Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves: Alabama Narratives United States Work Projects Administration, 2020-09-28 Uncle Charlie as he is known among his own color and the white people who know him told the writer he was born at Petersburg Va and his parents Aaron and Louisa were owned by a Mr J H White who had a store in the city but no plantation His parents had three children two boys and one girl and when Uncle Charlie was about ten years of age he was sold by Mr White to a speculator named Jones who brought him to Mobile He recalled being placed on the block at the slave mart on Royal and State streets and the anxiety of hearing the different people bidding for him and being finally sold to a Mr Jason Harris who lived near Newton Station in Jasper County Miss Uncle Charlie never saw or heard of his parents or brother and sister again and never knew what became of them Uncle Charlie said Mr Harris was a pretty rough master and somewhat close All rations were weighed out and limited He had a white overseer and a negro driver who was the meanest of all Mr Jason Harris had about sixty slaves and a large plantation of a hundred acres the men and women worked in the fields from six to six except on Saturday when they had half day holiday to clean up generally The home of the Harris family was a large two story house and the quarters were the regular log cabins with clay chimneys They cooked in their cabins but during the busy season in the fields their dinners were sent out to them each slave having his own tin pail marked with his name Water would be sent out in a barrel mounted on an ox cart Slave Narratives Work Projects Administration,2004-12 Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves Kansas Narratives United States Work Projects Administration,2020-09-28 My name is Clayton Holbert and I am an ex slave I am eighty six years old I was born and raised in Linn County Tennessee My master s name was Pleasant Ples Holbert My master had a fairly large plantation he had I imagine around one hundred slaves I was working the fields during the wind up of the Civil War They always had a man in the field to teach the small boys to work and I was one of the boys I was learning to plant corn etc My father brother and uncle went to war on the Union side We raised corn barley and cotton and produced all of our living on the plantation There was no such thing as going to town to buy things All of our clothing was homespun our socks were knitted and everything We had our looms and made our own suits we also had reels and we carved spun and knitted We always wore yarn socks for winter which we made It didn t get cold in the winter in Tennessee just a little frost was all We fixed all of our cotton and wool ourselves For our meat we used to kill fifteen twenty or fifty and sometimes a hundred hogs We usually had hickory It was considered the best for smoking meat when we butchered Our meat we had then was the finest possible It had a lot more flavor than that which you get now If a person ran out of meat he would go over to his neighbor s house and borrow or buy meat we didn t think about going to town When we wanted fresh meat we or some of the neighbors would kill a hog or sheep and would divide this and then when we butchered we would give them part of ours People were more friendly then then they are now They have almost lost respect for each other Now if you would give your neighbor something they would never think of paying it back You could also borrow wheat or whatever you wanted and you could pay it back whenever you thrashed Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves Indiana Narratives United States Work Projects Administration,2020-09-28 George W Arnold was born April 7 1861 in Bedford County Tennessee He was the property of Oliver P Arnold who owned a large farm or plantation in Bedford county His mother was a native of Rome Georgia where she remained until twelve years of age when she was sold at auction Oliver Arnold bought her and he also purchased her three brothers and one uncle The four negroes were taken along with other slaves from Georgia to Tennessee where they were put to work on the Arnold plantation On this plantation George W Arnold was born and the child was allowed to live in a cabin with his relatives and declares that he never heard one of them speak an unkind word about Master Oliver Arnold or any member of his family Happiness and contentment and a reasonable amount of food and clothes seemed to be all we needed said the now white haired man Only a limited memory of Civil War days is retained by the old man but the few events recalled are vividly described by him Mother my young brother my sister and I were walking along one day I don t remember where we had started but we passed under the fort at Wartrace A battle was in progress and a large cannon was fired above us and we watched the huge ball sail through the air and saw the smoke of the cannon pass over our heads We poor children were almost scared to death but our mother held us close to her and tried to comfort us The next morning after we were safely at home we were proud we had seen that much of the great battle and our mother told us the war was to give us freedom Did your family rejoice when they were set free was the natural question to ask Uncle George I cannot say that they were happy as it broke up a lot of real friendships and scattered many families Mother had a great many pretty quilts and a lot of bedding After the negroes were set free Mars Arnold told us we could all go and make ourselves homes so we started out each of the grown persons loaded with great bundles of bedding clothing and personal belongings We walked all the way to Wartrace to try to find a home and some way to make a living

Slave Narratives: A Folk History of Slavery in the United States From Interviews with Former Slaves Kentucky Narratives United States Work Projects Administration,2020-09-28 Uncle Dan tells me he was born May 5 1858 at the Abe Wheeler place near Spoonsville now known as Nina about nine miles due east from Lancaster Mother whose name was Lucinda Wheeler belonged to the Wheeler family My father was a slave of Dan Bogie s at Kirksville in Madison County and I was named for him My mother s people were born in Garrard County as far as I know I had one sister born in 1860 who is now dead and is buried not far from Lancaster Marse Bogie owned about 200 acres of land in the eastern section of the county and as far as I can remember there were only four slaves on the place We lived in a one room cabin with a loft above and this cabin was an old fashioned one about hundred yards from the house We lived in one room with one bed in the cabin The one bed was an old fashioned high post corded bed where my father and mother slept My sister and me slept in a trundle bed made like the big bed except the posts were made smaller and was on rollers so it could be rolled under the big bed There was also a cradle made of a wooden box with rockers nailed on and my mother told me that she rocked me in that cradle when I was a baby She used to sit and sing in the evening She carded the wool and spun yarn on the old spinning wheel My grandfather was a slave of Talton Embry whose farm joined the Wheeler farm He made shingles with a steel drawing knife that had a wooden handle He made these shingles in Mr Embry s yard I do not remember my grandmother and I didn t have to work in slave days because my mother and father did all the work except the heavy farm work My Mistus used to give me my winter clothes My shoes were called brogans My old master had shoes made He would put my foot on the floor and mark around it for the measure of my shoes Most of the cooking was in an oven in the yard over the bed of coals Baked possum and ground hog in the oven stewed rabbits fried fish and fired bacon called streaked meat all kinds of vegetables boiled cabbage pone corn bread and sorghum molasses Old folks would drink coffee but chillun would drink milk especially butter milk
