STREETWISE MILAN MAP MICHELIN.,2023 Pier Paolo Pasolini, Framed and Unframed Luca Peretti,Karen T. Raizen,2018-12-13 This cross disciplinary volume Pier Paolo Pasolini Framed and Unframed explores and complicates our understanding of Pasolini today probing notions of otherness in his works his media image and his legacy Over 40 years after his death Pier Paolo Pasolini continues to challenge and interest us both in academic circles and in popular discourses Today his films stand as lampposts of Italian cinematic production his cinematic theories resonate broadly through academic circles and his philosophical essayistic and journalistic writings albeit relatively sparsely translated into other languages are still widely influential Pasolini has also become an image a mascot a face on tote bags a graffiti image on walls an adjective pasolinian The collected essays push us to consider and reconsider Pasolini a thinker for the twenty first century The Publishers Weekly ,1999 The Bulletin ,1988 Map Milan Pocket Streetwise Staff,2008-07-09 Substance Abuse in America James A. Swartz,2012-08-06 This book provides a comprehensive overview of drug policy in the United States from the early 1900s through the present day providing historical and social context through the telling of the colorful and often tragic stories of the events and individuals throughout this period Substance Abuse in America A Documentary and Reference Guide examines the history of U S drug policy chronologically from the early 1900s through the current day covering topics such as patent medicines Prohibition Reefer Madness the psychedelic 60s Nixon s War on Drugs and the powerful warring Mexican drug cartels that currently threaten political instability in that country This book provides a comprehensive overview of U S drug policy that will fascinate general readers and benefit those in the field of substance abuse treatment or policy Each chapter includes an analysis of a primary source document that serves to illuminate drug policy in America at a particular point in time as well as the reasons for the waxing and waning popularity of various drugs The author provides accurate historical context that explains perceptions about substance abuse in American history and draws compelling parallels across different time periods to show that much of what may seem new and unique for the present generation actually has a historical precedent A Moment's Monument Sharon Hecker,2017-06-13 Medardo Rosso 1858 1928 is one of the most original and influential figures in the history of modern art and this book is the first historically substantiated critical account of his life and work An innovative sculptor photographer and draftsman Rosso was vital in paving the way for the transition from the academic forms of sculpture that persisted in the nineteenth century to the development of new and experimental forms in the twentieth His antimonumental antiheroic work reflected alienation in the modern experience yet also showed deep feeling for interactions between self and other Rosso s art was also transnational he refused allegiance to a single culture or artistic heritage and declared himself both a citizen of the world and a maker of art without national limits In this book Sharon Hecker develops a narrative that is an alternative to the dominant Franco centered perspective on the origin of modern sculpture in which Rodin plays the role of lone heroic innovator Offering an original way to comprehend Rosso A Moment s Monument negotiates the competing cultural imperatives of nationalism and internationalism that shaped the European art world at the fin de si cle Pepper Pike Les Roberts,2005 The stately homes of Pepper Pike house some of Cleveland s biggest movers and shakers And one of them an advertising exec named Richard Amber is missing Private eye Milan Jacovich follows a trail that leads from posh private gun clubs to sleek corporate offices and into the terror of murder Reissue Anthropology of Los Angeles Jenny Banh,Melissa King,2017-01-23 The Anthropology of Los Angeles Place and Agency in an Urban Setting questions the production and representations of L A by revealing the gray spaces between the real and imagined city Contributors to this urban ethnography document hidden histories that connect daily actors within cultural systems to global social formations This diverse collection is recommended for scholars of anthropology history sociology race studies gender studies food studies Latin American studies and Asian studies Prison Capital Lydia Pelot-Hobbs,2023-11-28 Every year between 1998 to 2020 except one Louisiana had the highest per capita rate of incarceration in the nation and thus the world This is the first detailed account of Louisiana s unprecedented turn to mass incarceration from 1970 to 2020 Through extensive research Lydia Pelot Hobbs illuminates how policy makers enlarged Louisiana s carceral infrastructures with new prisons and jail expansions alongside the bulking up of police and prosecutorial power At the same time these infrastructures were the products of multiscalar crises the swings of global oil capitalism liberal federal court and policy interventions the rise of neoliberal governance and law and order austerity and racist and patriarchal moral panics surrounding crime However these crises have also created fertile space for anticarceral social movements From incarcerated people filing conditions of confinement lawsuits and Angola activists challenging life without parole to grassroots organizers struggling to shrink the New Orleans jail following Hurricane Katrina and LGBTQ youth of color organizing against police sexual violence grassroots movements stretch us toward new geographies of freedom in the lineage of abolition democracy Understanding Louisiana s carceral crisis extends our understanding of the interplay between the crises of mass criminalization and racial capitalism while highlighting the conditions of possibility for dismantling carceral power in all its forms New York ,2005 The Auckland University Press Anthology of New Zealand Literature Jane Stafford,Mark Williams,2013-11-01 From the earliest records of exploration and encounter to the globalized multicultural present this compilation features New Zealand s major writing from Polynesian mythology to the Yates Garden Guide from Allen Curnow to Alice Tawhai and from Wiremu Te Rangikaheke s letters to Katherine Mansfield s notebooks Including fiction nonfiction letters speeches novels stories comics and songs this imaginative selection provides new paths into New Zealand writing and culture Bibliographie nationale française ,2000 The Global Translator's Handbook Morry Sofer,2012-12-16 A practical guide to translation as a profession this book provides everything translators need to know from digital equipment to translation techniques dictionaries in over seventy languages and sources of translation work It is the premier sourcebook for all linguists used by both beginners and veterans and its predecessor The Translator's Handbook has been praised by some of the world's leading translators such as Gregory Rabassa and Marina Orellana

