SOME POLITICAL REFLECTIONS

BY A GENTLEMAN WITH A DUSTER

*"Right and wrong are in the nature of things.
They are not words and phrases. They are in the nature of things, and if you transgress the laws laid down, imposed by the nature of things, depend upon it you will pay the penalty."*

AUTHOR, 2015-06-30 Excerpt from The Mirrors of Downing Street Some Political Reflections. If I may presume to offer a word of counsel to those for whom this present edition is chiefly intended, I would beg them to be guided in their choice of leaders mainly by moral qualities; that is to say, qualities of character rather than of intellect, and then to be as loyal to those chosen leaders as they should be severe in their judgment on lesser men whose interest lies in making bad blood between the captain and the rank and file. Discipline is essential to the existence of democracy; without it there can be nothing but disorder, disappointment, and defeat. The great beginning is a reasonable goal, then a choice of high-minded leaders, and then a stout and loyal heart for the long march to a more just and beautiful world. When democracy demands character in its leaders, when it feels in its blood the Atlantic difference between a specious talker and a man of profound virtue, then but not even then without loyalty can it hope to find a happy issue out of all its afflictions.
