Streetwise Chicago:

Streetwise Chicago Don Hayner, Tom McNamee, 1988 Welcome to the fascinating world of Chicago street names Did you know that Ainslie Street was named after a real estate developer whose widow in 1848 left for California to pan for gold with a new husband Or did you know that Crandon Avenue was named for a prohibitionist congressional candidate who lost to his opponent in 1882 by a vote of 11 686 to 663 A History Lover's Guide to Chicago Greg Borzo, 2021-11-01 Founded next to a great lake and a sluggish river Chicago grew faster than any city ever has Splendid department stores created modern retailing and the skyscraper was invented to handle the needs of booming businesses in an increasingly concentrated downtown The stockyards fed the world and railroads turned the city into the nation's transportation hub A great fire leveled the city but Chicago rose again Glorious museums churches and theaters sprang up Explore a missile site that became a bird sanctuary and discover how Chicago's first public library came to be located in an abandoned water tank Follow the steps of business leaders and society dames anarchists and army generals and learn whose ashes were surreptitiously sprinkled over Wrigley Field Combining years of research and countless miles of guided tours author Greg Borzo pursues Chicago's sweeping historical arc through its fascinating nooks and crannies

Project Censored Guide to Independent Media and Activism Peter Phillips, 2011-01-04 The independent media are arguably more important than ever today as corporate media's line reads increasingly like a government press release rather than a free society's analysis of the day's important events But there's a lot to sort through Independent newsmagazines and newspapers local cable TV access and independent and microtransmitted radio are everywhere offering a vast array of news opinions and information New Indymedia activists alone now have direct links to more than sixty five grassroots news sites around the world The challenge we are faced with is two fold We must make these news sources widely accessible but we must also find ways to compile sort and collectively release this real news to millions of people a project that this invaluable guide for diversifying your access to information can make much more achievable

Hidden Chicago Landmarks John R. Schmidt, 2019-07-08 Take in the sights of Chicago's forgotten byways including a cow trail through a downtown hotel Pause reflectively at the cemetery in a working scrapyard and the church built without a
