The Moral Economy Of The Peasant:

The Moral Economy of the Peasant James C. Scott, 1977-09-10 James C Scott places the critical problem of the peasant household subsistence at the center of this study The fear of food shortages he argues persuasively explains many otherwise puzzling technical social and moral arrangements in peasant society such as resistance to innovation the desire to own land even at some cost in terms of income relationships with other people and relationships with institutions including the state Once the centrality of the subsistence problem is recognized its effects on notions of economic and political justice can also be seen Scott draws from the history of agrarian society in lower Burma and Vietnam to show how the transformations of the colonial era systematically violated the peasants moral economy and created a situation of potential rebellion and revolution Demonstrating keen insights into the behavior of people in other cultures and a rare ability to generalize soundly from case studies Scott offers a different perspective on peasant behavior that will be of interest particularly to political scientists anthropologists sociologists and Southeast Asianists The book is extraordinarily original and valuable and will have a very broad appeal I think the central thesis is correct and compelling Clifford Geertz In this major work Scott views peasants as political and moral actors defending their values as well as their individual security making his book vital to an understanding of peasant politics Library Journal

Modernity and Its Malcontents Jean Comaroff,John L. Comaroff,1993-11 What role does ritual play in the everyday lives of modern Africans How are so called traditional cultural forms deployed by people seeking empowerment in a world where modernity has failed to deliver on its promises Some of the essays in Modernity and Its Malcontents address familiar anthropological issues like witchcraft myth and the politics of reproduction but treat them in fresh ways situating them amidst the polyphonies of contemporary Africa Others explore distinctly nontraditional subjects among them the Nigerian popular press and soul eating in Niger in such a way as to confront the conceptual limits of Western social science Together they demonstrate how ritual may be powerfully mobilized in the making of history present and future Addressing challenges posed by contemporary African realities the authors subject such concepts as modernity ritual power and history to renewed critical scrutiny Writing about a variety of phenomena they are united by a wish to preserve the diversity and historical specificity of local signs and practices voices and perspectives Their work makes a substantial and original contribution toward the historical anthropology of Africa The contributors all from the Africanist circle at the University of Chicago are Adeline Masquelier Deborah Kaspin J Lorand Matory Ralph A Austen Andrew Apter Misty L Bastian Mark Auslander and Pamela G Schmoll
