Feminist mental health activism in England, c. 1968-95 Kate Mahoney, 2023-12-12 Feminist mental health activism in England c 1968 1995 provides the first in depth examination of feminist mental health activism in England employing original oral history interviews alongside detailed case studies of unexplored feminist initiatives It charts how feminist activists in the late 1960s initially rejected psychological approaches before employing a range of therapies to understand themselves and support one another This book charts the emergence of feminist mental health groups in the early 1970s the development of feminist therapy across the 1980s and the influence of feminist politics on national charity Mind in the 1990s It examines what participation in feminist activism felt like demonstrating how these emotions have influenced the construction of its history The book simultaneously forges a new direction in the history of mental healthcare in postwar England establishing how feminists grassroots support for women redefined community care

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, Michael D. Giardina, Gaile S. Cannella, 2023-06-19 This new edition of the SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research represents the sixth generation of the ongoing conversation about the discipline practice and conduct of qualitative inquiry As with earlier editions the Sixth Edition is virtually a new volume with

27 of the 34 chapters representing new topics or approaches not seen in the previous edition To mark the Handbook's 30 year history we are pleased to offer a bonus PART VI in the eBook versions of the Sixth Edition this additional section brings together and reprints ten of the most famous or game changing contributions from the previous five editions Doing Feminist Research in Political and Social Science Brooke A. Ackerly, Jacqui True, 2019-11-08 Guiding students step by step through the research process while simultaneously introducing a range of debates challenges and tools that feminist scholars use the second edition of this popular textbook provides a vital resource to those students and researchers approaching their studies from a feminist perspective Interdisciplinary in its approach the book covers everything from research design analysis and presentation to formulating research questions data collection and publishing research Offering the most comprehensive and practical guide to the subject available the text is now also fully updated to take account of recent developments in the field including participatory action research new technologies and methods for working with big data and social media Doing Feminist Research is required reading for undergraduate and postgraduate courses taking a feminist approach to social science methodology research design and methods It is the ideal guide for all students and scholars carrying out feminist research whether in the fields of international relations political science interdisciplinary international and global studies development studies or gender and women's studies New to this Edition New discussions of contemporary research methods including participatory action research survey research and technology and methods for big data and social media Updated to reflect recent developments in feminist and gender theory with references to the latest research examples and new boxes considering recent shifts in the social and political sciences Brand new boxed examples throughout covering topics including collaborations femicide negotiating changing research environments and the pros and cons of feminist participatory action research The text is now written in the first authors and second readers person making the text clearer more consistent and inclusive from the reader point of view The Feminist Bookstore Movement Kristen Hogan, 2016-03-10 From the 1970s through the 1990s more than one hundred feminist bookstores built a transnational network that helped shape some of feminism's most complex conversations Kristen Hogan traces the feminist bookstore movement's rise and eventual fall restoring its radical work to public feminist memory The bookwomen at the heart of this story mostly lesbians and including women of color measured their success not by profit but by developing theories and practices of lesbian antiracism and feminist accountability At bookstores like BookWoman in Austin the Toronto Women's Bookstore and Old Wives Tales in San Francisco and in the essential Feminist Bookstore News bookwomen changed people's lives and the world In retelling their stories Hogan not only shares the movement's tools with contemporary queer antiracist feminist activists and theorists she gives us a vocabulary strategy and legacy for thinking through today's feminisms Girl Zines Alison Piepmeier, 2009-11-01 The first book length exploration of the quirky feminist booklets With names like The East Village Inky Mend My Dress Dear Stepdad and I'm So Fucking Beautiful zines created by girls and women over the past two decades make feminism's third wave visible. These messy photocopied do-it-yourself documents cover every imaginable subject matter and are loaded with handwriting, collage, art, stickers, and glitter. Though they all reflect the personal style of the creators, they are also sites for constructing narratives, identities, and communities. Girl Zines is the first book-length exploration of this exciting movement. Alison Piepmeier argues that these quirky, personalized booklets are tangible examples of the ways that girls and women do feminism today. The idiosyncratic, surprising, and savvy arguments and issues showcased in the forty-six images reproduced in the book provide a complex window into feminism's future, where zinesters persistently and stubbornly carve out new spaces for what it means to be a revolutionary and a girl. Girl Zines takes zines seriously, asking what they can tell us about the inner lives of girls and women over the last twenty years. New Books on Women and Feminism, 2006

