos in southeastern New Mexico the mobile groups in northern Mexico and newcomers from the northern plains such as the Apache and Comanche Assembling eight studies and interpretive essays to look at social boundaries from the perspective of migration hunter farmer interactions subsistence and other issues significant to anthropologists and archaeologists The Toyah Phase of Central Texas

Late Prehistoric Economic and Social Processes demonstrates that these prehistoric societies were never isolated from the world around them. Rather, these societies were keenly aware of changes happening on the plains to their north among the Caddoan groups, east of them in the Puebloan groups in what is now New Mexico, and among their neighbors to the south in Mexico.

Hunters of the Recent Past Leslie B. Davis, Brian O.K. Reeves, 2014-10-30. One of a series of more than 20 volumes resulting from the World Archaeological Congress, September 1986, which brought together archaeologists and anthropologists from many parts of the world, academics from contingent disciplines and non-academics from a wide range of cultural backgrounds. This book considers prehistoric and more recent manifestations of human hunting behaviour with a general emphasis on communal hunting. It demonstrates that the combination of archaeological, ethnographic and ethnohistorical approaches provides a researched basis for consideration of the topic on worldwide, regional and local scales. It includes theoretical and methodological issues within a context of enquiry, original data presentation and discussion. It is of interest to archaeologists, anthropologists and ethnohistorians.
