also of children It seeks to give everyone architects and other ordinary city dwellers alike a better understanding about what is at stake in the making of the public spaces of our cities      The Queen of Katwe Tim Crothers,2012-10-09 Now a major motion picture starring Academy Award winner Lupita Nyong'o and David Oyelowo directed by Mira Nair The astonishing The New York Times Book Review and inspirational Shelf Awareness true story of Phiona Mutesi a teenage chess prodigy from the slums of Uganda One day in 2005 while searching for food nine year old Ugandan Phiona Mutesi followed her brother to a dusty veranda where she met Robert Katende Katende a war refugee turned missionary had an improbable dream to empower kids in the Katwe slum through chess a game so foreign there is no word for it in their native language Laying a chess board in the dirt Robert began to teach At first children came for a free bowl of porridge but many grew to love the game that like their daily lives requires persevering against great obstacles Of these kids one girl stood out as an immense talent Phiona By the age of eleven Phiona was her country's junior champion and at fifteen the national champion Now a Woman Candidate Master the first female titled player in her country's history Phiona dreams of becoming a Grandmaster the most elite level in chess But to reach that goal she must grapple with everyday life in one of the world's most unstable countries The Queen of Katwe is a remarkable NPR and riveting New York Post book that shows how Phiona's story transcends the limitations of the chessboard Robert Hess US Grandmaster      Between Gorillas Edwin Sabuhoro,2023-06-16 About the Book This book is about a life I have lived as a refugee a painful yet joyful life It's about my parents struggle in exile their struggle to live and stay alive It's about the savage killings of Tutsis in 1959 and the 1994 Genocide against Tutsi but it's also about the triumphs that we endured as a family It's a book about my mother and her love hope faith and forgiveness It's a testament to the resilience of a refugee child and a family going through so much yet always remaining hopeful It's a book about a stranger's patience empathy and generosity and about the gift of life and what it has taught me endurance courage persistence and a belief in my dreams as they have become big dreams It is a book about my wounds and scars and how they remind me of a future yet unknown Over the years I have walked through my share of thorny muddy lands Blades of grass have cut my feet and my tender heels have been drilled into by nasty critters I've faced more than my portion of cruel and evil spirited human intent on breaking me down To forgive all that tried its best to cut me down chew me up and spit me out I've learned to forgive For me forgiveness has become the most unique and beautiful part of me as my learned compassion always reminds me of how my past has influenced me to embrace my future To become entangled in the negative of the past would have only slowed me down and left me bitter I do not want nor do I need either For I am a warrior who will charge forward and leave my mark on this land we call home I will not tire tarry nor will I falter Nothing negative will slow me down I embrace my constant search for love and hope and keep my faith close while I continue to forgive a noisy and thorny world In the end I chose the light of day rather than the darkness of night Love hope faith and forgiveness are the paths of virtue I choose to walk About the Author Edwin Sabuhoro Ph.D is an Assistant Professor of
