The Mosques Of London:

The Mosques of London Fatima Gailani, 2000 Mosques in the Metropolis Elisabeth Becker, 2021-09-20 Mosques in the Metropolis offers a unique look into two of Europe's largest mosques and the communities they support Elisabeth Becker provides a complex picture of Islam in Europe at a particularly fraught time shedding light on both experiences of deep and enduring marginalization and the agency of Muslim populations She balances individual Muslim voices with the historical and structural forces at play revealing in all their complexity the people for whom the mosques are centers of religion and community life As her interlocutors come to life in the pages the metropolis emerges as a space alternative to the nation in which they can contend with degrading images of Islam and Muslims Ultimately Becker insists that caste is a crucial lens through which to view Muslims in Europe and through this lens she critiques what she perceives as the failures of European pluralism To amplify her point she brings Jewish history and twentieth century Jewish thought into the conversation directly drawing on scholars such as Walter Benjamin Zygmunt Bauman and Hannah Arendt to describe both Jewish and Muslim life and marginality By challenging Eurocentric notions from progress to civility tolerance to freedom and equality what is at stake Becker insists is the possibility of a truly plural Europe Rethinking the Mosque In the Modern Muslim Society Mohamad Tajuddin Mohamad Rasdi, 2014 Muslim Diaspora in Britain Sabah Khan, 2024-03-13 This book explores the idea of Muslim diaspora in context of Muslim communities in the United Kingdom It critically looks at the notion of ummah and presents a comprehensive account of South Asian Muslims in London Employing qualitative research methods and drawing on extensive fieldwork it delves into the identification and transnational connections of Muslims in Britain It shows the ways in which religious identity practices and experiences may instigate diasporas focusing on South Asian Muslims in London Indian Pakistani and Bangladeshi Muslims who account for 3.6 per cent of the total population Further the inter as well as intra group dynamics and studies how Muslims of different ethnic background settled in the same geopolitical context engage with the notion of ummah The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of religion especially Islam politics British studies and South Asian studies The Contemporary British Mosque Abdul-Azim Ahmed, 2024-03-21 Repositioning mosques as social cultural and political spaces this book provides new insights on key contemporary debates the religious identity of Britain secularisation the far right and terrorism and gender equality Exploring the story of the British mosque from house conversions to grand works of architecture and the role they play in public life Abdul Azim Ahmed details the establishment of early mosques during the era of Empire and the rapid growth in the years following the Second World War Ahmed takes a sociological approach to this study drawing on fieldwork and ethnographic case studies alongside reviews of databases and historical documents to provide perspectives on the British mosque from the congregants themselves The Muslim congregation a poorly understood and often overlooked dimension of religion in Britain is examined and issues of diversity denomination sacredness and society are explored Reclaiming the

Mosque Jasser Auda,2017-05 At a time when misogyny and hostile attitudes towards women are plaguing Muslim communities throughout the world Dr Jasser Auda presents a timely and vital challenge to the contentious issue of women s access to the mosque expounding an Islamic perspective Reclaiming The Mosque is a crucial response to the current trials facing Muslim communities and moreover it offers a clear and cohesive call to action that harks back to the Islamic principles of freedom justice and human rights

The Place of the Mosque Akel Ismail Kahera,2022-06-14 The Place of the Mosque Genealogies of Space Knowledge and Power extends Foucault s analysis Of Other Spaces and the ideological conflicts which underlie the controversies of our day and take place between pious descendants of time and tenacious inhabitants of space This book uses Foucault s framework to illuminate how mosques have been threatened in the past from the Cordoba Mosque in the eighth century to the development of Moorish aesthetics in the United States in the nineteenth century to the clashes surrounding the building of mosques in the West in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Akel Kahera uses Foucault s genealogy to elaborate on and study the subjects that are caught in the emergence of a battle the social and political will to power the networks of power and the rituals of power within the interstitial space In going beyond individual buildings to broader geographical and genealogical dimensions of the power struggles The Place of the Mosque reconciles the public space experience governmentality and micro powers paving the way for a new philosophical language Expanding architectural and urban regional approaches Kahera shows the biopolitical significance of the problem of space

The Bengal Diaspora Claire Alexander,Joya Chatterji,Annu Jalais,2015-11-06 India s partition in 1947 and the creation of Bangladesh in 1971 saw the displacement and resettling of millions of Muslims and Hindus resulting in profound transformations across the region A third of the region s population sought shelter across new borders almost all of them resettling in the Bengal delta itself A similar number were internally displaced while others moved to the Middle East North America and Europe Using a creative interdisciplinary approach combining historical sociological and anthropological approaches to migration and diaspora this book explores the experiences of Bengali Muslim migrants through this period of upheaval and transformation It draws on over 200 interviews conducted in Britain India and Bangladesh tracing migration and settlement within and from the Bengal delta region in the period after 1947 Focussing on migration and diaspora from below it teases out fascinating hidden migrant stories including those of women refugees and displaced people It reveals surprising similarities and important differences in the experience of Muslim migrants in widely different contexts and places whether in the towns and hamlets of Bengal delta or in the cities of Britain Counter posing accounts of the structures that frame migration with the textures of how migrants shape their own movement it examines what it means to make new homes in a context of diaspora The book is also unique in its focus on the experiences of those who stayed behind and in its analysis of ruptures in the migration process. Importantly the book seeks to challenge crude attitudes to Muslim migrants which assume their cultural and religious homogeneity and to humanize contemporary discourses around global migration. This ground breaking new research offers an essential contribution to the field of South Asian Studies, Diaspora Studies and Society and Culture Studies.
