

The Sirens

The sirens sing to each other in the street from asphalt to ambush they echo the cry of the fallen soldier

Dragging the wounded from the streets they race to quell the war the crazy time

By dawn they will collapse Exhausted and sleep the restless sleep of mothers

Then

Under cover of darkness

The pilots will fly again

And angry drunken locomotives will collide in the night with swollen fists and broken glass

While the sirens

Sombre

Wait

extracts from his next book Days (Días) Dennis L. Siluk, 2014-07-16 Most folks to include poets prefer poetry on death to entail mostly courage and strength I don't disagree completely with that only partly for submissive suffering is also involved yet many folks just do not want to look at both sides of the dying Nowadays things are changing and it is more permissible yet still bold to mix them together and thus here we have just that I prefer true emotions be it aggressive or passive when going through death voyages for such are during a paramount loss of a loved one dying day by day especially one's mother as in Days In the second section of the book is the prose poem Recapitulations or The Meatpackers Boy autobiographical in content Also a few additional independent poems on Vietnam America An Old Furnace and Commentary Trials of a Poet The third section four new poems Coming of Old Age In section four a letter from Pope Francis to the author quotes and the author's books Much of the poetry in this book Days is done in a free verse style long line form other than the confessional grieving poetry on the death of the poet's mother a very deserted overwhelming human undertaking Rosa Pealoza This is the poet's 47th book 16th in poetry He lives in Lima Peru and in the Andes in Huancayo with his wife Rosa he is from Minnesota and has won numerous awards for his writings Presently working on several books Back picture of the author taken in Huancayo 2011

All Day I Dream About Sirens Domenica Martinello, 2019-04-10 What started as a small sequence of poems about the Starbucks logo grew to monstrous proportions after the poet fell under a siren spell herself All Day I Dream About Sirens is both an ancient reverie and a screen induced stupor as these poems reckon with the enduring cultural fascination with siren and mermaid narratives as they span geographies economies and generations chronicling and reconfiguring the male centered epic and women's bodies and subjectivities

A Longing Like Despair Alan Grob, 2002 A major aim of Grob's study is to show Arnold as poet to be possessed of far greater philosophic depth and subtlety than his critics have usually credited him with by identifying the deep affinities and shared weltanschauung of his poetic vision with the metaphysical pessimism of Schopenhauer the major European philosopher whose insistence on the cosmic opposition between the world as will and the world as idea provided the most important philosophic alternative in the nineteenth century to the age's otherwise dominant progressive historicism Jacket

The Siren and the Seashell Octavio Paz, 2013-05-15 Octavio Paz has long been known for his brilliant essays as well as for his poetry Through the essays he has sought to confront the tensions inherent in the conflict between art and society and to achieve a unity of their polarities The Siren and the Seashell is a collection of Paz's essays focusing on individual poets and on poetry in general The first five poets he treats are Latin American Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Rubén Darío José Juan Tablada Ramón López Velarde and Alfonso Reyes Then there are essays on Robert Frost and E. E. Cummings Saint John Perse Antonio Machado and Jorge Guillén Finally there are Paz's reflections on the poetry of solitude and communion and the literature of Latin America Each essay is more than Paz's impressions of one person or issue each is the occasion for a wider discussion of cultural historical psychological and philosophical themes The essays were selected from Paz's writing between 1942 and 1965 and provide an overview of the development of his thinking and an exploration of the ideas central in his works

The Cotton Belt Dennis L. Siluk Ed.D., 2011-07-15 Writing the book The Cotton Belt was a seven year intermittent project for the author which includes six books within The Tobacco Kings The Cotton Belt Colored and White The Vanquished Plantations Voices out of Saigon and an updating book called The Old Folks 1650 to 2012 all interlinking creating an amazing saga which gravitates towards the South Each book contains its own chapters or episodes having its own theme or technique The main families involved are one time plantation owners although we have Captain Peron owner of a brig Mississippi Blue the gambler and Sergeant Hood the scoundrel all colorful characters The families being the Abernathys Hightowers Wallaces Ritts bankers and the Smileys living between Fayetteville North Carolina Ozark Alabama and New Orleans with unforgettable characters such as Old Josh Langdon Burgundy the Wallace brothers Ashley and Witty from Voices out of Saigon and out of Cambodia we have Zuxin Ming and Sergeant Carter a Minnesotan This is the author's 4th Volume of his Natural Writings At the back of the book the author has added four poems Many Windows Mother of the Night Sky Three Shot Espresso and Common Sides Being awarded by declaration five times Poet Laureate Bulletin of the Brooklyn Public Library Brooklyn Public Library, 1917 Brooklyn Public Library News Bulletin Brooklyn Public Library, 1916 Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review, 1885 The Siren and the Sage Steven Shankman, Stephen Durrant, 2003-09-16 The cultures of ancient China and ancient Greece have exerted immeasurable influence on later civilizations The texts and cultural values of classical China spread throughout East Asia and became the foundation of learning in Korea Japan and Vietnam Greek learning and culture receive credit for many of the intellectual paradigms of the West Probably the one which is most distinctly Western is the tradition of logical proof and the related assumption that as Aristotle put it in Metaphysics 980 we all desire to know In contrast the Chinese tradition as exemplified by Laozi's Dao de jing cautions that through our desire to know we may forfeit wisdom thus engendering a split between knowledge and wisdom The Siren and the Sage is a comparative study of what some of the most influential writers of ancient China and ancient Greece thought it meant to know and whether they distinguished knowledge from wisdom It surveys selected works of poetry history and philosophy from roughly the eighth through the second centuries BCE focusing on the Odyssey the ancient Chinese Classic of Poetry Thucydides History of the Peloponnesian War Sima Qian's Records of the Historian Plato's Symposium Laozi's Dao de jing and the writings of Zhuangzi The intention through such juxtaposition is to introduce foundational texts of each tradition texts which continue to influence most of the world's peoples It is intriguing to ask what awareness if any these distinctive cultures had of each other A considerable body of scholarship comparing ancient Greece and ancient China now exists Scholars are presenting evidence that the two cultures may actually have been aware of each other's presence even though that awareness was presumably indirect perhaps mediated by the nomadic peoples of Central Asia While not directly contributing evidence the authors argue that comparing the cultures of Greece and China will continue to be an irresistible and important scholarly debate The book offers a provocative study which is accessible to students and general readers and at the same time contributes to the debate Structures of Epic Poetry Christiane Reitz, Simone Finkmann, 2019-12-16 This compendium 4 vols studies the continuity flexibility and variation of structural elements in epic narratives It provides an overview of the structural patterns of epic poetry by means of a standardized stringent terminology Both diachronic developments and changes within individual epics are scrutinized in order to provide a comprehensive structural approach and a key to intra and intertextual characteristics of ancient epic poetry
