The Faure Song Cycles Stephen Rumph, 2020-09-29 Gabriel Fauré's melodies offer an inexhaustible variety of style and expression that have made them the foundation of the French art song repertoire During the second half of his long career Fauré composed all but a handful of his songs within six carefully integrated cycles Fauré moved systematically through his poetic contemporaries exhausting Baudelaire's Les fleurs du mal before immersing himself in the Parnassian poets He would set nine poems by Armand Silvestre in swift succession 1878-84 seventeen by Paul Verlaine 1887-94 and eighteen by Charles Van Lerberghe 1906-14 As an artist deeply engaged with some of the most important cultural issues of the period Fauré reimagined his musical idiom with each new poet and school and his song cycles show the same sensitivity to the poetic material Far more than Debussy Ravel or Poulenc he crafted his song cycles as integrated works reordering poems freely and using narratives key schemes and even leitmotifs to unify the individual songs The Faure Song Cycles explores the peculiar vision behind each synthesis of music and verse revealing the astonishing imagination and insight of Fauré's musical readings This book offers not only close readings of Fauré's musical works but an interdisciplinary study of how he responded to the changing schools and aesthetic currents of French poetry

Classical and Romantic Performing Practice 1750-1900 Clive Brown,2004-05-20 The past ten years have seen a rapidly growing interest in performing and recording Classical and Romantic music with period instruments yet the relationship of composers notation to performing practices during that period has received only sporadic attention from scholars and many aspects of composers intentions have remained uncertain Brown here identifies areas in which musical notation conveyed rather different messages to the musicians for whom it was written than it does to modern performers and seeks to look beyond the notation to understand how composers might have expected to hear their music realized in performance There is ample evidence to demonstrate that in many respects the sound worlds in which Mozart Beethoven Wagner and Brahms created their music were more radically different from ours than is generally assumed
