For information about the book go to www.GroenendaelPress.com Evolution and culture produce a body and mind to suit a creature's role in the world Whether care of the young is provided by males females or both each species has evolved caregiver traits suited to that task The result is caring women and provider men In other words you are what you do However with the honing of each trait a creature pays a price In the case of a woman who specialized her body and mind to childcare the price was a failure to develop skill at financial self sufficiency and individual direction which in turn made it more likely that such a woman will live in a subordinate relationship Women as primary parents perpetuated gender roles Women internalized this definition of themselves and they became somewhat comfortable with it Even when they wanted more power over their lives they found themselves trapped from within But human beings have also evolved the trait of educability We can learn We can choose the direction in which we develop our abilities and traits The case against women raising children is the case for parents raising children

Girlhood, Schools, and Media Michele Paule, 2016-09-13 This book explores the circulation and reception of popular discourses of achieving girlhood and the ways in which girls themselves participate in such circulation It examines the figure of the achieving girl within wider discourses of neoliberal self management and post feminist possibility considering the tensions involved in being both successful and successfully feminine and the strategies and negotiations girls undertake to manage these tensions The work is grounded in an Veland, 2015-07-30 Winner of the National Indie Excellence Book Award for Women's Issues in 2015 Stop Giving It Away untangles what binds so many women to other people's needs, wants, and expectations. Cherilynn Veland, a social worker, counselor, and coach, builds a case for what women can do to make changes that will help them live more fulfilling personal and professional lives. Stop Giving It Away illustrates real-life stories of women who, to the detriment of their relationships and personal happiness, have given away too much at home and at work. Fairy Tales on the Teen Screen Athena Bellas, 2017-10-10 This book examines how the fairy tale is currently being redeployed and revised on the contemporary teen screen. The author redeploys Victor Turner's work on liminality for a feminist agenda, providing a new and productive method for thinking about girlhood onscreen. While many studies of teenagehood and teen film briefly invoke Turner's concept, it remains an underdeveloped framework for thinking about youth onscreen. The book's broad scope across teen media, including film, television, and online media, contributes to the need for contemporary analysis and theorisation of our multimedia cultural climate.

What Women Want Next Susan Maushart, 2008-12-17 With all the choices available to today's women, why don't they more feel fulfilled? What Women Want Next is Susan Maushart's meditation, by turns profound and laugh-out-loud funny, on that central dilemma of postfeminist life. At one point she had it all, so why wasn't she happy? With What Women Want Next, Maushart combines research with personal history in a dynamic attempt to answer this question. Feminism may have led women to life's banquet table, but the meal they make of it is up to them. How to balance life and work, sex and sleep, child care and self care. And why has women's guilt that glass ceiling of the soul become the biggest barrier they face? What Women Want Next is the first book to look at the spectrum of a woman's life and attempt to demonstrate how she can shape her own destiny throughout all its stages.
