

Section 800 Panel Report, Streamlining Defense Acquisition Laws (Jan 1993)

The Section 800 Panel, the DoD Acquisition Law Advisory Panel, was directed by section 800, Public Law 101-510, the National Defense Authorization Act for FY 1991.

The Panel was chaired by RADM W.L. Vincent, Commandant of the Defense Systems Management College. Their report was transmitted to the congressional defense committees on Jan. 14, 1993 by the Deputy Secretary of Defense.

Of particular importance were the Panel's initiatives in three areas:

Streamlining: The detailed changes recommended for almost 300 statutes would result in a streamlined system of acquisition laws, more easily understood, administered, and implemented.

Commercial Items: The Panel recommended significant legislative changes in order to improve the Department's access to commercial technologies. Those recommendations are reflected not only in the Panel's analysis of the basic procurement statutes, such as the Truth in Negotiations Act (TINA) and the Competition in Contracting Act, but they are also addressed in an entire chapter of its Report highlighting the extensive reforms needed to enhance the acquisition of commercial items, both as end-items and as components of DOD systems.

Simplified Acquisition: The Panel determined that the creation of a new "simplified acquisition threshold" - initially to be set at $100,000 - would streamline more than 50 percent of all DOD contract actions over $25,000, while affecting less than five percent of its contract dollars. Integral to these recommendations is a continued preference for small business, as well as measures needed to simplify contract management for both the Department and its suppliers.
