Comparative Capitalism and the Transitional Periphery Mehmet Demirbag, Geoffrey Wood, 2018-10-26 An original and insightful book this work focuses on domestic and overseas firms operating in those Central Asian and Eastern European countries considered to be the transitional economic periphery Chapters shed light on their distinct forms of capitalism and how it influences and adapts the firms located there The eminent authors show how in a post state socialist world there are several implications for both domestic and overseas firms functioning successfully in the transitional periphery With the complex mix of political and market mediation and informal personal ties chapters explore the delicate balance of liberalisation in transitional economies Detailed examples from specific countries in Eurasia and Central Asia such as Belarus Turkey Azerbaijan Mongolia Uzbekistan Armenia and Georgia are discussed alongside broader thematic issues of economic and social change labour relations and human resource management Most importantly it is shown that liberalisation has little connection to short term business growth To succeed in such contexts international firms need to be both pragmatic and creative in coping with malleable yet durable forms of institutional mediation Providing a unique perspective on the transitional economic periphery and much needed insights from international business this book is essential reading for researchers and graduate students studying transitional economies non traditional business models institutional persistence and change political and economic development and management in economically transitioning countries

Internationalization of Firms from Economies in Transition Mai Thi Thanh Thai, Ekaterina Turkina, 2014-05-30 This book is an essential resource for academics and students of strategic management international business and business studies It also has significant value for practitioners and policy makers in that it will highlight important factors in a firm

Global Competitive Strategies in the New World Economy Hafiz Mirza, 1998 This important book provides an exhaustive analysis of the strategic responses of transnational firms to current trends in the world economy specifically the trends towards globalization and regionalization The primary focus of this book is on the strategy of transnational firms particularly those from East Asia in the geographical regions of Europe North America and Asia including the European Union the North American Free Trade Agreement and the ASEAN Free Trade Area The contributors discuss protectionism and trade agreements strategic alliances competitiveness and investment strategy towards Eastern European states and compare business strategies in the triad region The distinguished contributors are from industry academia and international organizations and have first rate detailed knowledge of the issues raised Their approach is policy oriented and they use case studies of Toshiba Toyota Samsung and the Notebook PC Consortium to illustrate the investment strategies of East Asian firms This book will offer insights to scholars and students seeking to understand East Asian and European firms the topics of globalisation and regionalisation It will also appeal to policymakers wishing to influence and understand the strategies of transnational firms Competitive Global Management - Principles and Strategies Abbass Alkhafaji,1994-11-01 Each chapter in Competitive Global Management Principles and Strategies lists important objectives to be learned The latest management research explains strategies of multinational corporations A real life case study helps the reader comprehend the importance of the issues discussed The book features a current literature review drawn from recent studies and research in the major international publications further exemplifying major points
