The Most Beautiful Man In The World Paul Swan From Wilde To Warhol:

The Most Beautiful Man in the World Janis Londraville, Richard Londraville, 2006-01-01 When Andy Warhol cast Paul Swan 1883 1972 in three films in the mid 1960s he knew that the octogenarian had once been internationally hailed as the most beautiful man in the world and as Nijinsky's successor Arthur Hammerstein had advertised Swan as a reincarnated Greek God and George and Ira Gershwin had celebrated his beauty in their musical Funny Face What Warhol didn't know was that Swan had also been called America's Leonardo portrait artist of the famous and the infamous including writer Willa Cather aviator Charles Lindbergh British Prime Minister James Ramsay MacDonald and dictator Benito Mussolini This book is the first to tell Swan's story from his days as a world famous dancer and artist through his film career which ran from silent pictures including De Mille's Ten Commandments 1923 to Warhol's Camp Paul Swan and Paul Swan I IV 1965 to his portrait painting late in life when Nelson Rockefeller's children Malachy McCourt and Pope Paul VI were among his subjects With unprecedented access to Swan's scrapbooks letters diaries and an unpublished memoir that tells the story of a bisexual man trying to build a public life in perilous times Janis and Richard Londraville reconstruct the intriguing life of this uniquely interesting figure whose story although widely glossed in the press was until now never fully known "Our Kind of Movie" Douglas Crimp, Andy Warhol, 2012 Examines Warhol films including Blow Job Screen Test No 2 and The Chelsea Girls arguing that new forms of sociality are made visible and exemplify the filmmaker's inventive techniques The Black Hole of the Camera J. J. Murphy, 2012-04-03 Andy Warhol one of the twentieth century's major visual artists was a prolific filmmaker who made hundreds of films many of them Sleep Empire Blow Job The Chelsea Girls and Blue Movie seminal but misunderstood contributions to the history of American cinema In the first comprehensive study of Warhol's films J J Murphy provides a detailed survey and analysis He discusses Warhol's early films sound portraits involvement with multimedia including The Velvet Underground and sexploitation films as well as the more commercial works he produced for Paul Morrissey in the late 1960s and early 1970s Murphy's close readings of the films illuminate Warhol's brilliant collaborations with writers performers other artists and filmmakers The book further demonstrates how Warhol's use of the camera transformed the events being filmed and how his own unique brand of psychodrama created dramatic tension within the works Classical Reception Anastasia Bakogianni, Luis Unceta Gómez, 2024-07-22 In a time of acute crisis when our societies face a complex series of challenges race gender inclusivity changing pedagogical needs and a global pandemic we urgently need to re-access the nature of our engagement with the Classical World This edited collection argues that we need to discover new ways to draw on our discipline and the material it studies to engage in meaningful ways with these new academic and societal challenges The chapters included in the collection interrogate the very processes of reception and continue the work of destabilising the concept of a pure source text or point of origin Our aim is to break through the boundaries that still divide our ancient texts and material culture from their reception and interpretive communities Our contributors engage with these questions theoretically and or through the close examination of cultural artefacts They problematise the concept of a Western elitist canon and actively push the geographical boundaries of reception as both a local and a global phenomenon Individually and cumulatively they actively engage with the question of how to marshal the classical past in our efforts to respond to the challenges of our mutable contemporary world