The City Rehearsed Christopher Heuer, 2009-06-02 The City Rehearsed offers an entirely new perspective on printed architecture in early modern Europe through the lens of Hans Vredeman de Vries. It probes the geographical encounters of dozens of engravings with contemporary texts on architecture, theatre, urbanism, art, collecting, even ethnography. The Netherlandish polymath Hans Vredeman de Vries (1526-1609) devoted his entire career to the production of imaginary architecture. Painter, architect, rhetorician, perspective theorist, festival designer, and draughtsman, Vredeman was active in Antwerp, Amsterdam, and Prague, where he designed a mysterious body of architectural prints, works which by the seventeenth century had influenced buildings from Tallinn to Peru. Including Scenographiae (1560) and Perspective (1604), Vredeman's strange publications were among the most widely distributed Renaissance books on building and vision, shipped to England, Spain, and even Mexico by 1600. This book, the first sustained study of Vredeman in English, shifts the focus of inquiry to look at the active role his prints played in the life of urban readers outside of a narrowly defined Flemish architectural history. This is a study with clear interest for historians of art and the built environment and one with broader contemporary resonances for changing definitions of European culture and identity in the present day.

Urban Complexity and Spatial Strategies Patsy Healey, 2006-12-15 Urban Complexity and Spatial Strategies develops important new relational and institutional approaches to policy analysis and planning of relevance to all those with an interest in cities and urban areas. Well-illustrated chapters weave together conceptual development, experience, and implications for future practice and address the challenge of urban and metropolitan planning and development. Useful for students, social scientists, and policy makers, Urban Complexity and Spatial Strategies offers concepts and detailed cases of interest to those involved in policy development and management, as well as providing a foundation of ideas and experiences, an account of the place-focused practices of governance, and an approach to the analysis of governance dynamics. For those in the planning field itself, this book reinterprets the role of planning frameworks in linking spatial patterns to social dynamics with twenty-first-century relevance.

Surrealism and film after 1945 Kristoffer Noheden, Abigail Susik, 2021-07-06 This is the first volume to focus on the diverse permutations of international surrealist cinema after the canonical interwar period. The collection features eleven original contributions by prominent scholars such as Tom Gunning, Michael Lewy, Gavin Parkinson, and Michael Richardson, alongside other leading and emerging researchers. An introductory chapter offers a historical overview, as well as a theoretical framework for specific methodological approaches. The collection demonstrates that renowned figures such as Leonora Carrington, Maya Deren, Alejandro Jodorowsky, and Jan van Kesteren took part in shaping a vibrant and distinctive surrealist film culture following the Second World War. Addressing highly influential films and directors related to international surrealism during the second half of the twentieth century, it expands the purview of both surrealism and film studies by situating surrealism as a major force in postwar cinema.

The Rise of the Stylist Philip Clarke, 2024-07-25 The Rise of the Stylist examines the social factors that contributed to the stylist becoming a key role in fashion image making The 1980s stylist is presented as a cultural intermediary and auteur as commercial compass and avant garde innovator Focusing on London from 1980 to 1990 Philip Clarke draws on oral history interviews with the young creatives who were involved in the specific subcultural scenes educational environments and new modes of publishing that informed a unique moment in British cultural life By documenting the history of the stylist in fashion and dress as well as their contribution to fields such as food photography and car manufacture this study looks beyond the style press and bridges the gap between production and promotion The Rise of the Stylist defines the specific nature of the stylist s role in relation to that of other creative occupations and locates discussion of styling within the context of postmodern society where political shifts technological developments and changing attitudes in all fields of cultural production are reflected in the manufacture and dissemination of fashion

Black and White Knight Harry De Cosemo,2021-03-15 Black and White Knight How Sir Bobby Robson Made Newcastle United Again is a story of rebirth and redemption Fractured disillusioned and second bottom in the Premier League the Magpies were heading one way under Ruud Gullit down The magic of Kevin Keegan s Entertainers era was a distant memory but in September 1999 Sir Bobby Robson a son of County Durham returned home and became a catalyst for change Talisman Alan Shearer was smiling and scoring and everyone was dreaming again Three years later Newcastle qualified for the Champions League where they went toe to toe with the likes of Inter Milan Barcelona and Juventus making history on an amazing journey and playing a brand of football full of energy verve and attacking intent A genius in man management Sir Bobby s experience and aura gave the club its soul back Black and White Knight details how he mended divisions and massaged egos to make Newcastle everyone s second favourite team once again

Great Scot David Leggat,2012-10-10 A remarkable record of fifteen trophies in thirteen seasons at Ibrox plus two with East Fife should be enough to give any manager legendary status Especially when the same man became the first manager in Britain to take his club to a European final Scot Symon did all that and more and yet he is now an almost forgotten Rangers manager Scot Symon actually took Rangers to two European finals and had he won one his place in history would have been assured Instead he became Ibrox s forgotten man his contribution woefully neglected Now in Great Scot David Leggat tells the fascinating story of Scot Symon and shows how he helped shape the history of Rangers managing legendary players such as John Greig Willie Henderson and the greatest of them all Jim Baxter who gave his genius to Symon s most outstanding team And among the biggest names in Scottish football past and present who tell their Symon stories there is a heartfelt tribute to Scot Symon from the last signing he made for Rangers Sir Alex Ferguson With such support Great Scot sets out to show that James Scotland Symon was one of the most remarkable managers Scotland has ever produced and why he now deserves his rightful prominent place in the history of Rangers and Scottish football
