England's social life and customs Excerpt Bird O More crouched in a little black heap in the corner of the sofa that stood between the closed windows in the farmhouse sitting room Her eyes that looked straight before her yet without seeing anything were quite dry but her feverish cheeks that she pressed against the cool haircloth and the twisting of her fingers in the folds of her gown told of grief as well as her black frock and the closed blinds Outside the house in the road half a dozen country teams were hitched to the rickety fence while their owners roamed about the yard talking in low voices and occasionally wondering aloud when the women folks would be ready to go home