Styles of Cultural Activism Philip Goldstein, 1994. The ground covered by these essays also reflects this diversity. Literary works discussed include the film Bless Their Little Hearts, Abraham Cahan's book The Rise of David Levinsky, Edgar Allan Poe's antebellum novel The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym, and the journal Jewish Studies. Other subjects discussed include the ideology of an eighteenth-century survey course, the rhetorical authority of the feminist teacher, readers of the Broadway musical, the incommensurate historical accounts of Europeans and Native Americans, and the mainstream media's one-sided coverage of the Gulf War. Global Sceptical Publics Jacob Copeman, Mascha Schulz, 2022-12-08. Global Sceptical Publics is the first major study of the significance of different media for the reproduction of non-religious publics and publicity. While much work has documented how religious subjectivities are shaped by media, until now the crucial role of diverse media for producing and participating in religion-sceptical publics and debates has remained under-researched. With some chapters focusing on locations hitherto barely considered by scholarship on non-religion, the book places in comparative perspective how atheists, secularists, and humanists engage with media as means of communication and forming non-religious publics, but also on occasion as something to be resisted. Its conceptually rich interdisciplinary chapters thereby contribute important new insights to the growing field of non-religion studies and to scholarship on media and materiality more generally. Activism, Feminism, Politics and Parliament Margaret Wilson, 2021-08-13. Margaret Wilson has always lived a political life. From her days as a child growing up in the Waikato in a Catholic family attuned to fairness, an unlikely law student in the 1960s in a class with a few other women and an emerging socialist feminist who read radical texts and attended women's conventions, her key concerns became cemented early: the rights of women and equality for all under the law. This is the story of one of New Zealand's most eminent political actors. A policy-focused campaigner, reluctant to join a political tribe and uncomfortable with the combative attitudes and personal jockeying that politics seemed to entail, Wilson nevertheless rose to become the president of the Labour Party during the turbulent mid-1980s. Going on to become a central, far-sighted, occasionally controversial minister in the Clark government, Wilson held significant roles as Attorney General and Speaker of the House. Activism, Feminism, Politics and Parliament is a powerful analysis of political life in New Zealand over four decades From pay equity to a home grown Supreme Court employment relations legislation to paid parental leave the policies Wilson championed were based always in the long held principles of a true conviction politician

The Feminism of Uncertainty Ann Snitow, 2015-08-27 The Feminism of Uncertainty brings together Ann Snitow's passionate provocative dispatches from forty years on the front lines of feminist activism and thought In such celebrated pieces as A Gender Diary which confronts feminism's need to embrace while dismantling the category of woman Snitow is a virtuoso of paradox Freely mixing genres in vibrant prose she considers Angela Carter Doris Lessing and Dorothy Dinnerstein and offers self reflexive accounts of her own organizing writing and teaching Her pieces on international activism sexuality motherhood and the waywardness of political memory all engage feminism's impossible contradictions and its utopian hopes

Handbook of Feminist Family Studies Sally A. Lloyd, April L. Few, Katherine R. Allen, 2009-04-14 The Handbook of Feminist Family Studies presents the important theories methodologies and practices in feminist family studies The editors showcase feminist family scholarship providing both a retrospective and a prospective overview of the field and creating a scholarly forum for interpretation and dissemination of feminist work Acts of Intervention David Roman, 1998-02-22 Acts of Intervention traces the ways in which performance and theatre have participated in and informed the larger cultural politics of race sexuality citizenship and AIDS in the United States in the last fifteen years Mainstreaming Gender in

Global Climate Governance Joanna Flavell, 2023-02-27 This book explores the role of feminist activists in The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change and highlights the progress they have made in mainstreaming gender as a key issue in global climate governance It is now commonplace for gender to be framed as a political issue in global climate politics within academic scholarship but there is typically a lack of robust empirical analysis of existing advocacy approaches Filling this lacuna Joanna Flavell interrogates the political strategies of the Women and Gender Constituency WGC in the UNFCCC The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change Through a conceptual framework that integrates climate change with intersectional critical inquiry and political practice Flavell analyses hundreds of historical documents coupled with interviews and observations from two UNFCCC conferences This research uncovers a so far untold story about the history of the UNFCCC that foregrounds gender and feminist advocacy highlighting the importance of the WGC in shaping dominant narratives of global climate governance through a series of rhetorical and procedural strategies Overall the book draws important conclusions around power in global climate governance and opens up new avenues for advancing a feminist green politics This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of environmental justice climate politics and governance environmental activism and gender studies more broadly An electronic version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license thanks to the support of libraries working with Knowledge Unlatched KU KU is a collaborative initiative designed to make high quality books Open Access for the public good The Open Access ISBN for this book is 9781003306474 More
