Blanch, 1983 This book is a selective and thorough survey of Gawain scholarship from 1824 through 1978 Sir Gawain & the Green Knight ,1936 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Anonymous, 2012-10-19 Sir Gawain and the Green Knight is a masterpiece of medieval English literature and one of the finest Arthurian tales in any language Though its ingenious plotting and verbal artistry continue to dazzle readers it is written in a challenging regional dialect and uses many words that were already archaic when the poem was written in the late fourteenth century This edition is designed to make the poem in its original Middle English accessible to students and general readers Following standards adopted for editing other Middle English poets the edition lightly normalizes spellings to make words more recognizable for a modern audience Extensive marginal glossing of difficult words thorough on page explanatory notes and a comprehensive glossary offer further support for readers The historical appendices include other examples of medieval romance from France and Britain

Gawain Keith Busby, Raymond H. Thompson, 2005-11-08 Gawain A Casebook is a collection of 12 15 classic and original essays on the hero of Arthurian legend that investigates the figure of Gawain as he appears in major medieval traditions as well as modern literature and film As with other volumes in the Arthurian Characters and Themes series this casebook includes an extended introduction examining the character's evolution from the earliest tales to his most recent appearances in popular culture as well as an extensive annotated bibliography Students scholars and anyone interested in medieval legend will find a wealth of insight into the mystery of this most poignant and perplexing of Arthurian heroes A Companion to the Gawain-poet Derek Brewer, Jonathan Gibson, 1997 It ends with a discussion of the reception of the Morte Darthur from the sixteenth to the twentieth centuries and a select bibliography The Knight on His Quest Piotr Sadowski, 1996 This book offers an integrated interpretative analysis of the major thematic aspects of the English fourteenth century romance Sir Gawain and the Green Knight The chief aim of author Piotr Sadowski is to look at the contents of the narrative in their entirety and to take full advantage of the poem's exceptional and widely praised harmony of structure and design Within that design Sadowski focuses on the poem's presentation of the main protagonist and his adventures seen first of all as a generalized metaphor of the human life understood as a spiritual quest and in a more historical sense as an expression and critique of certain ideals values and anxieties that characterized the late medieval institutions of the court chivalry and the Church Sadowski built the interpretive framework of Sir Gawain from an eclectic theoretical base that he believes is most valuable and useful in approaching medieval literature The main focus of the study remains the literary text itself created by an author who communicates his view of the world through the poem Arthurian Bibliography III: 1978-1992 Caroline Palmer, 1998 Details of all published Arthurian work post 1978 to 1992 If one wants to scoop up nearly everything on an Arthurian subject there is no substitute for the Arthurian Bibliography series ANGLIA In 1981 the first

Arthurian Bibliography appeared an exhaustive alphabetical author listing of all critical material recorded in the standard Arthurian bibliographies up to 1978 This was followed in 1983 by the second volume giving full indexes by topic key word and individual work author to form a complete subject index of every topic in Arthurian literature Summaries and reviews were also indicated where they existed Arthurian Bibliography III updates this invaluable reference work for Arthurian scholars to 1992 Compiled from the BBSIA it conveniently contains both author listing and subject index in one volume

Verbal Dueling in Heroic Narrative Wards Parks, 2014-07-14 This work is a rare cross cultural study of one of the most universal dialogic genres heroic flyting or the verbal duel in which the heroes prior to physical combat make boastful claims that must be backed up through action in the arena of public contesting Long recognized as an elemental behavioral paradigm in human consciousness the contest has only recently emerged as a factor in the formation of Western intellectual traditions and modes of discourse In presenting the verbal duel as a literary expression of the contest Ward Parks shows how flyting interfaces words and physical action He explores the place of flyting in the patterning of culture both Eastern and Western from Homeric and Old English martial narratives to current academic debate to such phenomena of popular culture as rap Parks studies flyting from a comparative standpoint to discover major generic and structural characteristics common to this activity in both its oral and written traditions Drawing his methodology from such fields as literary criticism socio biology linguistics and game theory he begins with an exploration of the nature and structure of contesting as it relates to flyting interactions He then examines the covert contract formation that binds the verbal and physical aspects of the duel analyzes the heroic generation of speeches and their dialogic interrelation in the flyting process itself and illustrates the adaptability of flyting patterns within a wide variety of cultural and ideological settings Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
