Loving Immigrants in America Daniel Campos, 2017-08-30 At once narrative and reflective Loving Immigrants in America An Experiential Philosophy of Personal Interaction is a philosophical account of Daniel Campos s experience as a Latin American immigrant to the United States of America A series of interrelated personal essays together convey this experience of walking or sauntering going on road trips reading American literature in the southern United States playing association football soccer or f tbol churchgoing and Latin dancing in the U S This book s central motif is the caring saunterer who is understood to be a person who makes him or herself at home anywhere even as a Latino immigrant in the U S The narrative essays convey one immigrant s experience seeking an affective social and intellectual home in a new land The intertwined philosophical reflections lead to the recommendation of an ethic of love resilient love for the day to day interactions and long term relations between immigrants and hosts in this country The author s aim is to establish an open and earnest philosophical dialogue with critical readers interested in the problems surrounding immigration in the U S today He writes as an American philosopher in the continental sense of North Central and South America whose reflections provide an accessible and provocative angle for the development of insight into the experiences of immigrants in the United States Thus he brings philosophical reflection drawn from experience in the broad American tradition to bear on current issues on the problems of people and not of philosophers as John Dewey might put it
