Sima Uyar, Ender Ozcan, Neil

Urquhart, 2013-07-12 Solving scheduling problems has long presented a challenge for computer scientists and operations researchers The field continues to expand as researchers and practitioners examine ever more challenging problems and develop automated methods capable of solving them This book provides 11 case studies in automated scheduling submitted by leading researchers from across the world Each case study examines a challenging real world problem by analysing the problem in detail before investigating how the problem may be solved using state of the art techniques The areas covered include aircraft scheduling microprocessor instruction scheduling sports fixture scheduling exam scheduling personnel scheduling and production scheduling Problem solving methodologies covered include exact as well as meta heuristic approaches such as local search techniques linear programming genetic algorithms and ant colony optimisation The field of automated scheduling has the potential to impact many aspects of our lives and work this book highlights contributions to the field by world class researchers The Oxford Handbook of Sports Economics Volume 2 Leo H. Kahane, Stephen

Shmanske, 2012-05-24 Shmanske and Kahane have organized over 50 essays from prominent Sports Economists into two volumes around two related themes This second volume explains how sports helps economics via quality data used to test a variety of economic theories East Midlands English Natalie Braber, Jonnie Robinson, 2018-07-23 This volume will provide a comprehensive yet accessible description of East Midlands English an area of neglect in linguistic research Existing publications which aggregate the findings of earlier surveys and more recent localised studies presenting an overview of regional speech in the UK are either lacking up to date research data from the East Midlands or simply ignore the region A coordinated survey of dialects of the East Midlands was part of the Survey of English Dialects SED in the 1950s This data is now over sixty years old and focuses almost exclusively on broad rural dialect speakers This book will fill the knowledge and literature gaps by comparing vernacular speech in different urban and rural locations in the East Midlands and examining whether the East Midlands is a transition zone between the North and South Recordings held by the British Library will be used and will be supplemented with recordings made with local speakers Language in the East Midlands is distinctive and there is considerable regional variety for instance between speech in the major urban centres of Nottingham Derby and Leicester Bringing out this regional variation will also improve our wider understanding of language variation in English The concept of the East Midlands in itself is not a clear one and this volume aims to address such issues and to examine what makes the East Midlands an area of itself and what this area includes Football Nation Andrew Ward, John
