Conflict Areas in the Caucasus and Central Asia Arda Özkan, Göktürk Tüysüzoglu, 2022-01-25 The Caucasus region and Central Asia covers a large part of the Eurasian Both regions where Russia and China have a serious influence and visibility also have a location that reflects the hegemonic expectations of both these actors In this context domestic political developments and even internal conflicts in the region can be linked to the policies of Russia and China to a certain extent and have the potential to affect the motives of these two powers Although Central Asia is rich in natural resources it is landlocked and has lagged other nations in terms of agricultural production and industrial development Although the Caucasus is divided into the North the territory of Russia and the South where three independent states are located it is insufficient in terms of production and development The Caucasus stands out especially with energy projects and its feature of being a commercial corridor

Conflict Management and Dispute Settlement in East Asia Ramses

Amer, 2016-05-23 Through a multi disciplinary approach this volume studies the management and settlement of conflict and disputes in East Asia Conflict and disputes exist everywhere in human society The management and settlement of them has become an imperative This volume is a significant contribution to a broader understanding of the complexities involved in managing and settling disputes and conflicts at regional inter state and intra state levels in the East Asian region Drawing on expertise in Peace and Conflict International Relations and International Law the volume presents to the reader a general picture of how conflict can be managed at the international and regional levels through various mechanisms in particular through prominent regional organizations such as ASEAN It then moves on to case studies at the regional level including inter state and intra state conflicts and disputes The last part of the volume highlights how states resolve their maritime disputes This has drawn much attention from the international community due to various factors such as the increasing demand for natural resources from the oceans These disputes disrupt the smooth development of international relations as well as trigger tensions and confrontation between states

India, Europe and Conflict Resolution in South Asia Dr Rajendra K Jain, 2015-01-15 South Asia has been a region which has witnessed five full scale interstate conflicts where adversaries are major Asian powers armed with nuclear weapons and where no country has been free from insurgencies and separatist movements Containing eight essays by Indian and European experts this volume examines the genesis nature and features of the European Union's policy of conflict resolution It examines the causes consequences and prospects of conflict in South Asia It evaluates the role of the European Union in conflict resolution in Afghanistan Myanmar Nepal and Sri Lanka It also assesses Norway's role in conflict resolution in Myanmar The study will be of interest to all those engaged in the fields of political science international relations conflict studies and Indian and South Asian politics and foreign policy

Post-Conflict Development in East Asia Brendan M. Howe, 2016-04-08 East Asia is a region deeply affected by conflict Colonial ideological and national wars have left their scars and legacies on regional international and national governance Yet East Asian post conflict development experiences have been viewed as remarkably successful The three largest economies of East Asia Japan China and South Korea have all experienced dramatic growth but immediately prior to their periods of expansion all experienced the devastating impacts of international conflicts and or civil upheaval These post conflict development success stories do not however tell the whole tale Other states in East Asia and in particular certain regions within some of these states while apparently emerging from similar conflictual backgrounds have experienced far less positive transitions This volume critically assesses measurements of success in East Asian post conflict development from a human centered perspective This involves a major re evaluation of accepted accounts of domestic governance and international relations in East Asia from both a comparative and inter disciplinary viewpoint Case study rich this volume provides policy prescriptions for East Asian donors and actors in an effort to provide Asian solutions for Asian problems

Conflict, Community, and Criminality in Southeast Asia and Australia Thomas Sanderson, David Gordon, 2009-06-30 World Hunger, Health, and Refugee Problems: Special study mission to Africa, Asia & Middle East United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate Problems Connected with Refugees and Escapees, 1973 Race, Ethnicity and Religion in Conflict Across Asia Kunal Mukherjee, 2021-02-27 This book looks at conflict zones in the Asia Pacific with a special focus on secessionist groups movements in the Indian Northeast Tibet

Chinese Xinjiang the Burmese borderlands Kashmir in South Asia CHT in Bangladesh South Thailand and Aceh in Indonesia These conflict zones are predominantly ethnic minority provinces which by and large do not share a sense of oneness with the country that they are currently a part of most of these insurgencies have had strong linkages with separatist nationalist groups in the region Methodologically the author uses extensive fieldwork interview data and participant observation from these conflict zones to take a bottom up approach giving importance to the voices of ordinary people and or the residents of these conflict zones whose voices have generally been ignored Although the book looks at both the historical background and contemporary dimensions of these conflicts the author focuses on exploring how the role of race ethnicity and religion in these conflicts can be both direct and indirect This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conflict and security in contemporary Asia with a background in politics history IR security studies religion and sociology

Security and Conflict in East Asia Andrew T. H. Tan, 2015-04-24 Security and Conflict in East Asia provides a timely and comprehensive analysis of the sources and implications of conflict on the Korean peninsula and in the People's Republic of China and Japan the three biggest economies in the world This analysis provides the building blocks for effective solutions to manage these tensions more effectively and is a vital resource to those seeking a clearer understanding of conflict in the most pivotal region in the world In the context of increasingly tense China US strategic rivalry the ever present potential for conflict on the Korean peninsula and over Taiwan the absence of effective regional institutions and regimes the emerging arms race in the region the rise in nationalism and the absence of crisis management mechanisms there are many good reasons why the high potential exists for miscalculation and misperception sparking a regional conflict Given the presence of nuclear armed powers in East Asia namely China North Korea and the USA it is also possible that any regional conflict could escalate into a nuclear conflict involving the world's three largest economies the USA China and Japan The security of and any conflict in East Asia thus has tremendous implications for global security The Handbook is divided into four parts The introductory section includes chapters which set the context explain the history of international relations in East Asia and examine the phenomenon of regional arms race The second section is made up of a series of chapters focusing on China examining China's military modernization its relationship with the USA and the various territorial disputes in which it has been involved The third section focuses on Japan and North and South Korea looking at the security challenges facing Japan and the Korean peninsula A concluding section examines the future role of China and the USA in East Asia as well as the prospects for managing security in the region The contributing authors are all experts in their respective fields and all share an abiding concern over developments in East Asia Their contributions aim to assist in a better understanding of the issues to suggest possible solutions and draw attention to the need for diplomacy confidence building measures crisis management mechanisms and other measures to prevent conflict This volume will be of use to government institutions involved in foreign policy intelligence and defence reference libraries universities research institutes and non governmental organisations It will also appeal to analysts researchers journalists policy advisers students academics and the general reader Scholarly analysis is yet to catch up and currently there are no other comprehensive works examining conflict in East Asia in the context of the current tensions
