The Minor League Register:

The Minor League Register Lloyd Johnson,1994-11-01 The Integration of Minor League Baseball Rick Swaine,Gary C. Fink,2025-05-20 Though much has been written about Negro Leagues players and Black major leaguers of the integration era little attention has been given to the accomplishments and struggles of Black minor league pioneers This work is a history of minor league integration with complete records for the more than one thousand players of color who toiled in Organized Baseball s minor leagues from 1946 to 1959 competing against the odds for a shot at the big leagues that few would get This work is a tribute to an underappreciated group of men who helped clear away the vestiges of a racist system that kept many of the game s best players from gaining the recognition they deserved Only about 10% would ever appear in the major leagues but the careers of Black major league stars of the 1950s and 1960s were built on the backs of this largely forgotten generation of players The underlying statistical and demographic information is compiled in a comprehensive register of players that were not or probably would not have been given a chance in Organized Baseball prior to the crossing of the color barrier due to their racial heritage The Encyclopedia of Minor League Baseball Lloyd Johnson,Miles Wolff,2024-12-19 When the pandemic hit in early 2020 baseball s minor leagues cancelled their seasons A few independent leagues tried abbreviated schedules but all Major League affiliates shut down for the first time in more than 120 years Since then Major League Baseball has taken over governance of the minors and leagues and teams have been eliminated In its fourth and final edition this book gives a complete accounting of the minor leagues as they were known from the late 19th century through 2019 The Register United States. Selective Service System,1993 Baseball in Evansville: Booms, Busts and One Global Disaster Kevin Wirthwein,2020 Baseball exploded in Evansville after the Civil War Early clubs like the Resolutes Blues Brewers Hoosiers and Blackbirds played built ballparks struggled financially and suffered scandals until the early 1900s A near tragic event fueled the 1915 construction of Bosse Field now the third oldest professional ballpark in operation and the host to Major League Spring Training and the filming of A League of Their Own After World War II college baseball returned after lying dormant since the 1920s In the late 1960s a local entrepreneur attempted to build a third major league When he failed the city ascended to the minor leagues highest level Join sportswriter and Evansville native Kevin Wirthwein as he recounts baseball s illustrious history in the River City American Miller ,1925 ‘Pug,’ ‘Fireball,’ And Company Steve Dunn,2023-12-19 Baseball fans in general and Chicago Cub fans in particular will enjoy author Steve Dunn s account of the 116 year history of professional baseball in Des Moines Iowa Pug Fireball and Company 116 Years of Professional Baseball in Des Moines Iowa describes the teams players managers owners ballparks and events that have entertained millions of fans at nine locations since 1887 The long list of stars that have played or managed in Des Moines includes Babe Ruth Lou Gehrig Bob Feller Satchel Paige Red Faber Buck O Neil Ryne Sandberg Tony LaRussa Charlie Grimm and Stan Hack It s an incredible book with some world class firsthand information on baseball Sarah Roger has said The Black Stars Who Made Baseball Whole Rick Swaine, 2014-09-24 For major league baseball the decade following Jackie Robinson's 1947 debut was one of slow yet persistent change. Four other black players made their first brief big league appearances that year followed by only two in 1948 and four in 1949. But by the end of 1959 122 black ballplayers had made it to the big leagues. Like Robinson their lives were made difficult off the field and on it they dodged beanballs and spikes. This book brings attention to the accomplishments of this transitional generation of African American players made up of men like Luscious Luke Easter Sam The Jet Jethroe and Sad Sam Jones many of whom spent years in the minors the Negro leagues or both before getting their shot. Chapters on each season from 1947 to 1959 incorporate biographical and career profiles for 25 players who stood out during baseball's integration. A final chapter covers the outstanding minor league players who for various reasons never got a real chance to play major league ball. Appendices include a roster of black major leaguers from 1947 through 1959 a list of black player firsts and statistics on the year by year population of black players in the majors.

Who's on First Mark Z Aaron, 2015-03-19 This is a book about baseball's true replacement players. During the four seasons the U.S. was at war in World War II 1942-1945 533 players made their major league debuts. There were 67 first-time major leaguers under the age of 21. Joe Nuxhall the youngest at 15 in 1944. More than 60 percent of the players in the 1941 Opening Day lineups departed for the service. The 1944 Dodgers had only Dixie Walker and Mickey Owen as the two regulars from their 1941 pennant-winning team. The owners brought in not only first-timers but also many oldsters. Hod Lisenbee pitched 80 innings for the Reds in 1945 at the age of 46. He had last pitched in the major leagues in 1936. War veteran and former POW Bert Shepard with an artificial leg pitched in one game for the 1945 Senators and one armed outfielder Pete Gray played for the St. Louis Browns. The war years featured firsts and lasts. The St. Louis Browns won their first and last pennant in 1944 a feat made more amazing by the fact that they had not finished in the first division since 1929. The 1944 team featured 13 players classified as 4-F. The Chicago Cubs appeared in the 1945 World Series but have not made it back since. Some 53 members of the Society for American Baseball Research SABR have contributed to this volume. We invite you to sit back and relax as you learn Who's on First.
