David Bellamy's Skies, Light and Atmosphere in Watercolour David Bellamy, 2012-05-15 In this second book in a series covering elements of the landscape renowned watercolourist David Bellamy shows how to paint skies light and atmosphere and how choices involving these three key elements can affect a painting Starting with skies David Bellamy covers basic techniques composition clouds special effects like silver linings sunsets and shafts of light and much more then there is a step by step dramatic sky demonstration Next comes light with plenty of advice including warm and cool light using glazes cast shadows light from different directions painting the sun and reflected light followed by a step by step demonstration featuring strong light and shadow The atmosphere section covers haze and mist fog mountains in cloud smoke and steam rain storms and tranquil moods and is followed by an atmospheric step by step painting of a waterfall David Bellamy s extensive travels and much admired painting style ensure that there are plenty of beautiful inspiring paintings of skies light and atmosphere throughout the book

John Constable's Skies John E. Thornes, John Constable, 1999-01-01 John Constable is arguably the most accomplished painter of English skies and weather of all time For Constable the sky was the keynote the standard of scale and the chief organ of sentiment in a landscape painting But how far did he understand the workings of the forces of nature which created his favourite cumulus clouds portrayed in so many of his skies over the landscapes of Hampstead Heath Salisbury and Suffolk And were the skies he painted scientifically accurate In this lucid and accessible study John Thornes provides a meteorological framework for reading the skies of landscape art compares Constable s skies to those produced by other artists from the middle ages to the nineteenth century analyses Constable s own meteorological understanding and examines the development of his painted skies In so doing he provides fresh evidence to identify the year of painting of some of Constable s previously undated cloud studies
