Walking on Lava The Dark Mountain Project, 2017 The Dark Mountain Project began with a manifesto published in 2009 by two English writers Dougald Hine and Paul Kingsnorth who felt that literature was not responding honestly to the crises of our time In a world in which the climate is being altered by human activities in which global ecosystems are being destroyed by the advance of industrial civilisation and in which the dominant economic and cultural assumptions of the West are visibly crumbling Dark Mountain asked where are the writers and the artists Dark Mountain's call for writers thinkers and artists willing to face the depth of the mess we are in has made it a gathering point for a growing international network Rooted in place time and nature their work finds a home in the pages of the Dark Mountain books with two new volumes published every year Walking on Lava brings together the best of the first ten volumes along with the original manifesto This collection of essays fiction poetry interviews and artwork introduces The Dark Mountain Project's groundbreaking work to a wider audience in search of the hope beyond hope the paths which lead to the unknown world ahead of us

Miletich, 1990-01-16 Public safety professionals work together in life and death situations During natural or transportation disasters industrial accidents shootings suicides or dozens of other instances police officers firefighters and paramedics are called upon to assist both injured and uninjured people Although often romanticized in television series and in films the real life tasks of public safety professionals are usually unpleasant restraining violent individuals and removing accident homicide and suicide victims from death scenes and always highly stressful They are frequently subjected to additional stress when their efforts are criticized by family members of the injured or deceased Although stress can be harmful even fatal police officers firefighters and paramedics can have more productive and satisfying lives when they learn to positively control stress rather than be controlled by it This English language bibliography consisting of more than 700 references covering the time period 1945 to early 1989 can help these and other professionals manage stress more effectively Source publications all of which are annotated include books articles conference proceedings theses government publications and dissertations The bibliography section is composed of six chapters addressing psychological and physiological factors the family substance abuse accidents and suicide with references arranged alphabetically by author surname A list of acronyms and author and subject indexes complete the work Of paramount importance to police officers firefighters and paramedics as well as their families this bibliography will provide

Muck,Frances S. Adeney,2009-04-01 The current religious climate poses unique challenges to those engaged in mission Thus the authors of this book propose a new yet very biblical model for interacting with people of other faiths They term this model giftive mission as it is based on the metaphor of free gift We bear the greatest gift possible the gospel message Adopting this perspective not only has the potential for greater missionary success but also enables us to more closely imitate God s gracious activity in the world The core of the book explores eleven practices that characterize giftive mission Each practice is illustrated through the story of a figure from mission history who embodied that practice Further discussion shows how to incorporate these practices in specific mission settings Just Care Akemi Nishida,2022-07-15 Just Care examines care as a site where the somatic the political economy and intersectional social oppressions manifest and materialize interactively while it is also a vision and praxis for radically collective and affectionate ways to live and transform society BETWEEN THEE AND ME Donald B. Because We Can - We Must: Achieving the Human Developmental Potential In Five Generations Alex T. Polgar, 2019-04-26 Polgar gives an insightful and illuminating examination of the human condition and his prognosis is encouraging We have the ability to reach our fullest potential despite the systematic obstruction of our parenting emotional and moral development The underlying cause aberrant behaviors that are a product of dysfunctional families perpetuated inter generationally and precipitated by adverse environmental conditions to which children are exposed prenatally and during their most crucial formative years Polgar's solution is simple Since the obstruction of our development is environmentally induced we can achieve optimal development in our parenting abilities moral reasoning and emotional intelligence by incrementally altering environmental conditions Such a change must occur at the grass roots level and culminate in a global coalition of like minded people He believes that such changes will take five generations to accomplish
