translation of the eighty one poems constituting an Eastern classic the mystical and moral teachings of which have profoundly influenced the sacred scriptures of many religions Tao Te Ching Laozi,Lao Tzu,1992 The Tao Te Ching is surely the most terse and economical of the world s great religious texts In a series of short profound chapters it elucidates the idea of the Tao or the Way an idea that in its ethical practical and spiritual dimensions has become essential to the life of China s enormously powerful civilization In the process of this elucidation its author Laotzu both clarifies and deepens those central religious mysteries around which our life on earth revolves Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu,2016-04-08 One of the most integral texts in Taoism the Tao Te Ching is a foundational scripture in Eastern Philosophy A source of divine inspiration for many the Tao Te Ching teaches eternal wisdom to those seeking the way Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu,2017-11-01 Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu,2017-02-18 The Tao Te Ching is a classic of Chinese literature and one of the foundation texts of Taoism a Chinese religious philosophy It is also known as the Daodejing Dao De Jing Daode Jing or simply as the Laozi Tao Te Ching is the romanization of the title which dates back to the late 19th century AD when English transliterations first appeared The date of original publication is still unknown but the oldest part can be traced back to the latter portion of the 4th century BC However modern experts believe it was written or put together after the Zhuangzi the other seminal text of Daoism which was published in the 3rd century BC There are several different translations of the title but the most common is as follows Dao or Tao means way but is most often used to mean the way as in the fundamental force driving the universe De has several meanings including perhaps most relevantly virtue Jing in this context means something like canon or great book So the full title can be understood to mean The Book of the Way of Virtue The book comprises 81 chapters today but there is evidence that chapter division was a later development for the book If this is the case then the original text had a much more free flowing style As it stands now the book is poetic in form with allowances for broad interpretation of the text It is written with an interesting rhetorical style it features bold declarative statements that are immediately confronted with statements that seem to contradict them Some experts believe that the purpose of this style is to get the reader thinking to reconcile these contradictions TAO TE CHING RODNEY A. COOPER,2013-06 This insightful English version of the Tao Te Ching is written in gender neutral language like the Chinese original with facing page commentary for casual or scholarly reading

Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu,Stephen Mitchell,2000 The lucidity of the original text had eluded most previous translators and they have obscured some of its central ideas This text sets out to make Tao te Ching the central Taoist text for the 21st century Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu,A. Kline,2014-12-09 Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu A translation into English by A S Kline Illustrated edition The Tao Te Ching or Daodejing in pinyin is a classic Chinese Taoist text dating from at least the fourth century BC According to tradition it has its origins even earlier around the sixth century BC The title may be translated as Instruction regarding the Way of Virtue Consisting of eighty one short sections in a poetic style the text ranges widely in content from practical advice to universal wisdom embracing politics society and the personal The emphasis is on the right view and understanding of existence the Way of the cosmos and the text sets out to transmit an informed awareness of being that leads to personal harmony The Taoist inclination to refer to the natural background to human existence when considering the human is widely in evidence The literary style is terse and often cryptic so that multiple interpretations of the individual sections are often possible but the essence of the work is clear in communicating an approach to life which is in accord with the natural and so conducive to spiritual tranquillity and resilience Like the Homeric texts the Tao Te Ching has been ascribed to a single author and to many Traditionally the author was one Lao Tzu Laozi which is an honorary title meaning the Old Master In the earliest biographies it is claimed that he was a contemporary of Confucius 551 479BC or that he lived during the Warring States period of the fifth or fourth century BC and in legend he departs for the western borders to live there as a hermit after first writing the text of the Way leaving it behind for the instruction of others Archaeological evidence continues to move the earliest evidence of the text further back in time but as yet the claims as to single authorship or an effort of compilation by many writers cannot be resolved Regardless of authorship the text remains immensely influential in the later development of Taoist thought and practice This and other texts available from Poetry in Translation www poetryintranslation com
